Chapman Will Open Campaign July 24th

Edward F. Seiller, campaign manager for Virgil Chapman, candidate for the Democratic nomination to the U. S. Senate, said Chapman would open his speaking campaign July 24 at a homecoming celebration in the home of Franklin.

Seiller said a series of organization meetings will be held on behalf of Chapman's candidacy in the various congressional districts before the Franklin rally. He listed them as:

July 9, Eighth district at Morehead; July 10, Fourth district, Hodgenville; July 12 and 13, Ninth district, Mt. Vernon, London and Somerset; July 15, First district, Mayfield.

An organization meeting already has been held in the Third district. Plans for those in the Fifth, Sixth and Seventh districts have not been completed, Seiller said.

Riebold Nine Beats Local Indians 19-17

The Carlisle Indians were defeated 19-17 by Riebold in their final game of the year, the game played on the Fourth of Indians July, when Riebold was a slugfest all the way for the two teams.

Each team used two pitchers in the game. Frederick pitched good ball for Riebold except during the three innings he was on the mound. The infield made five errors in the third inning against a single error by the Frederick took over the mound and pitched the last five innings.

The Indians started hitting in the fourth inning, scoring four runs and failed to tie Riebold in the fifth. Hughes, Schlegers, Jordis and McDonald each got three hits. Jordis in right was the outstanding performance of the day. He got a hitch in the fifth with the bases loaded. Another hitch in the seventh in the eighth inning, with the bases loaded, was a foul by the third base umpire.

The Carlisle boys will play a double header here this Sunday. Their first game is with the Carlisle Merchants, a colored nine, and the second with another local team. Game time has been set for 1:30 p. m. Sunday week, July 18, a Sharpsburg nine will invade Carlisle for a game with the Indians.

Manager W. C. Vice expressed himself well pleased with attendance at the Indians opening game but said he hoped that a still larger crowd would attend the forthcoming double header.

The boxscore:

Plan Advance Sale State Fair Tickets

For the first time in the history of the State Fair, all the people of the state will have an equal opportunity to purchase advance-sale State Fair Tickets at half price, J. O. Matlick, State Fair manager, has announced.

This is made possible by the agreement of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation to distribute admission tickets through their county Farm Bureau presidents, Matlick added.

J. E. Stanford, executive secretary of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation, has announced the appointment of Paul Grubbs, a member of the Federation's staff, as chairman of advance ticket sales.

Tickets will go on sale July 10 and will remain on sale at half price until Sept. 1, Grubbs said.

Grubbs said that he has arranged with county presidents to place tickets in blocks and distribute them to retail stores in their county centers so that the retail dealers so every person in the county will know where they can purchase admission tickets at half price.

Discarded Clothing Needed

Discarded clothing is needed immediately by Goodwill Industries of Kentucky, 141 East Main Street, Louisville, for use in its program of rehabilitation and training of the blind, the handicapped and disabled men and women of the state.

These materials are prepared at the Goodwill plant by handicapped workers, who receive the wages of the workers. The way Goodwill has become 60 per cent self-sufficient.

A shortage of materials will force Goodwill to cut down on the number of handicapped taking part in the rehabilitation program unless the supply of discards is soon replenished.

At the present over 199 persons, including veterans, are learning a trade in this industry. They repair and refinish old articles or make new ones from salvaged material.

Men and women of all ages have benefited from this system. They are trained in woodworking and upholstery, furniture refinishing hand and power sewing, shoe repair and other trades, as well as the operation of other machinery.

Send any discarded clothing you do not want express collect to Goodwill Industries of Kentucky, Louisville. Goodwill pays the charges.

BELL DEPUTY SHERIFF FACES MURDER CHARGE

Bell County Sheriff John J. Howard and Deputy Sheriff Hampton were filed against two men at Pineville in connection with the ambush slaying of Silas Henderickson, 25, last Friday.

He identified the men as Hobart Lawson, Red Bird, a Bell County deputy sheriff, and Jim Thresher, Pineville.

Henderickson was shot fatally as he drove a bus along the left fork of Straight Creek. W. T. Brown, Pineville, crouched on the floor of the bus during the gunfire and escaped injury.

