H'q Homemakers

The Headquarters Homemakers met May 16th at the home of Mrs. E. V. Delanes. Mrs. Reynolds Allison gave the devotional. Fourteen members enjoyed the lesson on making Lamp Shades given by Mrs. R. D. Clark and Mrs. John Holland. Twelve lamp shades were made.

The nominating committee appointed the following officers for the coming year. President, Mrs. Emmett Darrell; Vice President, Mrs. Homer Hollock; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Daniel Grimes.

We will meet with Mrs. John Fryman June 20 and will continue the making of lamp shades.

E. Carlisle Homemakers

East Carlisle Homemakers met with Mrs. Clem Grimes on Thursday, May 17. Mrs. Gaston Duncan presided.

The lesson was given by Mrs. Clem. Neal Conn, Jr. gave a report on the Mount Vernon Seminar. Mrs. Ed Feebeck gave a report on Girls Nat. Conv. Mrs. Robert Feebeck gave her own trip and then we got Nancy Lynch, others.

Mrs. Clem, along with the other ladies, was pleased to pin on the girls Mrs. Nancy Gallagher, for sending girls to 4-H camp week at Lexington in June. We of East Carlisle feel a very personal interest in 4-H week as Martha Sue Feebeck, daughter of one of our members. Mrs. Robert Feebeck will represent Nicholas county in Fresh Judging at the June meet.

Mr. Samuel Wallace of Cynthiana R. E. A. gave an interesting talk on electric lamps for adequate, glareless and right height lamps to aid our vision. Reflectors for lamps, larger wattage of bulbs of white indirect light give better and softer illumination for reading. He also had a variety of adaptors to use in making lamps from jugs, bottles or even wooden hanging buckets that could be made for additional lamps where needed.

The lesson on Making Lamp Shades was taught by Mrs. Robert Feebeck and Mrs. William Straw. First they explained why white or white lined shades of parchment or covered cardboard were best.

Most of the 11 members and three visitors, Mrs. H. C. Gallagher, Mrs. Eugene Clinkenbeard and Mrs. Ewell Clinkenbeard made at least one shade under the direction of the project leaders Mrs. Dorothy Neal and Mrs. Dora Harney.

A nominating committee Mrs. R. O. Shroud, Mrs. Clay Hudson and Mrs. William Straw was appointed to select officers for the ensuing year.

Hughes-Marshall Wedding Solemnized In Double Ring Ceremony Last Sunday

Miss Dorthy Veach Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keller Hughes and Pvt. Horace F. Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Marshall, all of Carlisle, were married at 4:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Carlisle Christian church.

The Rev. J. G. Carr, pastor of the Methodist church, read the double ring ceremony. The church was decorated with baskets of lilies, ferns and sprays of white locust, and lighted by cathedral candles. The vows were said in front of an arch of white blossoms and wedding bells tied with a large bow of white satin ribbon. A kneeling bench of white wrought iron with satin pillows stood between the preacher and the bridal couple. At the close of the ceremony the couple knelt while the Lords Prayer was being sung.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Mary Frances Fisher and Miss Ann Galbraith, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight satin gown. Queen Elizabeth style, fashioned with a sweetheart neck, stand up collar, cross folds of satin down to the fitted bodice long pointed sleeves and long train. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a halo of satin entwined with seed pearls. Her bouquet of white carnations was centered with an orchid and tied with shower ribbons.

Mrs. Donald Fair of Morehead was her nieces' matron of honor. She wore a lime mallne gown over lime satin made with fitted bodice, low pointed neckline, a rolling mallne collar and full skirt. The drapes on the skirt were caught up in several places with pink rose buds. She wore a matching velvet halo and carried a colonial basket of pink rose buds tied with a shower of pink ribbons.

Miss Bobby Doyle of Carlisle and Miss Glady Walters of Irvine, the bridesmaids, wore matching frocks and haloes. Miss Doyle in yellow and Miss Walters in aqua. Both carried Colonial bouquets in contrasting colors.

Michael Morford, the flower girl, carried a basket of rose petals. She wore a pink satin dress trimmed with pink mallne. The full skirt was caught up at the hem with blue satin bows. She wore a halo of pink mallne and flowers.

David Heraldson of Detroit, Mich., served as best man, and ushers were Basil Baumstark and Robert Whaley, Lexington, Lester Coatney and Taylor Mathers, Carlisle.

The brides mother wore a powder blue lace dinner dress and a large leghorn picture hat trimmed in pink velvet ribbon and rose buds and wore a corsage of pink roses.

The grooms mother wore an aqua dinner dress trimmed in rhyne stones, a white pedal hat with a rhyne stone in each pedal and a gardenia corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the brides parents on Mulberry street. The lace covered table was centered with a three tiered cake topped by bridal figurines and flanked with flowers and lacey ferns. Lighted tapers in crystal candelabras tied with maline bows sat on either side of the cake.

Assisting were Mrs. A. V. Allison, Mrs. Dan Rich, Mrs. W. M. Layson, Mrs. Emery Clark, Mrs. Ruth Leer, Miss Marjorie Miller, Mrs. Hester Coatney, Mrs. Robert Coatney, Mrs. Walter Wyrick, Miss Ann Galbraith, Mrs. J. G. Carr, Mrs. Lida M. Darnall, Mrs. Howard K. Veach, Mrs. Bruce Hughes and Mrs. Robert Stall.

After their wedding trip to Florida the couple will return to Carlisle, where he will await further assignment, having completed his course at Ft. McClelland, Ala.

The bride and bridegroom are graduates of Carlisle high school, and Mrs. Marshall attended Centre College, Danville. Mr. Marshall was in business in Carlisle until he entered service six months ago.
