EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

FRANKFORT, KY., July 5th, 1880.

Dear Mercury:

During the past week the Governor signed the Judicial District and election laws, and the people can get ready to elect their officers under the most perfect election laws ever enacted or invented. The Bill to prevent fraud engaged in printing several thousand copies of the bill, and as soon as they are distributed it will be well for those who are negligent declaring that they will vote, for I can assure them that if they number 2 between now and election they must not vote at all. It will be well for the people to remember that the law also, for the county jail and prison pens are not overcrowded, and that it will be difficult to keep them out.

The Legislature and Supreme Bills will doubtless be completed by the 20th of this month, and then the Legislature is likely to only stay for the Governor, or what is left of it.

The Treasury suspended paying out on the last day of June, and will not resume until some time in October. A great many think that it will be well that it be not so hard when it is resumed. The Governor has vetoed the bill as stated above, and no doubt will be passed over his veto, as it was passed by the long session of the Legislature, and the members are now at their homes. The Governor has also vetoed the bill to abolish the Penitentiary Board, and will doubtless be compelled by the 20th of this month, when the Legislature is likely to only stay for the Governor, or what is left of it.