Sheriff Howard said Lawson was arrested by State police Tuesday. Thresher has been held since Friday night, when he and three others were arrested by state police and Bell County officers. The others have been released.

The sheriff said the date for a preliminary hearing for Lawson and Thresher has not been set. He said they also face charges of malicious shooting with intent to kill as a result of bullets lodged in the bus when it was fired upon.

Truman Supporters Plotting Strategy To Nip 'Stampede'

Supporters of President Truman today made plans to cut off any gallery attempts to start a nomination stampede at next week's Democratic convention opening in Philadelphia July 12.

This maneuver obviously was aimed at preventing a spectacular chant from reviving the boom for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. Sergeant at arms, announced 80 Philadelphia policemen and up to 50 private detectives will be on hand to keep spectators from influencing delegates in their choice of a presidential nominee.

Most politicians still remember the 30 minutes of demonstration in the same hall where packed galleries yelling "Hunt Wallkie" were credited with helping bring about the nomination of the late Wendell L. Willkie.

Rittle, a staunch supporter of Mr. Truman's bid for the nomination, told a reporter he has heard that an effort will be made to stampede the convention.

He declined to say whether backers of Eisenhower are involved but no other campaign has reached boom proportions.

"We are taking measures to cope with the situation," he said. "I have reason to be sure I can be able to handle this in an orderly manner."

In the face of indications that Eisenhower supporters are not giving up despite the general's statement he couldn't take the nomination, Democratic leaders began hedging the Eisenhower boom with fresh praise of President Truman.

Pennsylvania Democratic Chairman Jacob M. Arvey appeared to be looking for an escape.

Arvey arrived in New York for preconvention conferences there with others who have been hard at work trying to persuade Eisenhower—to replace Mr. Truman on the ticket.

Arvey told reporters that while he has been "pressured" he has "never been about the nomination of the late Wendell L. Willkie.

But Arvey added that Mr. Truman is "very closely" in that category.

He said that Eisenhower remains the best bet to unite the country.

But Arvey added that Mr. Truman is "very closely" in that category.

The Chicago Democratic chieftain also mentioned Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas and Sen. Alben Barkley of Kentucky, the convention keynoter, as possible nominees.

Riggs Facing Tests At Mental Hospital

The trial of Osborne Riggs, 27, tenant farmer, charged with indecent exposure, which was scheduled for Saturday morning before Police Judge Hardy Myers, has been postponed pending the outcome of his examination at a state mental institution.

Riggs, who was arrested June 29, has been placed under observation for 10 days at Eastern State hospital, County Attorney Roger Womack said.

A tenant on the farm of Mrs. Mollie Anderson in the Myers section of Nicholas county, Riggs was scheduled for trial Saturday morning on a charge of indecent exposure after complaints against him had been filed that he had been committing offensive acts against young girls here for the past three weeks.

City Attorney Charles M. Cox said that at least eight little girls had identified Riggs at a court of inquiry held last week before Judge Myers.

Guards Still Taking Enlistments In State

Adjutant General Roscoe T. Murray has announced that the Kentucky National Guard still is taking enlistments and has a reserve quota of 750 yet unfilled. The reserve quota is the difference between the present Guard strength and the maximum ceiling of 4,116 recently set by the National Guard bureau.

"Enlistments have never stopped in the Guard," said General Murray at Frankfort, "despite erroneous reports to the contrary.

The drive for enlistments is continuing, Murray reiterated, until the full ceiling is met.

The Adjutant General said that recruits may be obtained from short-term veterans who served 90 days before Pearl Harbor or after VJ Day who would be exempt from Selective Service registration.

In addition, men beyond registration age from 25 to 34 years old are still eligible for enlistment.

The Department of the Army (War Department) has expressed a need for some 1,200 junior grade (company grade) officers for periods of extended active duty both in this country and overseas.

Applications of all National Guard officers chosen for this service will be processed through the Adjutant General's office in the states.

Kentucky National Guard officers interested in this detail were urged by General Murray to contact the Adjutant General's office.

The recent session of Congress passed a retirement plan for National Guard personnel who have completed 20 or more years service with the Guard, placing them in a class long enjoyed by regular branches of military service.
