EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

FRANKFORT, KY., Nov. 21, 1892.

Dear Mercury:

If I had not promised you a letter this week, I would not write this. Items of real interest are so scarce I scarcely know what to say. About everybody is a candidate for office under the Cleveland administration, and politicians are as thick as leaves in the Fall. The Democratic portion of the Legislature is so hungry for pap, in a direct form, that it will be a struggle between them, then it will be all over. I do not think they will get office. I do not want anything they are after. The Legislature is gathering itself together slowly, looking up the labor and business of last session, and getting ready for a long and hard session. The business yet to be transacted is simply appalling when contemplated, and the people who are given to howling over Legislative sessions had as well prepare to howl. People do not know that after this legislature gets through making laws that they will have to have them compiled, have it printed by our State Printer, and then have it bound in sheep and then vote on them as a whole. Just imagine yourself sitting in a hotel a week or about a month listening to a clerk read cold, dry law. This is one of the pleasant anticipations of the Legislature, not to say anything about the acute criticisms of the commentators.

The people of Kentucky do not seem to realize that they are undergoing a revolution, and it can not be averted, guided in a day. The weekly papers get their information from one or two Louisville dailies, and these dailies are gold by the amount of money they receive, and they send in, and have sent, much do not enter into their calculations, and these weekly prejudice Hoglander mind against the Legislature.

It is expected that the Court of Appeals will decide the Wilson case Saturday or Monday. It is useless to discuss the Court will order the $100,000 paid, though it is predicted that the court will dodge the constitutional question, and will leave that important question in doubt. The court can not dodge it, as honest as other people.

G. R. S.

McCREARY'S majority over Haddock in Bourbon for Governor was 1,647.

HARRISBURG majority over Hall from the latest returns given here was 2,541.

SHELBY 2,541; Carlisle 2 said you can get anything he wants in Clover land!!!

THOS. PAYNTER'S majority in the district for Congress over McCreary was 2,541.

NOW that the offices are in sight, the Democrats had better get ready for the Governor election.

MR. JOHN the name of ex-Gov. John Morgan went to Robertson County good deals one square during the campaign and the Democrats carried the entire county. Something very unusual did before.

FRANK what are you here this time? Is some one connected with the Bulletin that wants the post office in Carlisle. Speak out Mr. George, if it is you, and we are for you every time, either. We know Mr., don't want it, for would not feel natural anywhere except in a grist shop.

THE new paper to be started at Colonial December 1, has paid up capital of $200,000, and more money will be furnished if necessary. The daily Tribune, as it will be called, will be a sweeping paper, Republican in politics, and the people will be two cents per copy.

SAYS the Georgetown News-Democrat, "Allen O. Myers has been publicly charged with buying votes in this city. He won a basket of money on the election; offering and taking bribes is a kind of a act. He must secured gambling up his winnings with a valise in his hand, into which he turned the bills. A gentleman who saw him says that the valise looked to him as if it was nearly full. The last news of him was that was negotiating for one of John Robinson's elephants with which to make a campaign tour."

A KANSAS Republican bet his fortune on the election and lost; he should not grieve too much. If his party had remained in power he would have lost it sooner or later on a "reduction" proposition.

A COMPLETE list of the Congressmen elected from each State, shows that the Democrats have a strength of 222, the Republicans 126 and the Alliance 5. A Democratic majority of ninety.

THE House Committee on Revision and Reform of the Kentucky Legislature has completed its work and reported favorably the bill to delist the Democratic majority. Hurrah for the out of their post of duty.

THE following is the vote of Lexington, in the election, another great item of progress. The vote is not complete, but no one can at present foretell how the issue of interest in Kentucky will be, how important items, will be published in the next issue of the Mercury. Here the next harmony meeting. The vote will be complete, and then they will all be published and as soon as they can be put in paper, put the Kentucky Stock Farm you need in paper for one year, from January 1894—a period of fourteen months for two dollars, the regular price of a year's subscription. This is a rare opportunity, and every one should embrace it. Send your subscription and you will be supplied with the Mercury and the Kentucky Stock Farm—Lexington, Kentucky. "The Host of Lexington" is the name of the Democratic club that completed here on Nov. 8th. A speech Christmas number will be issued this year, which no doubt a reference will be worth the price of subscription. Orders for the paper will be received at this office.

A Tree Prophet.

Below we print some resolutions that were passed by the Ohio Republican State Convention held two years ago. They are republished now because they not only basically but literally and accurately foretell the history of the past two years, and show how the people would vote if they had the chance.

The resolutions were offered at a Republican State Convention held in Columbus, Ohio, two years ago, and are as follows:

Resolved, That the Democratic party of the State and Nation has proven itself incompetent to be entrusted with the power of the dignity and responsibility of government, and a thorough understanding of the principles of the Republican party has never been more perfectly exemplified in American statesmanship than in the character and career of Grover Cleveland. The people at heart are Republicans, and in the coming campaign will rebuke the Democracy and follow the leadership of a man in whose character and career they have found a guarantee for just, honest and stable government.

Resolved, That we contend that the delegates chosen by this meeting to represent Ohio in the National Republican Convention, to be held in Chicago, June 7th, 1892, are hereby instructed to cast their votes as a unit for such delegates as will unconditionally pledge themselves to vote for the renomination and election of Grover Cleveland.—Columbus Statesman.
