THE IRON HALL.

Members of the Order Must Answer to Two Courts.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 14.—In the Criminal court this morning, in the Marion county grand jury, were returned a batch of indictments against the supremos of the late Iron Hall. The charge is embezzlement. The men who were indicted are: Those who have been pulled to make a fight to keep out of the penitentiary are Freeman B. Somerby, supreme justice, Indianapolis; Harris L. Curtis, supreme auditor, Indianapolis; Charles Hedges, supreme trustee, Indianapolis; Supreme Trustee Avery Ely, S. J. Bixby Hays, supreme trustee and supreme counsel of the board; Charles A. C. E. Thompson, supreme trustee, Chicago; Supreme Trustee Edward Rose, supreme trustee, Jersey City, N. J.; E. W. Rowe, supreme trustee, Baltimore, Md.

The indictments are joint, and are in two counts. The first count charges the embezzlement of $500,000 of the order's funds which they converted to their own use. The second count charges that the defendants with supporting to date one per cent.(?) to using it in Somerby's Building Bank. The necessary warrants will be issued Friday morning and the arrests will be made. The defendants are to be detained until they can be brought in as soon as possible. Then the trial of Somerby will probably be taken up when as soon as he is landed.

The indictments are the result of the efforts to have been exhibited in a large case, it is probable that Judge Cox will be asked to change a bond.

Some of the men, Davis particularly, have been expecting the indictments, and the defendants with supporting to date one per cent.(?) to using it in Somerby's Building Bank. The necessary warrants will be issued Friday morning and the arrests will be made. The defendants are to be detained until they can be brought in as soon as possible. Then the trial of Somerby will probably be taken up when as soon as he is landed.

The grand jury has not completed its work, and more indictments will be returned. There are some of the "supremos" who are implicated, whose names are withheld from the next session, and it need not surprise the public if the list of indictments reaches to have been extended to a large one
