Founders Day Program Presented At PTA

The Carlisle PTA met Wednesday, February 8 at 3 o'clock in the school auditorium.

A skit was presented by members of the high school dramatic club under the direction of Mrs. Foster, commemorating the founding of the Parent-Teacher organization.

A vocal solo was sung by Rose Ballard.

Following the program a silver tea will be served in the newly decorated recreation room in the school basement. Proceeds of the tea will be sent to the Founders Day fund to be used for the extension of Parent-Teacher work.

325 Fields Tested

Large boundaries which may include whole farms, hillsides and ridges should include more than one sample. If a large area has a different crop history or has been fertilized differently in the past, a sample should be included for each case.

Samples should represent soil from the top to plow depth. Many farmers have reported that the easiest way to take a sample is to use a brace and bit. Bore to 7 inches. Make several borings over the area to be sampled. Placing the soil in a pail, the four samples should include between a half pint and one pint of soil. The person preparing the sample should be careful to take all of the soil from top to bottom on each boring. At least eight to ten borings per field should be included in each sample. Soil that is wet should be dried before mixing. Soil should not be dried on top of the stove. Label all samples.

PHONE WORKERS STRIKE POSTPONED UNTIL FEB. 24

The CIO - Communications workers Tuesday postponed until February 24 a nationwide telephone strike they had called for Wednesday at 6 a. m.

Union President Joseph A. Beirne of the union said the nine-man executive board had voted to postpone the strike with the hope that a settlement could be brought about in the meantime.

The new strike deadline is 6 a. m. local time, on Friday, Feb. 24.

Series Of Collisions Damages Three Autos

Three cars were damaged in an accident involving five vehicles Friday night at the junction of U. S. 68 at 5:15 p. m. Sunday. No one was injured.

John R. Neal of the Bourbon county sheriff's office said the wreck occurred as follows:

Earl Jackson, Negro of Bourbon county, was travelling south and slowed down his car to turn into a driveway on his left. Dr. Leroy Manes of Paris, driving behind him, was unable to stop his car and passed Jackson's, crashing into a third auto, headed north and driven by Albert Hamilton of Carlisle.

Traffic was stopped following the collision, but a southbound car driven by Jim Calvert of Springdale, Mason county, crashed into Hamilton's wrecked car when Calvert failed to see a warning in time.

Finally, a truck-delivery trailer bumped into the back of Calvert's car. The trailer was not damaged, however, nor was Jackson's car. The latter did not make the turn.

Neal estimated damage to Hamilton's car at between $400 and $500. Damage to Dr. Manes' auto was placed at $200 to $250, and that to Calvert's was set at $50.

VOLUME LXXXIII ESTABLISHED 1867 CARLISLE, KY., FEBRUARY 16, 1950 PRICE FIVE CENTS NUMBER 7

The following clipping was brought in by J. Watson from the Feb. 13, 1940 issue of The Mercury.

ANNIVERSARY OF COLD DAY

February 13, 1899, Was Coldest Day In History Of State

In the midst of the snowstorm Tuesday, The Mercury was reminded by several of the older citizens of the cold weather of 41 years before.

February 13, 1899, was the coldest day ever recorded by the weather bureau in Kentucky. The official recording for Lexington on that date was 20 degrees below zero. A number of citizens told us Tuesday that thermometers in Carlisle registered as low as 20 degrees below on that date.

February 13, 1899, was county court day in Carlisle. In those days county court day brought large crowds to Carlisle, but one of our friends told us Tuesday that he recalled that there was but one horse hitched to the hitchrack in Carlisle on that day.

Ed note—The horse in question belonged to Watson, who said that it was 35 below in Jacksonville.

Out of the world

Daughter—No, pups, I do not wish to marry yet. What I want is a man who doesn't drink, smoke, chew, go out nights, gamble, swear, eat, or even look at anybody's wife, and one who is always good.

Father—My daughter, dear, and Mr. Dumbbell's, you are but a stranger here. Heaven is your home.

—HA—

I'll try again—I'm told that in North Carolina, all persons who are required by law to have a 9 foot fence built around their pork yards.

The possibility of Carlisle high and Nicholas County high meeting on the hardwood again this year is quite likely, since the Bluejackets, who gained a bye in the opening round of The 48th District Tournament in Paris, meet the winner of the NCHS-North Middletown game slated for the opening round Wednesday night, March 1.

The Blue Jackets have a 1-1 record with the Bourbon Kings thus far this season. Carlisle holds victories over both schools and thereby takes the rub into the finals against Paris, pre-tourney favorites.

