THE Senatorial caucus was not held at Frankfort Tuesday night.

SENATOR KENYON, of Nicholas and Robertson, is for Lindsey for Senator.

SENATOR JAMES MCLEOD, of Lexington, editor of the TRIBUNE, is well spoken of politically.

GOV. BROWN denies the report that certain New York Democrats intend to embarrass the new administration. He says the new York Democracy will support Mr. Cleveland in every way and will do all in its power to aid him.

The Senatorial deadlock in Montana has been broken at last, and it is to be hoped that it will last for two weeks yet. Populists are still making the Democrats trouble, but the Republicans have a hope of eventually capturing them.

As anticipated, Dr. James Rapier, Representative from Muhlenberg County, was appointed to succeed Mr. Lucas P. Allison on the State Board's Fair Commission. Dr. James has cast entirely at fate to have Kentucky properly represented but his selection will not please Democrats as well as Republicans.

GOV. BROWN is out of the race for Senatorial honors and there is at present only three starters—Judge Lindsey, Hon. Jas. B. McCreary, and Hon. W. J. Stone.—Who will win is the question, but we are of opinion that the "dark horse" will get there first, as McCreary is somewhat handicapped by his action in the State Convention.

RAILROAD COMMISSIONER Wood-son, of Kentucky, has been appointed by Governor Buckner to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. Lucas P. Allison who died in Louisville on Saturday, and appeared to relish a hearty dinner. He spent the afternoon with friends, and about 8 o'clock was seized with a chill which was followed by a fever which ended in death. The doctors say that may be charged to curiosity and not in the fever.

JUSTICE LUCIUS QUINTUS CINCINNATUS LAMAR, of the United States Supreme Court, died very suddenly Monday morning at Vineville, near Macon, Ga., He had been in excellent health up to that day
