FOR PRESIDENT,
GROVER CLEVELAND,
of New York.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ADLAI E. STEVENSON, of Illinois.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

APPELLATE JUDGE.

We are authorized to announce
A. R. COLE,
of Mason County, as a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals in the First District, subject to the decision of the Democratic Convention which meets in this city on September 6th, 1892. A full representation from every precinct in the county is earnestly requested.

Taxis for Congress.

The People's Party of the Ninth district held a convention at Augusta to nominate a candidate for Congress. The meeting was called to order at 11 o'clock by District Committeeman Wm. Luttrell. John Lane, of Bath, was elected Chairman and J. J. Marley, of Lewis, Secretary. On motion the Chair appointed Wm. Luttrell, J. J. Wood, Robert Barr, J. B. Ball and Jas. Hamilton a committee on Platform and the convention then took a recess until 2 o'clock.

On re-assembling the convention was opened with prayer by Rev. D. H. Marcum.

John G. Blair, of Nicholas, placed in nomination Hon. Thomas H. Taxis for representative of Congress. J. M. Stanley, of Fleming, seconded the nomination, and a motion to make the nomination by acclamation carried.

Their platform is about the same as the Omaha platform adopted by the People's party, except the financial plank. It declares that the government should issue all money direct to the people at a tax not to exceed two per cent per annum; that the circulating medium to speedily increase to $50 per capita. For speaker of the House Democratic and Republican parties, and any legislative candidate who refuses to be interrogated every moneys in the campaign campaign for the state should be sure the ballot is to be renewed to down the foreign of suspension king, system of issuance and of trade tations may be just sight of.

Plenty of Time.

The Newport Journal says: It will be time to believe that Hadley is defeated when Alderman Droege of Covington wins Harvey Myers's district in June; and not before. The story is another sensible not consistent. That Harvey Myers, who has at all times loyally fought the Street Railway Company, between whose officials, counsel and interest friendly feelings do not exist, should be selected as the person to be the leader in political unity, which is to lead defeated for the Legislature after a bitter and protracted fight, is not likely. Mr. Myers's influence was to be sacrificed by an effort to bolte, or otherwise make trouble for the nominee. The principal counsel for the company Mr. H. Sentrall, says that Mr. Myers is the very last person the company would employ to represent it in any transaction; and, unless it be conceded that Harvey Myers is a fool, the story in the light of Mr. Sentrall's statement cannot be accepted as true. The fact is, report from the surrounding counties is that Harvey Myers is not the last one of a man, and his prompt and able leadership in this city will be of value to the ticket.

Wages at Homestead.

"The protection papers are parading around the country with a statement that one of the skilled workmen at the Homestead works sent a sample of what the high tariff does for the men," says the New York World.

"It would be just as fair and reasonable to send in the $50 Mr. Astor paid Mr. Depew to the Vanderbilt cook and call that one of the high-priced items employed by that system in "averaging" the wages of the great aristocrat of the region.

"If a Pinch himself testified before the Senate committee that he employed 3,800 workmen whose earnings averaged $400 a year, and that he produced steel 425 more of the 3,800 employes in 1892 than he did in 1891 and for 30 C to 1171 per month. If their wages and experience are worth what they could not command such

"But the pay of the great mass of laborers in the works, Mr. Pinch said, averages 14 cents an hour for hour, or $1 40 for a day of ten hours. Some get $2 a day, some get $3 for sweeping the streets of the mills."

Fitler's Southern Magazine.

The first issue of Fitler's Southern Magazine, published at Louisville, Ky., before us, with a most attractive table of contents, though the illustrations are not to Talbot Kinkead, a native of Kentucky, who has been a resident of Louisville for a number of years, is the editor. It will be a high class literary journal. J. Soule Smith's paper on "Kentucky Cattle" is well illustrated and is a society article, as also is the paper on "The New South." There are many other articles, prose and poetry, fact and fiction, that make the magazine entertaining and instructive and the letter press and illustrations are of the highest style of the typographical and engraving art. We commend the magazine to the notice of the literary people.

The Columbia People's Convention nominated the State ticket and candidates for Presidential electors agreed upon in the conference with the representatives of the other League. The State convention will endorse the list of electors.

ARKANSAS PRECINCTS Democratic candidate for Vice President, will visit Arkansas early in September to be at the dedication of the Watterson Club House.

NEXT Saturday night at 6 o'clock the polls will be closed, and we shall then know who the Democrats of this county will choose for Circuit and County Clerk. Who the winners will be, or who the losers will be, we do not know.