"If NCHS can get by North Middletown, a local team is assured a berth in the regional tournament, since the two finalists automatically move into regional play.

If Maysville can defeat its district competitors, the "flying store coaches" are of the opinion that the Bulldogs may upset Paris' apple-cart if the teams meet in the regional.

Cynthiana and Buena Vista are also tough customers. It took an overtime period for Paris to defeat Cynthiana in the first meeting of the two teams. B. V. in turn, holds a decision over the Bulldogs.

At any rate, it'll be a hot tournament, you can rest assured of that!

It took quite a big "poke" in which Mrs. Sam H. George brought to The Mercury office the largest turnip these two eyes ever saw.

It weighed six pounds, measured 26 inches around and had no roots (counting numerous growths). The tuberous thing, grown by the Clayton, was plant-ed in August and due to the mild winter continued to grow on these months.

According to the weight it probably wasn't pithy, so often the case in oversized turnips.

Well, pithy or not, that's a lot of turnip!

—EA—

Lo, these many years

Now we know "For Whom The Bell Tolls."

—HA—

A drunk staggered out of a bar, pretty well tanked up and proceeded (the word is used with reservation) in loop-legged fashion down the street in one of our larger cities.

Halfway down the block, he spied a group of women sitting around in what he thought was another bar. Veering sharply left, he tipped over the door and entered with a big smile. The ladies, unknown to his smeared senses, were putting out their weekly wash at the neighborhood laundromat—as he thought in an all-girl night club.

After extricating himself before the eyes of the automatic Bends washers, he clapped several times and demanded that the show go on.

After about a half an hour of staring into the window of one of the washers, he punched a lady in waiting on his right and in slurred tones he said,

"Shay, lady, ain't thish television awful?"

(News was a little slow this week).

That's all—

2 Winners In FFA Projects Contest

Winfred Hughes won the gamble division of the Farm Projects Contest, sponsored by merchants of Carlisle, for the Carlisle Chapter, Future Farmers of America. R. T. Kirkland, sponsor of this division will present Hughes with a $50 U. S. Savings bond.

Hughes raised 19 varieties of vegetables using 4,930 feet of garden space which produced 115 bushels of vegetables.

Some of the vegetables raised were tomatoes, carrots, turnips, lima beans, onions, sweet potatoes, lettuce, kale, cucumbers, cantaloupes, strawberries, watermelons and cinnamon melons.

In the home improvement division of the Farm Projects Contest Frankie Hughes was awarded a $50 U. S. Savings bond by City Hardware Company. He spent 103 hours of self labor, 12 hours and paid $255.90 in cash.

Improvements consisted of new back porch, front porch, repaired road leading to the home, set 12 fence posts, put up 50 feet of garden fence, built brooder house for chickens, also sun porch for brooder house and re-lined a well with new tiling.

Bonds for all divisions of the contest will be presented at the city school Friday, February 24, according to an announcement made this week by agricultural teacher G. B. Leonard.

Local Cage Fives Lose Ball Games As Net Season Nears Unhappy End

Playing without the services of Coach Cunningham, who was in Louisville Friday night, the Carlisle Musketeers proved no match for the Male Bluejackets, who defeated C. K. C. cagers to the tune of 48-27 in Montgomery county Tuesday night.

The win swelled an earlier Blue Jacket victory over the Musketeers here.

The Tigers, trained by Kirk and Bachford, found the Musketeers little force. At the end of the first quarter the locals trailed 21-7.

At the half, the Tigers were on top 32-12 and 49-16 at the end of the third period.

Allison was best for the losing attack with 14 points.

Tomorrow night Sharpsburg invades the Carlisle cage lair and Tuesday the Musketeers journey to North Middletown and next Friday they will close a hapless season against Bourbon Vocational on a home game.

With less than 30 seconds to go, and the Tigers ahead 23-22 Brooks Pitman stole the ball and lofted in the winning basket for the CHS "B" five as they copped 24-23 win from the Male Bluejacks.

CHS scoring: Stephenson 2, Roach, Cavanaugh, Harden 6, Allison 11, Tolliver 4, Rodgers 2, Myers 2, Hughes 1, Flora 2.

TO SPEAK AT ANNUAL JEFFERSON-JACKSON DINNER

Senator Virgil M. Chapman of Kentucky has accepted an invitation of the Virginia State Democratic Central Committee to deliver the annual Jefferson-Jackson Day Dinner address Thursday, March 2, at Richmond.

The invitation was tendered on behalf of the Virginia Democratic State Committee by Virginia Senators Harry F. Byrd and A. Willis Robertson.

Vice President Alben W. Barkley delivered the Virginia Jefferson-Jackson Dinner address last year.

