Vinson For President Rumored In Capitol

Rumors around Capitol Hill in Washington have cropped up in the last few days over the possibility of a native Kentuckian, Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson, running for the democratic nomination for president next year.

Vinson, himself, remains quiet about the situation, but some observers say he could be persuaded to run.

Others meanwhile in Washington say that President Truman would give the nod to Vinson if he decides not to run himself.

Vinson would probably be the man to bring the "States Righters" back into the democratic fold, besides the fact that he would be generally accepted by Truman's followers.

Vinson was born and raised in Louisa, Ky., and that town recently honored him by staging a "Fred M. Vinson Day," at which time several important persons appeared on the program with him and paid tribute to him and to his fine record.

CITIZENS OF TOMORROW

SMILES AND SERIOUSNESS—reflect the changing attitudes of all children of all ages. These citizens of tomorrow are Philip and Phyllis, three-and-one-half year old twin son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Woodall, Locust street, and three grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Hunt, Route 3, Paris.

Miss Pat Allison Attends Church Camp

Pat Allison was one of three hundred Presbyterian youth leaders who met at Montreat, N. C., for the annual Young People's Leadership School of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. Only selected leaders and their advisors attend the school. They represent approximately 100,000 young people from every section of the south.

Besides electing national officers, the group engaged in an intensive study and worship program designed to equip every leader for Christian service in their home community.

WINS NOMINATION

Republican nominee Leer Buckley, Lexington attorney, won the Republican nomination for judge of the criminal, common law and equity division of Fayette Circuit Court. He will oppose the incumbent, Judge Joseph J. Bradley, Democrat, in the November election.

FREEDOM Goes Where The Newspaper Goes

Is it merely an accident that those countries that have a free press, also have a free people? Most Americans realize it is more than coincidence. They have learned that the right of newspapers to seek out and publish the truth WITHOUT FEAR OF REPRRISAL is their only opportunity to know the facts on which they may exercise their freedom of choice. THIS IS THE ESSENCE OF TRUE DEMOCRACY.

Rediscover Your Hometown

Freedom of choice starts where people live and work. There have been vast changes this past decade - - not only in the world and nation, but also here in Carlisle. And - - more are on the way. Read Your CARLISLE MERCURY with care - - the advertising as well as the news columns - - to discover the freedom of choices that promises you a happier, more abundant life, right here in CARLISLE and NICHOLAS COUNTY.
