THURSDAY, DEC. 1, 1892

PRESIDENT HARRISON pulled 6,000 less votes in his own State this year than he entered it as a candidate. The people of Ohio knew his weakness.

PRESIDENT HARRISON is preparing his last message to Congress, and least of all the pains to write it himself, but is dictating it to a type-writer.

HON. JOHN H. WILSON has introduced a bill in Congress to pension the surviving soldiers of the Kentucky and State Troops who were called out by the acts of the Legislature or the proclamation of the Governor.

EX-GOV. CAMPBELL, of Ohio, stated in an interview at Chicago that he would have to decline a place in Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet if it were offered him, on account of his business interests.

ONE Democratic Presidential aspirant was chosen in Ohio, and it is probable that two others may win when the absentee returns of five counties for reelection have been purged of irregularities.

THE Hapgoodites for the Senate left an school books was adopted by the House Saturday. It gives County Superintendents the right to select the text books to be used in their counties, and the State Superintendent the right to recommend the books, give prices to be charged for publication.

THE World's Fair Directors are still meeting daily, keeping the great Fair open on Sunday for the benefit of the workingmen. Ex. Governor McDonald of the proposition. If it is opened on Sundays, we think it will be the only one thing to hold religious services in the different churches.

UNDER chapter 90 of an act of Congress, approved February 14, 1891, the election of three Commissioners to represent the United States at the Centennial Exhibition to be held in Louisiana next year, was ordered on the second Monday in January.

THE vote in California, as the count nears completion, appears to be so close that a slight variation in the votes for different electors may divide the electoral vote between Harrison and Cleveland. As the count now stands Harrison is only 239 votes ahead on the highest electors.

A RESOLUTION introduced in the House at Frankfort Monday, provides that the Assembly shall adjourn for the Holidays on December 23d, and reconvene January 4, and that during the two weeks neither members nor employes of the Assembly shall draw pay thereon.

TOM PETTIT, poet-mad, is further mad in the cold this way our welcome as he deserted the Democratic party at the wrong time and now he'll have to wait four years for another chance. He might have been a clerk of half the gross. Instead he will be nothing but a poor, disgusted politician, with no one to pay out to do him reverence.—[Interior Journal.

IN answer to inquiries regarding to extra session and the repeal of the M. Kinley bill the votes cast for Congressmen are said to have expressed no preference as to either. Seventy-three for an extra session, seventy-eight opposed to it and the remainder indifferent on the head, seventy-five for repeal and forty-four favored it with modification, fifty were opposed to any change, and seven committed.

THE Kentucky House of Representatives was placed on important hill for State aid, entitled an act to prevent the growth and spreading of Canada thistle. The bill provides that it shall be the duty of every person having land within the Commonwealth, either by lease or ownership, on which the Canada thistle may be growing, to cut the same so as to prevent such weeds from ripening. For failure to comply with the act a fine is imposed, recoverable before any Justice of the Peace, and enforceable in the Circuit Court of the State.

Bar Meeting.

At a meeting of the Bar of Nicholas County held at the Court House in Carlisle on the 24th day of November, 1892, Hon. Jno. G. Carlisle was made chairman and Charles W. Young, elected Secretary.

On motion a committee consisting of Thomas Greene, John F. Morgan, Hansen Bramlette and H. H. Bramlette was appointed to draft resolutions expressing the sense of the meeting, who reported the following which was unanimously adopted, viz:

"WHEREAS, with the close of the present term of the Nicholas Circuit Court, our official relations with Judge Jno. G. Carlisle as Circuit Judge cease, and with T. J. Gordon as Clerk of said Court ends.

We, the members of the bar of Nicholas County assembled, hereby express our appreciation of the ability, courtesy and dignity with which Judge Monroe has dispatched the business of said Court, and the uniformly pleasant relations which existed during said official connection during that time.

And we have also hereby our sense of the fidelity, efficiency and courteous demeanor of our retiring Clerk, and the membership of the Bar of Nicholas County.

We express our sincere regret at the enforced severance of our official relations with both gentlemen, and we do hereby extend to each of them our heartiest wishes for their future happiness and success in whatever business enterprises they may choose to embark in.

The Clerk of this Court is requested to spread these proceedings upon his order book, and the Bar of this County is requested to publish the same.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

CHAS. W. YOUNG, Secretary.

CAMPAIGN POETRY.

BY BOSS (Kentucky Church City.)

The fight is now over (eternal Jimmy and
The longest month closed and Harrison
Has been defeated, and Foster Mc, with them,
And we may to the hops, good enough.

Now Judge Hazelrigg was entered a gay
To be elected by a big majority,
And Governor Brown he was going to see
And the Judge stood a good chance.

But look, C. T. Wardlow to get in the race
For governor any more, did he knowed
For against any doubt, did he knowed
Of course you know he is never going.

