IN MEMORIAM

In memory of my Mother who passed away January 31, 1948.
The memory of my mother is like a thing of gold.
That never dulls or tarnishes or grows the least bit old;
It is a ray of sunshine bright, that fills her empty room;
And it is like a flower fair that never fails to bloom;
It offers consolation in the face of strife and stress,
And adds a certain beauty to each dream of happiness;
The memory of my Mother, however long apart,
Is like a soothing melody that lingers in the heart;
It is the perfect picture of a rainbow in the sky;
It is the portrait of a past that cannot ever die.
(Mrs.) Wilhelmina Sugg 2-3-1t-c

Recipe Of The Week

Pea beauty cream soup makes a good main dish for lunch or supper. In the following recipe from the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky, use one-third of a can of canned tomatoes and corn you put in last summer.

1 tablespoon minced onions
½ bay leaf
3 whole cloves
1-3 cup water
2-3 cups cream
4 cups milk
4 tablespoons flour
4 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine
1½ teaspoons salt
2 egg yolks

Simmer the corn, onions, cloves and water and cook together 10 minutes. Remove bay leaf, and then remove spices. Make a white sauce of the milk, flour, butter and salt. Combine the two mixtures by adding a little of the tomato mixture at a time to the white sauce stirring all the while. Then add well-beaten egg yolks and serve.

Nicholas Farmer Is Monoxide Victim

Funeral services for Walter Lawrence, 25, World War II veteran and farmer of Nicholas county, found dead Thursday morning near the A. Keller distillery in Harrison county, will be held at 2 p. m. Monday at a Cynthiana funeral home. Burial will follow the Rev. I. N. Lotz officiating. Burial was in the Battle Grove cemetery, with military honors conducted by the Renacker Bedford Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Pallbearers were Noel, George and Bill Phillips, Robert Ritchie and Ben and Walter Dale.

The young Nicholas county farmer was the victim of carbon monoxide fumes from the car's engine, Coroner Dave Rees said.

The coroner said the victim had been dead at least 12 or 15 hours when found. The body was found on the back seat of Lawrence's two-door sedan by Charles Ackman, section foreman for the L. & N. railroad. Ackman said he saw the car parked there Wednesday morning but did not investigate until he saw it still there Thursday morning.

Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lawrence of Cynthiana Route 4, Nicholas county, was last seen alive at the Cynthiana-Sorson Kentucky basketball game at Cynthiana Tuesday night. The road on which he was found and was not on a route he would have taken if he were going home, the coroner said.

The coroner said there was no evidence of foul play and that Lawrence's billfold was found in his pocket. He added that there was indication that Lawrence had eaten a meal and had lain down on the back seat and had gone to sleep.

The car's ignition was turned on but the motor had stopped and the battery was dead, the coroner said. Some gasoline was still in the car's tank, Coroner Rees said the car had no further investigation "unless the family requests it."

Lawrence was graduated from Headquarters High school (now Nicholas County High) and was a member of the Cynthiana Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He is survived by his parents, with whom he lived on the Walnut pike; a sister, Mrs. A. J. Riley, Cynthiana Route 4, and two half-sisters, Mrs. Wilburn McCowan, Lexington, and Mrs. Jessie Richey, Nicholas county.

Bourbon Vocational Topples Musketeers

Bourbon County Vocational, scoring 32 points in the second half, swept past a stand-off team of Carlisle Musketeers, smothering them 57-34, in a March of Dimes Benefit clash in Paris Saturday night.

In the feature game, Paris Greyhounds topped highly favored St. Xavier of Louisville 41-39.

For Carlisle, who decalicoed the Colonels 25-23 at halftime, it was Harper, Hardin and Peters who turn-toddled the Colonel defense in the outset, leading 12-7 at eight minute break.

Playing two games in as many nights, the second half found the Rose Raiders a trifle "hardwood weary". The Vocational five, led by Jones and Simpson, scored at will, while limiting the Musketeers to three buckets and three grass flings.

Talking to Bain (Tiny) Jaggy after the game, the tremendous coach of the Bourbon basketeers said that in the first part of the game his charges were unable to stop that "little boy" on our team. "Not until that little boy" fouled out did I breathe easier".

He was referring to "little Doot" who constantly hawked the ball and repeatedly drove through the entire BCVS defense to tally 8 points. Harper dropped in 11 to lead the Musketeer scoring.—L. A.

Miss Ruby P. Smith has been appointed administratrix of the estate of the late George Small who died in the amount of $800 given.

Former Carlisle Girl And Husband Overcome By Gas In Lexington

A former resident of Carlisle and her husband of about 10 days were overcome by gas Sunday night in their Lexington apartment, but blessing efforts of the Lexington fire department prevented serious injury.