THE Nicholas County Committee will meet here to-day to appoint Mr. Nesbitt and Mr. Powling to the Democratic Convention.

THE Democrats of Nicholas County are requested to meet at the Court-house in this city, Saturday, August 20th, '92, at 2 p. m. for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the Appellate Court Convention, to be held in this city on August, and also to attend the Democratic Convention which meets in this city on September 6th, 1892. A full representation from every precinct in the county is earnestly requested.

JACKTOWN.

Mrs. W. E. Hinds, of Carlisle, and daughter have been visiting relatives and friends in this neighborhood.

The large tobacco barn of W. F. Gorrell was burned last night.

Mrs. Hattie Smith and Mrs. Hattie Taylor, from Scott County are visiting in this community.

Howard Edwards, of Paris, is visiting relatives in this place.

Isaac F. Farmer has obtained the contract for carrying the mail from Carlisle to Jacksonville.

Miss Marguerite Ingels, deserted by her escort, Mr. Lutrell, was the only lady present at the Lutrell-Ingels house on Saturday night. Her absence was highly appreciated by all.

Wm. Brandsell was called to Mt. Sterling last week by the death of his sister who is very ill.

Ed. Wilson, of Mt. Olivet, is visiting his parents.

Uncle Samuel Donnell died Monday night at the ripe old age of seventy-four years.

Miss Sallie Parker has arrived home after a two week's visit to Mt. Sterling. R. Bowles came near loosing his life on Friday last by falling from a tree while gathering a wagon load of chestnuts from Mt. Sterling. He is able to be out again.

Prohibition Meeting.

Prohibitionists will please make a special effort to meet at the Court house next Monday evening. We have business of special importance. The new law controlling elections gives us a necessary work to do which all will be concerned. We will try and have a speaker present who is well posted on all of the time. Please come.

B. C. RICE, Ch'm.

During the epidemic of flux in this county last Summer, I had hard work to keep a supply of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the hand. People often came ten or twelve miles for it, and I had to send to Louisville. I have just written a large order for medicines for the last ten years and find that it has given better satisfaction in cases of diarrhoea and flux, than any other medicine I have ever handled.
J. H. BRANDT, Druggist.
Gratonia, Illinois.

Over five hundred bottles of this remedy were sold in that county during the Summer of 1892, and in every instance it was the only one that did that over the worst cases. Every person there will certify that it relieved their lives. In four other epidemics which have occurred in that county it has been equally successful. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Reed & Dale's druggists.

Candidate Agreement.

We, the undersigned candidates for the democratic nomination for the office of Circuit Clerk, agree and bind ourselves to support the nominee of the primary election, whether he be a personal friend or private enemy, and this is to be binding on our friends as well as ourselves.

August 1st opened with a fine day's trade, the air was clear and comfortable, and recent rains in many parts of the county had imparted quite a cheerful tone to affairs. The Baptist Association at Locust Grove, the Sharpsburg Camp Meeting and the Camp Meeting all come in for consideration, county politics always has its share of attention, not much effort, exactly, but Democratic Primaries to select who shall bear the party banner—on to victory—or defeat.

In the mean time the good old style times moves on in its accustomed way. Every day is a busy one for somebody, and every day is one of pleasure to others. Every day is taking the census. One of these industrious fellows automatic weighing scale, which will actually bring its owners wealth and fame. In fact they have been in a large way for the right to use the principal in other machines. The further invention is a steam engine of which watches may be expected and Young speaks modestly but confidently of his prospects."

A SPECIAL from Frankfort under date of 20th, says: "The Court of Appeals (Green Sentinel Goebel and Bronston) has affirmed the decision of the Franklin Circuit Court lowley, and he is the interference of Senator Blackburn, in behalf of Mrs. Lowley, in the case of Lowley vs. Newman was going to his seat and was prevented from doing so. Newman acted Goebel to get out of his way and assisted him to his seat."

To Our Subscribers

The special announcement which appears in this issue of the MERCURY is an eye-opening special arrangement with the Courier-Journal Co., of Louisville, Ky., by publishers of a "A Treatise on Cattle," which is a most valuable work. Subscribers are entitled to receive a copy of that valuable work free by calling at this office and paying for the same, and enclosing a two-cent stamp to prepay postage on the book to the reader and period. We trust all will avail themselves of the opportunity of obtaining this valuable work. Turnery Bros. say they are in receipt of what it treats in a simple manner all the diseases to which cattle are subject, and its phenomenal sale throughout the country is evidence of the merit of the work and the value placed upon it by those who have used it. Call at this office and see what they say anything for "Treatise."
