Colorful SPRING Showing

It's Later Than You Think!
Easter is March 25th

Lerman Bros.

Complete Line of Spring Suits, Coats, Toppers, Dresses, Shoes, Skirts, Blouses, Hosiery, Millinery

BIRTHS

McGlothin

To Mrs. John McGlothin, Moorefield, February 9, a daughty hospital weighing seven pounds, named Bonnie Kay.

Hogge

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hogge, Myers, are parents of a son born February 13 at the Nicholas County hospital weighing seven pounds three ounces.

Deaths

Charles Clay Shrout Sr.

Charles Clay Shrout Sr., 70, of Locust street, died of pneumonia and complications at 7 a. m. Friday at the Nicholas County hospital where he was admitted a few days ago. He had been in bad health for the past 18 months.

He was a son of the late John and Alice Jones Shrout of Moorefield and was a member of the Presbyterian church.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Ethel Littlejohn Shrout; a son C. Shrout Jr., and two brothers, Marvin and Russell Shrout, all of Carlisle; a sister, Mrs. Tevis Wilson, Moorefield, and a grandson.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Sunday in the Presbyterian church, with the Rev. W. R. Raborn officiating. Burial was in the Carlisle cemetery. Pallbearers were Everett M. Smith, William Harper, Arthur Allison, W. C. Talbert, Joe Wilson and J. S. Wilson. Honorary pallbearers were Everett E. Plunkett, R. M. Smith, Harve Wilson, Dr. T. P. Scott, James D. Patton and Ernest Piper.

Mrs. Charles Hollar

Mrs. Mayme Gaunce Hollar, 62, wife of the Rev. Charles Hollar, Cynthiana lay minster, died Wednesday, February 7, at the Harrison Methodist hospital, Cynthiana, where she was admitted Tuesday night following an illness of three years.

A native of Nicholas county, she was a daughter of the late John and Louella Snapp Hollar, and was a member of the First Methodist church.

Survivors besides her husband are two sons, Ophal and William Hollar, Cynthiana; two daughters, Mrs. Della Marvin and Miss Zetta Hollar, Cynthiana; a brother, Earl Gaunce, Ypsilanti, Mich.; three sisters, Mrs. W. B. Hendricks, Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Will Hollar, Indian Fields, Clark county, and Mrs. Thomas Meyers, Irvine; a granddaughter, Miss Wilma June Hollar, Cynthiana, and a grandson, Pvt. Charles E. Mardis, Maroc, Calif.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Friday at the Smith-Rees funeral home, conducted by the Rev. M. P. McClure, pastor of the First Methodist church, and the Rev. Jack Williams, pastor of the Elmarch Methodist church. Burial was in Battle Grove cemetery.

Mr. And Mrs. Cleacy Fightmaster

Funeral services for Cleacy Fightmaster Sr., 70, and his wife, Mrs. Annie Preston Fightmaster, 67, who died last week from the effects of carbon monoxide poisoning at their home in East Paris, was held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the Hinton-Turner funeral home, conducted by the Rev. Elroy Lamb and the Rev. T. W. Spicer. Burial was in the Paris cemetery.

Honorary pallbearers for the couple were the deacons of the First Baptist church. Active pallbearers for Mrs. Fightmaster were Robert Burnett, Raymond McConnell, Ernest Kiser, H. M. Sheeler, Charlie Vue and Everett Hall. Active pallbearers for Mr. Fightmaster were Elford Burnett Jr., Ed Ruggles, Paul Jones, Brooks Buckner, Fred Atkinson and Herman Santen.

Mr. Fightmaster, a well-known Paris grocer, died at 2:30 p. m. Friday at the Massie Memorial hospital. His wife died at the hospital Thursday morning.

A native of Cynthiana, Mr. Fightmaster was a son of Joe B. and Kate Wigglesworth Fightmaster. He was a deacon of the First Baptist church.

His survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Miller Kiser and Mrs. Tom Benton, Paris; three sons, Cleary Fightmaster Jr., Carlisle, Joe B. Fightmaster, Raton, N. M., and Ussery Fightmaster, Paris; three brothers, Fred Fightmaster, Lexington; Roy Fightmaster, Fort Mitchell, and Wilbert Fightmaster, Cynthiana; three sisters, Mrs. J. C. Day, Lexington, Miss Pearl Fightmaster, Cynthiana, and Mrs. Ollie Roberts, Latonia; seven grandchildren, and one great-grandson.

