Youths Must Register For Selective Service

It is evident that boys are registering as required by the Selective Service and Training Act. Evidence that some of the 18-year-olds at the Nicholas county draft board show.

Even though draft officers are receiving no calls at present, all youths are required to register within five days after their 18th birthday.

It is urged that all youths, who have reached the age of 18, come to their local draft office and register immediately if they have not already done so. The draft office is located on the second floor of the Grayer building, and registration days are Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Boys may register by mail if they will send postal cards showing name and address to their local board requesting a registration blank.

The name "Nebraska" comes from the Otoe Indian name for the Platte River, and means shallow water.
