BAPTIST CHURCH

Wednesday, December 21, the members of the church enjoyed a Christmas supper of turkey and all the trimmings. The intermediate G. A. girls served the supper. Following the supper the group enjoyed some music by the young people. Mrs. G. T. Cowan recognized three of the G. A. girls for their faithful attendance at all the meetings the past year.

The teachers of the Junior department entertained the pupils with a Christmas party at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. V. Carrier, Friday, December 23. Games were played and gifts were exchanged. Refreshments were served.

A program of Christmas music, Scripture reading and carols was a part of the candle light service on Sunday morning.

The church presented Bibles to Mrs. Henry Peters, Mrs. A. V. Allison, Mrs. Grace Cameron, Clearly Fightmaster and Sterling Blake in appreciation for the faithful and continued service to the church.

Several gifts were brought by members of the church to be distributed to the local hospital and to those living at the county infirmary.

Services will be held at the Carlisle Baptist church from 8 until 12 o'clock on Saturday night, December 31.

All young people are urged to come and enjoy games, song, reading and refreshments. Any adult members that want to come are welcome.