Mrs. Fred M. Graeter

Mrs. Ursula M. Graeter, 89, widow of a former Carlisle businessman, Fred M. Graeter, died Wednesday at 5:45 a. m. at the Nicholas County hospital. She had been ill for several months and entered the Nicholas County hospital a few weeks ago.

She was a native of Chur, Switzerland, coming to America when she was 19 years old. She was united in marriage soon after arriving in this country to Mr. Graeter, at the home of John Letcher of Pleasant Valley. She was well educated, speaking French and German fluently. Mrs. Graeter was a member of the Presbyterian church.

Survivors include one daughter, Miss Marguerite Graeter, Carlisle, a son, Fred M. Graeter, Columbia, Tenn., and one brother, Mr. Bert Margadant of Carlisle.

The body was moved to the Mathers-Shearer chapel. Funeral arrangements have not yet been announced.

DEADLINE

Before Match 1st, and that's the date
It's time to get a license plate
The "Powers-that-be" in Frankfort town,
Say "Get your tag, and you needn't frown."
A silver plate with letters black
Must be on your car, right in the back.
So for these tags make haste to come
To the county clerk and for a sum
You get a tag and a smile thrown in
Now DON'T BE LATE, for that's a sin!

—Mrs. John Sugg

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our thanks to our many friends for the kindness shown us during the illness and death of our beloved wife and daughter, Mary Lee Rudd. We thank the choir, donors of flowers, cards and cars. Especially do we thank Rev. Rankins for consoling words. Mathes-Shearer for efficient service.

Mr. Edgar Rudd, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Grooms and family.
2-15-1pt

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors who were so kind and thoughtful of us during the illness and death of our dear mother. We appreciate the kindness shown us by Mr. Mathers, Mr. Shearer, and Bro. White, house for his consoling words, the singers and those who sent such beautiful flowers. Also the Campbell sisters for their kindness.

The Pryor Family
2-15-1ltchg

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this method of thanking our many friends and relatives for their kindness during the illness and upon the death of our wife and mother. We especially want to thank Rev. Whitehouse for his comforting words, the singers for their beautiful songs, Marion and Ralph for their untiring efforts of kindness. The ones who sent flowers, food and cards. To Bill Small for the beautiful arrangements he made possible.

Her passing was our loss but Heaven's gain.

Again we do want to say thank you and may God bless each and every one of you. Charles Kenton and Daughters.
2-15-1ltchg.

The average tobacco grower in Clinton county is said to have lost $200 an acre on his crop due to inadequate housing and lack of coke.

Try Mercury Classifieds

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to sincerely thank everyone who by deed or word was so kind to us during the illness and death of our wife and mother, Robert and Roberta Templeton.
2-15-1t*

Colored Notes

By Aurelia Hamilton

Mr Clarence A. Johnson, Mr. Jessie Peoples and Mr. T. B. Marshall of Middletown, Ohio, spent the week here.

Miss Doris Shieles of Paris, spent the weekend with her aunt, Mrs. Lusta Keys.

Miss Mildred Thompson of Millersburg, spent the weekend with her aunt, Mrs. Alene Clark.

Mrs. Mag Sharp has returned home after several weeks in Springfield, Ohio, at the home of her sister.

Troop 166, Boy Scouts, gave a program at the Booker T. Washington School Friday evening. On Sunday morning the Scouts attended Sunday School at the Christian church and morning services at the M. E. church. They are few in number but under their leadership they will be worth while citizens. Let us hope and pray for our Troop 166, and their young leaders Mr. Alonzo White Jr., and Mr. Bobby Stevenson. Help them all we can.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Clark have returned from a months stay in Florida.

Mrs. Thomas Dampier of the Stoney Creek section, entered the Johnson hospital on Friday, for medical care.

George Spoegal, of the Lower Jacksntown road, stationed with the U. S. Navy off New York arrived home Saturday on a short leave.

Mrs. D. B. Knox is confined to her home on North street, nursing a badly sprained right wrist, received when she fell on ice on her porch last Wednesday night.

Mrs. B. C. Clark of North street who has been under special care for arm and hip injuries at the St. Joseph's hospital, Lexington, was moved Sunday, to the Nicholas County hospital.

Everett M Smith entertained members of the Boy Scouts, with a lovely buffet supper on Thursday night at his western suburban home. He was assisted in entertaining by John Brooks Fitman and Billy Blake.

