CARLISLE BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. E. V. Carrier, Pastor

9:30 a. m.—Sunday School.

10:45 a. m.—Morning worship. The subject will be "Repentance". The text will be "Repent ye for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand". (Matt 3:2).

7:00 p. m.—Evening worship. The subject will be "Who Is Boss At Your Home?" This is to be the first of a series of eight people's topics to be discussed during a special eight weeks young people's program at the church. Each Sunday some of the problems following and preceding marriage will be discussed. The slogan for this eight weeks' loyalty campaign is, "Building Bible Homes" and the text will be, "Choose you this day whom you will serve; ... but as for me and my house we will serve the Lord". (Joshua 24:15).

This message will be of special interest to all husbands and prospective husbands.

Special gifts are to be presented to the husband who has been married the longest and to the husband most recently married.

The fine fall weather allowed another large crowd to attend both the morning and evening services last Sunday.

Mission At St. John's To Open Next Week

St. John's Catholic church will be the scene of a week's mission October 21-28. The mission will be open at High Mass Sunday morning October 21 at 9 o'clock. Services will be held each evening during the week at 7:30, and will be conducted by Rev. Donald F. Miller, C.Ss.R., brother of Rev. Raymond Miller, pastor of St. John's.

Father Don Miller is at present Superior of the Redemptorist Fathers' publishing house at Liguori, Missouri, 20 miles south of St. Louis, and editor of the well-know national Catholic magazine the "Liguorian." He is also an orator much in demand throughout the midwest.

Father Don Miller is one of four brothers who are priests and Redemptorists. Located with him at Liguori, Mo., is Father Ernest Miller; the fourth brother, Fr. Louis, is an Army chaplain recently assigned to duty in Germany.

The mission services will be held in St. John's each evening beginning Sunday Oct. 21 at 7:30. The subjects treated will be the matters that interest human beings and concern them everywhere: the value of the human soul, the means of avoiding sin and hell and getting to heaven, good family life—in short, the "eternal truths."

Attendance at the services is not restricted to parishoners of St. John's; the general public is most welcome to attend the services each evening at 7:30.
