BIRTHS

Stone

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allen Stone of near Miranda announce the arrival of a son, born Wednesday morning, June 30, at the Massie Memorial hospital Paris. He is their second child and first son.

More than 300 seedling pecans were grafted on 12 Fulton county farms.

Marriages

Colyer-Darnall

Mrs. C. E. Colyer of Mt. Olivet announces the marriage of her daughter, Leota June, to Calvin Darnall, Dayton, Ohio, formerly of Carlisle.

The marriage vows were exchanged Monday, June 27, at the Presbyterian manse in Perryville with the Rev. James Coad, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Perryville, officiating in the impressive ring ceremony.

The bride was attractively attired in a summer suit of navy blue with white accessories. She wore a gardenia corsage. Immediately following the ceremony the couple left on a wedding trip to the Smoky Mountain National Park in East Tennessee and Western North Carolina and other points of interest in the south.

The bride, a daughter of Mrs. Colyer and the late Judge C. E. Colyer of Mt. Olivet, was graduated from Deming High school in Mt. Olivet and attended Eastern State College in Richmond. For several years she has been a teacher in the Robertson county school system.

The groom, son of Mrs. D. T. Brandenburg, Bardstown, and the late Judge Paul D. Darnall, Carlisle, was graduated from Carlisle High school in 1930 and Centre College, Danville, in 1934. Presently he holds a position with the Delco Products company, Dayton, as a chemical technician.

Enroute south the couple were guests of honor at a wedding luncheon given at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John L. Crawford, and Mr. Crawford in Corbin.

Work-Evans

Miss Nancye Rees Worick, daughter of Mrs. Jewell Worick of Flemingsburg and Rees Worick of Paris, became the bride of Donald Dean Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ublan Evans of Flemingsburg, at a ceremony solemnized at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Flemingsburg Christian church. The Rev. Ralph Thomas officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Goodpaster were the only attendants.

The bride wore a white suit with brown and white accessories. She wore an orchid at her shoulder.

Mrs. Goodpaster wore a white pique dress with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother for close friends and relatives. The table, covered with an Irish lace cloth, was centered with a three-tered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom flanked by white tapers in crystal holders. The house was decorated with summer flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans left for a short wedding trip North. Upon their return they will make their home with the bridegroom's parents.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from the Fleming County High school in the class of '49. The bride has visited relatives here and is well known.
