To the Law and Equity Court of Louisville, Judge Trey handed down the opinion in the case of the suit against the Frankfort and Cincy Company by Collins' partners. The decision is very lengthy one, but in brief the Court held that the Company had not had vested rights which it could claim against the State, and that the charter could be annulled. The Court held that the huge factory charter has expired. The case will be taken to the Court of Appeals at once, and, if the decision is sustained, Collins' Frankfort factory may be sold immediately notwithstanding the present injunction.

The paper contains frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls who are single, and wonders why it is. The reason is well known to specialists, Dr. Franklin Miles, says all such girls are nervous, and that nervousness makes them repulsive, intensifies every unpleasant feature, destroys complexion, causes neuralgia, sleeplessness, and makes them old before their time.