50-ACRE FARM BRINGS $11,000 IN COUNTY

The 50-acre farm of the late James C. Saunders, located six miles from Carlisle near Headquarters, was sold at public auction Saturday morning by the Scott-Kendall Sales Company. Albert Ritchie of Barterville paid $11,000 for the farm.

Statewide Survey Of Refuse Disposal

A statewide survey of methods of garbage and refuse collection and disposal is being conducted by the State Department of Health's Division of Sanitary Engineering, says F. C. Dugan, Director of the Division. Questionnaires have been sent to sanitarians in all county health departments requesting information about how and how often garbage and refuse is collected in communities of 1,500 population or more, what disposal method is used and what the cost of the present system is to the community.

Mr. Dugan said that information obtained in the study will be useful to his Division in comparing costs and effectiveness of various methods, so constructive advice can be given to towns interested in improvement. Many cities have satisfactory ways of collecting garbage and refuse but dispose of wastes in an insanitary manner which invites flies, other disease carrying insects and rodents. Adequate refuse disposal is of the greatest importance in the prevention of filth-borne diseases.

Enroll At UK

At the close of the regular registration period last week, second semester enrollment at the University of Kentucky stood at 6,575, according to an announcement by University Registrar Lee Sprowles. Breakdown of the student enrollment near the 7,000 mark, Dr. Sprowles said.

Local Scouts Sign For Jamboree Trip

Two local Boy Scouts already have registered to attend the National Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa., next summer.

Harold Shepherd and Brooks Pitman will be among some 40,000 Scouts from all over the United States who will go to the historic site from June 30 to July 6.

Boys who do not go this year will not have another chance, because the jamboree are not held annually. A boy who is a Scout now probably will be out of Scouting before the next jamboree.

An act of Congress was necessary to obtain the Valley Forge site. While the Scouts are in Pennsylvania they will tour Philadelphia to see historical landmarks. They also will participate in national campfires, exhibits of camping skill and a pageant. There will be a special Independence Day celebration.

Total cost of the trip for a Scout from the Blue Grass Council is $113.50. Ten dollars of this will be paid as a reservation fee by Feb. 15.

To be eligible to attend the Jamboree a boy must be a registered Scout, 11 years of age. He must be a second class Scout or an Explorer apprentice. All registration fees and applications must be in council headquarters by Feb. 27.

ALLENTOWN — Saturday night fans of Bourbon county will turn out to honor a favorite son, John "Sonny" Allen, one of the nation's great basketball players. Allen, Kentucky's leading per-game average cager cinderbell scorer last played 86 games and collected 1,794 points, an average of 20.8 during the four years in Bourbon head. The Union Bulldogs will lead the opposition in honor. A hegd's last game to be played Saturday night, February 18.

Raymond Burke, Myers Route 1 and Imogene Smoot, Myers Route 1, made application for marriage license on February 14.

THEY CAN MOVE THE HIGHEST MOUNTAIN—Pictured above are R. P. Alexander, foreground, and W. J. The "brother act" has just finished leveling and grubbing work for Marion Doneran on the Lippe Jackstown road, at which point the picture was taken. At present, one outfit, operated by Harold Ratliff, is working on the Delbert Baker farm on the East Union road. The other is located on the S. T. Terrell farm on the Somerset road.—Carlisle Mercury Photo.

Chapman Appointed Ex-officio Member Of Senate Committee On Appropriations

Washington, D. C.—The hand of Kentucky Senator Virgil M. Chapman has been strengthened in dealing with public works as a result of his recent appointment as an ex-officio member of the powerful Senate Committee on Appropriations.

At the direction of Chairman Chavez, (D., N. M.) of the Senate Public Works Committee Chapman will sit with the Appropriation sub-committee which handles all land requests on public works.

The importance of this group is shown by the fact that the chairman of the complete Appropriations Committee, Senator Kenneth D. McKellar, (D., Tenn.), has chosen to be its chairman also.

Through this subcommittee, plans of the Army Corps of Engineers for flood control land rivers and harbors projects are translated into dollars. It is known as the watchdog group of the Army's civil functions.

The arrangement to have some Public Works Committee members share Appropriations Committee responsibility came from Congress' move to step up efficiency in the Reorganization Act of 1946. To Senator Chapman it means a chance to take a double look at all projects, many of which are in Kentucky. As a member of the Public Works Committee he will help authorize them and then will assist in putting up the money for them.

In addition to his assignment to the Public Works and Appropriations Committees, Senator Chapman is a member of the important Senate Committee on Armed Services.

