We are authorized to announce Wm. Kenney a candidate for re-election to the House of Representatives of the Kentucky House of Representatives.

We are authorized to announce Wm. Kenney a candidate for re-election to the House of Representatives of the Kentucky House of Representatives.

THURSDAY, NOV. 19, ..... 1891

Ten People's Party ticket in Ohio received 25,000 votes.

The Ohio Legislature will be 52 Republicans on joint ballot.

Since the McKinley bill went into effect 316 protests of importers have been filed in the office of the Collector of Customs at Cincinnati.

In two weeks Congress will be in session and Reed will once more be reigned to the ranks. The Democrats will elect one of their number Speaker, and the people will watch their conduct very closely.

A SERGEANT of Fayette's band, according to the Lexington Leader, has rebelled against the authority of the Governor-elect Sergeant at Chrysanthemum. The trouble had its origin in the refusal of the Judases to send their children to school.

MR. W. T. HENRY and others are engaged in circulating a paper to be signed to an agreement to vote the prohibition ticket at the Presidential election. The Prohibition candidate will be put up unless one satisfactory to them is selected.

CHICAGO is having trouble with her anarchist spats. Unless Chicago supplies more anarchists than she has she will be afraid to attend the World's Fair in 1892 I. There is nothing so calculated to disturb an enemy's folds than the thought of a dynamite bomb under one bed.

SENATOR SHERMAN thinks that the free silver plank in the Ohio Democratic platform, similar to the one Blackburn ran on in the Kentucky convention, cut a big figure in Campbell's defeat. It might have cost Negley a few less ten against our ticket if the large majority of people were not honest and didn't fail to swallow any kind of a dose that contains one to their interest.

THE Democrats appointed to revise the General Statutes of Kentucky have sent a circular to our City solicitors in regard to the revision of our charters. We hope they will not revise ours, the charters of all cities of the same class. This quite an important matter and should receive prompt attention at the hands of our Council.

COL. RICHARD PARKE, of Carlisle, has issued the Mercer-Gazette Blood and will take charge of it about the first of December. Col. Parke is a brilliant editorial experience in the business, having been local at Carlisle, Blue Lick Springs, Parks Hill and other places, is widely known and under his management the Mercer-Gazette will become a favorite stopping place with the visiting public.—Frankfort Recorder.

We announce Capt. Jeff Whitaker, Wm. Pope, of Franklin County, a candidate for Doorkeeper of the next Kentucky House of Representatives. Mr. Pope is a gentleman of character, of the confidence of the next House, a faithful Democrat, and will contest for a place in his party. He was formerly a Deputy Sergeant-at-Arms of the House.

In Fiscal years ago, wrote a letter, he has been engaged in farming, and he now asks his office, the first he ever asked for.

THE report of the Internal Revenue Commissioner, C. E. Franklin have finished the work of arranging the new Internal Revenue districts and are now at work on the collection list, but will not make it public any of their conclusions, is having a hard time on the nerves of the numerous candidates for Circuit Judge. In order to let the new districts there may be a great shuffling among the boundaries, and the candidate does not know whether he stands in to be a candidate or not. Some of the districts are arranging. Though the change is a part of the move for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney have been considerably disturbed.

IT has been notorious for a long time that it was about every legal whisky in the country to the Democratic party in the state. Democratic officers being fined the county of the license was for them to be to lose. The officers in Boone have, we are glad to know, at last caught on to the way the wind blows, and were determined to shut off the traffic—and every enemy who violates the law in July. A couple of negro-lovers for the same purpose secured indisputable evidence against a number of saloons in Boone, and went to work to close them up. The account have been on trial for several days and from the volume of several thousands of dollars have been entered, carrying with them a work home audience, if not gold or silver. We are glad to see this work begun and hope the authorities will not stop when they get through with the negroes, but fine every author's son engaged in the illegal traffic. Let prohibition prohibit, or repeal the law.—Interior Journal.

SECRETARY H. H. SMITH, of the Committee on Revision, went up to Whitehouse the other day, and the spirit of confidence lifted a delicate corner of the curtain of mystery behind which the committee has been doing its work, and allowed the Winchester Democrat to take a peep. The Democrat discovered among other things, the committee progress to change the Appellate Court districts; by laying off the seven counties allowed by the new constitution but not required. The Committee on Revision, according to the Democrat, is to throw by the year 1900, with the power given, to the Legislature to increase the number to seven. The Committee on Revision, if Mr. Smith is correctly quoted, and if he is correctly informed, proposes to carry the increase to the maximum limit at once, that is to 1904 Of course the work done and the general lot of the Legislature, and there may be considerable opposition from some sides to do and think the State not needs seven Appellate districts, but the committee is evidently a unit, and if work is completed and it is interesting to speculate as to how much of it could recognized by the conscientiousness themselves when the Legislature gets through with it.—Courier-Journal.

A NEW HAMPSHIRE editor, who is very much in need of funds, recently sent the following very original and forcible appeal to his delinquent subscribers:

LISTEN TO OUR VOICE OF WOE.

We need money.

The office "devil" is seven weeks behind in his board bill, and he eats enough to make a dog. He must get paid and leave.

The paper dealers won't trust us any more.

Our wood shed is empty and a cold winter is coming. The neighbors haven't brought presents.

The cow has dried up and the baby has the colic.

The hens are on a strike, and the Mistress is discouraged.

Our summer pants are worn through at the knees. We cannot afford to buy clothes.

The grocery boy said he had orders not to call any more.

We have got something must be done.

We have borrowed money to pay postage on this letter. If you can't pay in money, you can in provisions—a few cords of the quickest and nicest apples in the country.

Come before the store to get the grated out of the door. Don't wait to be invited. Don't wait a week and five days to be asked and not dressed. Come one-horse, one-ox power just as it is, and after it has taken two or three bottles he began to look like a human being. He continued to take stores bottles, and to-day he is as well as ever. The lady is about seventy years old, and Mrs Kelley lives next door to me, and I am well acquainted with the facts of the case."—C. W. Hancock, Druggist, Atlanta, Ga. Hancock Family's Specific has a wonderful effect on children and young people. It is good in every child and adult who has any blood trouble or blood taint. TEN Louisville Times men, on the upper Ohio, river is so low that when they struck out of a bunch of logs that the owners are compelled to beat them on the shoulders, and they have to wait there before they can be milked. Even the fish have to swim on their sides through the shore to get the gravel out of their mouths. Some of the boys have to walk 20 miles to get a drink. When they get to Pittsburgh they expect to have to get a drink of water in a jug or dust and leave.

Our Commodore Cure.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility, has thought it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using, by mail, free of charge, to any sufferer who names this paper. Address, with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 820 Power Block, Rochester, N. Y.

Speak Be Zed of Women.
