Nicholas FFA Dairy Judging Team Places Eighth In Statewide Contest

By John Adams

The dairy judging team from Nicholas county placed eighth in the state-wide contest at the Kentucky State fair in which 82 teams participated.

David Baker led the scoring for Nicholas county, with 269 points, followed by Joe Blount with 268, and Jimmy Judge with 236 points for a team total of 773. This team was trained by John Adams, teacher of agriculture at Nicholas County high school.

They were accompanied to Louisville by Jennings Mattox.

They judged three breeds of dairy cattle Jersey, Holstein, and Guernsey. Five classes of four animals from each of the above mentioned breeds were placed on type. One class of four animals was placed on the basis of type and performance pedigree.

The beef cattle show at the Kentucky State Fair last week included 349 head of top animals of the Angus, Hereford, and Shorthorn breeds. Two very unusual awards were made—the grand champion Shorthorn bull was a "tuly" junior calf that defeated bulls of all ages after winning in his own class and an Angus steer owned by Bobby Eades Jr. of the Fayette County FFA stood above both junior and adult feeders.

Judges in beef cattle were: Mr. Joe Kretzmann, Knoxville, Tenn.—Angus; Prof. Jack Frost, Purdue University—Shorthorn; Prof. Doug. Good, Kansas State College—Herefords; Mr. E. A. Boyd, Dover, Ky., Polled Herefords. Supervisor of the beef department was Ray Ewing, Extension Specialist from the University of Ky. He was assisted by A. J. Thaxton, assistant agriculture teacher at Nicholas County high.

This Mr. Thaxton's 5th year as assistant superintendent of beef cattle at our Kentucky State Fair.

NEW PRESIDENT—Miss Nancy E. Reid was elected president of the Carlisle Woman's Auxiliary of America recently. She will hold office during the 1951-52 school term.

Estimated Cost Of Swimming Pool Around $25,000

Estimated cost—$25,000—silence.

A swimming pool for Carlisle and Nicholas county would cost approximately $25,000 to construct according to a report received by the Community Recreation Council from the Pressure Concrete Company of Florence, Alabama.

This information was revealed to the group that attended a mass meeting held Tuesday night at the courthouse to determine whether or not a pool for this community would have the wholehearted backing of the people of Carlisle and Nicholas county.

Undaunted by this figure, however, the people who attended the meeting decided upon representatives of each organization in the county to approach the organizations to determine if they would endorse the project.

Mr. Jack Helton, a representative of the Alabama firm is expected to be in Carlisle in the next few days, at which time a representative group will meet with him to discuss the problems concerned in building a pool here.

Several suggestions were offered at the meeting whereby the cost of the pool might be lowered. Also several plans for raising the necessary funds were presented, but no further action was taken on the matter pending the meeting with the representative of the construction firm.

Vet's Hospital Patients Entertained At Carlisle

The Nicholas Post, American Legion, and its Auxiliary entertained 22 convalescing veterans from the Veteran's hospital near Lexington with a picnic lunch at noon Friday at the city reservoir.

The patients were brought here by local veterans by bus. Several patients provided musical entertainment, followed with community singing.

IS SOMEONE KNOCKING?

An impromptu entrance was almost gained into the household of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shearer, Sycamore street, Wednesday morning, as a truck meandered down Sycamore street and into the front porch of the Shearer home.

The truck, belonging to Wagoner and Liver, a bottle gas firm from Millersburg, knocked down three supporting posts on the Shearer front porch and caused considerable damage to the porch.

Fortunately, there were no children playing in the front yard when the truck took its jaunt, but Mrs. Shearer and her small daughter, Wisby, were in the kitchen in the rear of the home when the mishap occurred.

Said Mrs. Shearer after the accident: "I've lived here for 20 years. I knew it was bound to happen someday."

Musketeers Fight Back To Down Greyhounds 13-6

There was a full moon Friday night but the Paris Greyhounds ended up with empty arms as the Carlisle Musketeers broke up the Greyhounds sweet dreams of victory by a score of 13-6.

A large crowd of Parisian boosters were on hand to witness the Greyhounds opening home game of the season, but the Green and White snatched the lead from the Greyhounds at the end of the first half and went on to score a clincher touchdown in the last quarter to wrap up victory number two for the 1951 season.

Two Musketeer touchdowns and an extra point were nullified by penalties as the referees waved their handkerchiefs continuously throughout the contest. Carlisle was penalized a total of 75 yards with most of the infractions coming at crucial points of the game.

Leading ground gainer for the Musketeer attack was hard charging Kimball Booth. Carlisle's candidate for all-state honors, captain Gary Fleig, was the outstanding star defensively as he broke through the Greyhound defense twice to block punts, the last one in the Paris end zone which resulted in a touchdown for the Muskies.

Score Nullified

The first quarter proved uneventful with the exception of Benny Donovan's 60-yard jaunt for a touchdown which was nullified by an offside penalty.

The ball changed hands several times in the initial period with the Greyhounds having possession as the quarter ended with the ball at midfield.

In the second quarter Paris threw a five-yard penalty against Greyhound halfback, went 40 yards on a reverse play, to end up across the double stripes for the score. The try for the extra point failed.

Carlisle Scores

A 50-yard scoring march, climaxed by Pitman's quarterback sneak for a touchdown and Donovan's good extra point try, put the Muskies in the lead as the half ended.

After the Paris touchdown, Booth returned the kickoff 30 yards to the 50. Two tries by Booth registered a first down. Then Donovan added up another first down. Clark and Booth teamed up to gain another first and then Booth carried the ball on three successive plays to the Greyhound four. Donovan picked up two and Pitman was sent over from there on a quarterback sneak. Donovan added the PAT as the half ended.

The third quarter saw the Greyhounds move the ball to the Carlisle 15, where the Musketeers recovered a Paris bobble. The ball exchanged hands with neither side threatening with Pitman intercepting a Greyhound pass on the Carlisle 40 as the third period closed.

TD Called Back

Booth opened the final frame by galloping 40 yards for an apparent score. For the second time the play was recalled as the referees imposed a five-yard penalty against the home team.

The Greyhounds held for down after this and Donovan punted to the Paris 32. A 15 yard penalty against Paris coupled with a 7 yard loss on a reverse put the ball on the Greyhound 46.

Pitman Flora

Gary Flora then charged through to block a Greyhound punt in the end zone. Tackle "King-Kong" Kelly fell on the ball for the score. Carlisle's first try for the PAT was voided by another penalty. The second try failed.

Paris failed to threaten the rest of the game with Brooks Pitman intercepting a Greyhound desperation pass in the last seconds to insure the Musketeer victory.