The Sunday edition of Lexington Herald-Leader, carried a picture of Jimmis Shearer, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Shearer, former residents of Carlisle, with a group of young folk attending a birthday party of Bill Mahan Jr., in the barn at Castlewood Park.

Richard Howard, agriculture veterans instructor of the Nicholas County high school, who was severely injured three weeks ago in an automobile accident, near Carlisle, has returned from convalescing at his home in Woodford county, resuming his work on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Whitehouse of Covington, were guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. J Whitehouse, Sunday.

Mrs. Brown Buchanan of Lexington, visited her brother, B. J. Alexander and family, and other relatives here, Monday.

Mr. Harry L. Burgess left last week for a business trip to Memphis, Tenn., and will be the guest of his daughter, Miss Nealya Thomas Burgess.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Porter, pastor of the Assembly of God church, entertained last Tuesday night for William Carlton Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Campbell, who has left for Ft. Knox to enter the service.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Fletcher and son have taken an apartment in the home of Mrs. B. D. Knox on North street.

Mrs. James Hickman returned recently from several weeks visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Cleveland Ross, in Augusta.

Luther Anderson, so of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson, was taken to St. Joseph's hospital in Lexington, to be under care of specialists.

Miss Jeanette Lawrence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lawrence, who was injured in an automobile accident last week in Detroit, Michigan, is slowly recovering at her home.

John E. Jones, 89, who has been ill some time at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Earl Wade, entered the Johnson Memorial Hospital Convalescent home Monday for treatment, having developed pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. John William Hutchings and baby of Lexington, were guests of his brother, Dr. S. F. Hutchings and family, Tuesday.

Dr. N. H. McKinney remains at his home on West Main street.

Mrs. J. Bernard Linville, formerly of Carlisle, is reported improved from several days illness in the Harrodsburg hospital.

Mrs. Walter Crawford will undergo surgery today at the Nicholas County hospital, postponed from last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Seiber Turner and two children of Dayton, Ohio, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crawford, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Gray, Lexington, were guests of her brother, H. M. Smart and family, Sunday.

Recalled To Duty

First Lt. Kenneth Coble of East Main street, who has been an engineer with the State Highway Department for two years, has been recalled to duty at Fort Belvoir, Va. He and his family plan to leave here next week.

Club Party Today

The 4-X Club Like It Club will meet at 2 p. m. this afternoon with Mrs. Taylor Mathers on Elm street.

Utopia Club to Meet

The Utopia Club will meet Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Shelley Gaunce. A Valentine party will be the feature of the meeting.

Mrs. Stone Ill

Mrs. Verna Stone who suffered a heart attack Saturday afternoon in Marshall's Restaurant, is a patient at the Nicholas County hospital.

Dinner Given

A dinner was given Monday night at 6 o'clock at the Nicholas County hospital for members of the Hospital board, and members of the Nicholas county fiscal court. The hospital board's monthly meeting followed the dinner.

2nd Lieut. Dixon Leaves For Georgia

Lieut. Charles Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dixon, West Main street, left Tuesday for Ft. Benning, Ga., where he will enter upon 15 weeks training course. He is a member of the local guard unit.

Dr. Whitehouse Speaks

Dr. J. J. Whitehouse was guest speaker last Thursday at the Cynthiana Rotary club. He gave an address on Abraham Lincoln.

Dr. Whitehouse was introduced by Mr. Earl Barton, program chairman of the club.

Rev. Raymond Miller Speaks In Lexington

Rev. Raymond Miller, superior of the Redemptorist house at St. John's church, here, was guest speaker Sunday night at the annual Guild of St. Paul's church in Lexington. He replaced the Most Rev. Wm. T. Mulloy, bishop of the diocese of Covington.

U.C.M.S. To Meet

The United Christian Missionary Society will meet at the Christian church Wednesday, February 21, at 2 p. m.

Mrs. B. F. Reynolds, leader, will give the second study of the year east which will deal with "The Peoples of the Near East." Mrs. Warner Lowe will continue the book review of the Near East Panorama.

Pledges Sorority

Miss Lucy Nell Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Henry, 105 School Avenue, Carlisle, was recently pledged into Phi Mu during the winter rush season. Phi Mu is one of four social sororities on the campus of Transylvania College, Lexington, Kentucky.

Miss Henry, a graduate of Carlisle High School, is a junior student majoring in history