Service on these committees is equivalent to being on six committees as they were constituted before the Reorganization Act. "There are fewer committees by name," says Chapman, "but I believe the work load is the same if not heavier."

Dougherty Lodge No. 65, F. & A. M. will hold a call meeting Tuesday night, February 21, for work in the Fellowcraft degree.

Honor Society Inducts Several New Members

The annual Carlisle High School Honor Society program was presented in Chapel on February 10.

A very serious and dignified group of boys and girls dressed in robes marched down the aisle carrying lighted candles. The president of the Senior Honor Society, Billy Crawford, gave the opening speech. Each member then explained one of the five requirements, for membership in the honor society and while doing this, lighted a candle to signify the requirement discussed. New members were then taken in and had the pledge was administered to them.

The following members were taken into the Senior Honor Society: Ann Asbury, Billy Blake, Kay Fisher, Frances Jones. Members were: Rose Ballard, Betty Crawford, Gary Flora, Rhoda Gillespie and Brooks Pitman. Those who were already members are Catherine Capps, Billy Dale Crawford and Dotty Dotson.

Junior Honor Society: new members, Charles Carter; Probationary members: Jane Elton, Gillespie, Billy Buntin, Donna Dampier, Jacky Shepherd, Mary P. Smith, Martha Sue Fatbach and Barbara Hunt.

Kay Flora, Roberta Farris, Theesa Hardin and Carol Smith are already members.

Shannon Deplores Political Situations

Dr. Jasper B. Shannon, professor of political science at University of Kentucky, stated in an address Tuesday at Dunbar before a Centre College convocation that politics must be "removed from the ill favor into which it has fallen."

Current opinion seems to be that if one expects to be a politician it is shocking . . . as to hold at a possible career in gangsterism or commercialized vice," Dr. Shannon said.

The U. K. professor said, "We in the United States seem to delight in pillorying the persons who go into the way of life which we willingly die for. By besmirching our leaders, we, the people, tend to force our politicians into the patterns we have stereotyped for them."

"We expect members of the Kentucky Legislature to serve for $10 a day, yet we claim to be shocked when we learn that some of them receive collateral rewards elsewhere. It is a rare politician who is wicked for the sake of being wicked."

He told the Centre students that "A career in politics, whether national or local, does not promise great wealth, but rather the opposite. It will afford more criticism than appreciation and will subject you to the most evil of all knowledge—the truth that you can for some length of time influence people for our private ends as well as for the public good."

LOCAL SCOUTS IN CINCY

Members of the Carlisle Boy Scouts of America troop were guests of Scoutmaster Everett M. Smith and James Hardin at an ice hockey game in Cincinnati Sunday night.

REALTY SALE

The Homer Ward farm of 63 acres on the Maysville road was sold to Willie Scott at a private Realty sale by Dayton & Shrout Realtors.

Mercury Seeking Feature Photographs Of Local Youngsters

"The best investment is in children," says Wm. J. Cameron. "You had better take a good look at them as they pass you on the street, for they are the ones who are going to make a new world for you, and you can catch some glimmer of the dawn in their faces living.

That is a bit of philosophy in which the publishers of this newspaper firmly believe. And because we think our readers should "catch some glimmer of the dawn," we intend to help them do it. That is, of course, with the cooperation of the mothers and fathers of the children of this and surrounding communities.

Nationally Known Studio To Take Pictures

The only way we can give all our readers a good look at these future "world builders" is by publishing pictures of them in a feature series titled "Citizens of Tomorrow."

To assure the latest and best reproduction pictures—they must all be of a uniform size and quality—we have made arrangements with Woltz Studios, nationally known children's photographers, to take these special pictures for us.

Expert children's photographers for the studios, with all the necessary equipment for this specialized work, will be here Friday and Saturday, February 24 and 25. The special studio will be set up at the Bourbon Laundry and will open from 10 A. M. to 6 P. M. daily.

There Will Be No Charge To Parents

There is no charge to the parents! There are absolutely no strings to this offer. There is no age limit. It is bonafide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers of this newspaper to take advantage of this offer. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain a limited number by arrangement with the studio representative when they select the pose they want printed in the paper. It is entirely up to them!

The More Pictures The Better

The Mercury simply wants pictures of all the youngsters and the more the better. So Mothers and fathers of the community in which this paper circulates should remember the date and place—Friday and Saturday, February 24 and 25 at the Bourbon Laundry and not fail to bring their children to the photographer.

You will be surprised, afterwards, if you do not allow your children to participate in this event. The kiddies will have lots of fun and both Mother and Dad—and the youngsters, too—will be very proud to see their pictures in print later. Many will clip them out and preserve them until Junior grows up.
