DRY GOODS CO.

"ESTO PERPETUA."

We run out our cannon this week to announce that the ghost of hard times has stuck its head out of the ground in the tombs where he came from. He couldn't stand the firing of our big guns. The steady stream of customers coming and going, the cheerful countenances pleased by the salesmen, the fine stock of goods to be seen all over the house. Why, we gained 40 per cent. over any previous Court Day in 1892. There's only one more way to do and you up the ground this bet we'll have to do it. Now we are getting a little "hot" in the collar" and feel "brave to the bone" to hold.

Do you observe this fine-looking young woman and her little girl? They are buying you an object lesson on "Comfort." Because the girls too wear Ferris' Good Sense Corsets. In wash dress goods we are sound as a dollar. In summer dress goods we have a few left—you can get them at a low price. The sale of our pretty dress silks still goes on, they are the coolest dress goods and certainly the most stylish, and serviceable; full line of silk mitts, gloves, fans, parasols and fixtures, all kinds of hosiery and thin underwear; some real cheap carpets and matting; all kinds of cotton goods, New York Cambrics, shirtings, all kinds of waist goods, lace curtains, curtain poles and fixtures, all our straw hats nearly given away, men's shirts, boy's shirts, all kinds of rubber goods, coats and circulars. Great piles of notions and fancy goods; Cassimeres for men and boys, an immense variety of goods suited to all ages, tastes and conditions. Come to us on your way to the World's Fair, and be sure to stop on your way back and tell us all about it, and be sure to bring in the money to pay your duty account and the balance on last year's account. To all of our old customers we extend the usual credit—but we must exercise great care in granting new credits and hope that cash buyers will flock to our standard in great numbers, cash we want and cash we must have, and if you bring cash with you we will load you down with good bargains. On to victory an eternal glory!

Gen'l Commanding.