Lexington police said the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Mavity, both 22, were found unconscious in their room by friends. Mrs. Mavity, the former Miss Helen Bishop Stephenson, is a daughter of Mrs. Eunice Stephenson of Carlisle.

Jimmie Richardson, 24, Lexington, said he was summoned by telephone by Mavity, who collapsed on the floor immediately after calling him. Richardson said he a nurse called the Lexington squad and went to the couple's home.

Richardson said Mavity's wife was had smelled the gas from the heater and walked across the room to shut it off. She collapsed before she reached it, however. Mavity ran to his wife and carried her to the bed, shut off the gas, opened the windows and doors and called Richardson before collapsing.

Both were revived with oxygen and suffered no serious effects from the gas, firemen said.

Mavity is a University of Kentucky engineering student and Mrs. Mavity is a nurse at St. Joseph hospital.

Tuesday Is Deadline For '48 ACP Reports

Tuesday, February 15, is the last day for farmers to report connection practices carried out under the provisions of the 1948 Agricultural Conservation Program in order to qualify for payments under the program, John G. Allison, chairman of the Nicholas County ACP Committee, said today.

Farm estimates that 905 farmers in the county carried out practices last year in cooperation with the program, but so far only 800 have made official reports of practices.

Farmers who received soil-building materials should report on the use of these materials whether a cash payment is due them or not, Allison said.

Bad weather has cut Spain's olive oil output in half.

Council Takes First Steps To Repair Reservoir Leaks

Initial steps in connection with repairing leaks at the city reservoir, which resulted in a current water shortage during last summer's drought and sent local water rates soaring to $4.50 a 1,000 gallons, will be taken by Carlisle's city council at an adjourned meeting set for 7:30 p. m. Friday, February 18.

Primary purpose of the adjourned meeting will be opening sealed bids for grout hole drilling; washing, pressure testing and grouting drill holes to stop leaks around the existing earth fill dam.

Council previously had been advised by engineers to wait "until such time as the lake was partially filled before beginning the work of repairing the leaks by the grouting method."

The regular monthly session of council Monday night was adjourned over to February 18 in order that bids for the repair work might be advertised.

Mayor W. C. Talbert instructed Hold Chief Shields to begin a concerted campaign to curb speeding within Carlisle. He told Chief Shields that autoists, who insisted upon making a speedway of the city's streets, must pay the penalty for their actions.

He advised Chief Shields to instruct other members of the department to assist him in breaking up speeding and to limit all persons caught to pay fines and costs.

Council also approved a plan to place a telephone on Main street for the convenience of the police department and persons who need to call police to report law violations.

A list of eligible volunteer firefighters also was ordered posted in the fire department. The first five men, whose names are on this eligible list, will be paid for answering fire alarms upon presentation of proper credentials. These credentials also will be kept in the fire house.

Collections from parking meters for the month ending January 31, totaled $458.48. One-half of this amount belongs to the city and the remaining half is being held in reserve for the meter company which installed the devices.

Fines in the amount of $325 were collected during the month of January, a report filed with council by Police Judge Henry Moore showed.

Three building permits were issued: one to Raymond (Pete) King for the erection of an ice plant; one to Mrs. Walter Wyrick for the erection of a barbershop and restaurant, and one to James Patton for repair of a sidewalk.

Mrs. Charles Linville and Frank Stone appeared before council with requests concerning parking vehicles. James Eads asked council to provide space for a taxi stand, and Mrs. Eva Bishop requested that council investigate the damage resulting from surface water which is draining from McCracken street onto her property. Both requests were referred over to the street committee, of which Joe Scott is chairman, for investigation.

John F. Sugg's request that a traffic light be placed at the intersection of Dorsey avenue and East Main street was turned over to the light committee for consideration.

Carlisle Takes Sting Out Of Yellow Jacks' In Overtime Tussle

By Emily Asbury

Joe Stephenson notched only four points, but two of them in the last five seconds of play provided margin enough for Carlisle to annex their second straight victory, slipping by Versailles here Friday night 30-29, in an overtime C.K.C. tussle.

Behind 26-28 with bare seconds of regulation playing time remaining "Doot" Hardin stole the "freeze" ball and dribbled the length of the floor to put the Musketeers back in the ball game.

Here, however, Stephenson took command of the situation, tallying with a layup shot after the Yellow Jackets had tied at one-point lead via the charity line.

The win, third of the seven game campaign for the improving Musketeers, was not too impressive. Carlisle committed twenty fouls and wolded and booted easy scoring chances.