And for Stanley Brown Bryan had as was
He was going to be a good grub, and
For Lord them your said, that sentiment
Was the best of the campaign.

Prizes brought the news to Dr. Barrow, he
Was the first to congratulate him on
He opened and he seems and paired for the
Of the day.

Then he sent a telegram to John Sanford
Say we, thank do you know, Mrs. pork-
Is the best of the campaign and
Sanford and Frankfort will take Bromley's
Hats off.

WHITOW.

HARRISON.—At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stone, on the 24th, James Higginbotham and Miss Lizzie Stone.

The long anticipated event has become a reality, and Mr. Thomas Craycraft and Miss Pearl Johnson are one. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Wm. Johnson, on the 23d, Dr. George Varden officiating. After the ceremony which was witnessed by a large crowd, they repaired to the home of the groom's parents where they were met by a large number of friends and relatives and enjoyed the sumptuous repast prepared for the occasion. The happy couple were left upon a commodious Thanksgiving dinner with the groom's mother. The presents were numerous and elegant. Long life to the happy pair.

Friday the 25th, being the 12th anniversary of the birth of Miss Mattie Bramlette, she entertained quite a number of her friends and relatives at the home of her parents, the occasion being highly enjoyed by the little misses.

Tobacco stripping is under full headway in this county. The crop turned out in good quality.

Report says Mr. B. F. Congleton has sold the John Clark farm, on the river to Jerry and price there this year.

Mr. Joel Johnston's party is on the sick list. Mrs. Johnston is very low with typhoid fever, and Mr. Johnston is also confined to his bed.

Mrs. Mary Bell, of Paris, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Bell.

Mrs. Lizzie McCoy was taken sick very suddenly last Sunday night after returning from Church. At this writer she is better at the present writing.

Mrs. Jno. Clay is on the sick list.

Mr. Bell Cook left on the 22d of this month for Hazelrigg's Mill to work at the saw mill. Bell is a cripple for life.

Mr. Jno. Hamilton is improving from his recent spell of sickness. He is now able to come about two weeks ago.

Mr. Hampton, of Millersburg, will preach at Bethel next Sunday at 11 o'clock.

ESTANZA.

THE Republican party has tried to legislate the entire world by getting the nation to a par still that has grown from $27,000,000 in 1870 to $186,000,000 in 1892, much the greatest part of which is squandered on camp followers and Treasury leeches.

Prohibition Column.

PROHIBITION PROSPECTS.

While our vote has not been what we hoped for, and while we have not realized our strength as we should—yet we have great reason to rejoice and our prospects to-day are better than at any previous time. So long as the two old parties were so near a tie there was but little chance for any new party, but now that one is so badly demoralized and the whole element of discontent, the moral and reformatory sentiment will naturally drift to the strongest side. If Democrats are honest, if Republicans stand fast and with a determination will begin anew right at it to work for God, home and native land; the fight may be long and hard, but sooner or later the victory shall be ours and we will have a Democratic brethren for the cordial invitation to return to the Party of their fathers. Democrats of the South—so long as you will lay still and let the Republicans rule you, so long will they have no reason to respect your honest convictions and raise your price for votes. Be honest, be courageous and debauchery, why should we have any fears to come back. We took our stand for Prohibition under far less favorable circumstances than at present, and when our vote was much less; and we feel like saying, "If ever our hearts forget thereto Prohibition, let our right hand forget her cunning and our tongues cleave to the roofs of our mouths." Our votes were cast in the fall against the wrongs and oppressions of the Republican party, and we will cast them again the coming spring against the wrongs and oppressions of the Democratic party, and we will fight on until victory or death.

J. H. Layton sold the crop of tobacco he had on Cleek's place, 2½ miles from here, to Wesson Brothers at 12½ cts.

W. L. Bramblett and A. A. Rowe attended the Democratic meeting at Carlisle Saturday.

The freezing party of the season was given by Bert Layton, of Little Creek, on Saturday night. Quite a crowd was present.

Mr. Thomas Kennedy is confined to his bed.

Mr. J. F. Rowe, a reformer and ex-editor, was in Jacketown Saturday. He rarely escaped one of the accusers of a certain paper that starts during a recent spell of heat and during a recent spell of cold. He says he has been in the editorial mine during the storms and was accustomed to the cold and heat. He says he is now warm, and inside of an hour after he returns he was threatened with a new case of prosecution and fine. Mr. Rowe went to the nearest justice of the peace and got a warrant for the Cough Remedy of a man who lives about here, and took a number of large doses of it. He says he is now well and can go to work. He says he is not going quite away. He kept on taking the medicine while he was going to and from to Des Moines. Mr. Rowe informs us that he has been cured of a bad case of Rheumatism by Cough Remedy.
