MAMIE E. GORE

Co. School Superintendent

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of County Superintendent of schools. An experience of eight years in the schools as a teacher and first grade certificate, in this and adjoining counties—mostly in the profession as a teacher—and the fact that I have studied the educational affairs of the county in a manner sufficient to be certified to entered in the good of the schools. I ask the support of all, feeling confident, that the educational interests of the county shall receive careful, painstaking and conscientious attention of which I am capable. HON. EVAN E. SETTLE, of Shelby, is a candidate for Congress in the Louisville District, subject to the U. P. Breckinridge.

PRESIDENT Cleveland kills the compromise bill by his objection, and now it is reported that a caucus agrees to the bill will be laid this week.

It is claimed that President Cleveland opposed the compromise tariff to select repeal bill. It looks once that's clear as good hate contempt for the minority.

THE Sinking Fund Commissioners have bought the short paid from the Mason-Forest county and refused to put the contracts to work. Governor Brown and his wife agreed.

IN the Frankfort Democratic primaries, Hon. L. J. Cox beat Albert G. Hodges, H. Hines for Representative by 11 majority, and Judge Lewis beat L. Mcgee for Mayor by 50 votes.

If the compromise bill, now being considered in the U. S. Senate, is passed, business will boom at once. A sound currency is all that is needed for a business confidence and good times.

JOHN G. HAAN has gone into Lewis County to make a canvass in behalf of the People's Party, but Hon. Thomas J. Halbert the Democratic nominee for Representative won't leave home to attend him and his party to grease a cow.

THE House of Representatives of the United States seems to be a little crazy, badly. Seeing that the Senate will give the country no relief, the House is apparent gathering a bankruptcy law. It will be useful.

THE Republicans of the Mason and Lewis Congressional district have nominated Hon. Samuel J. Pugh, of Lewis, for the State Senate. Capt. J. W. Hechinger, editor of Mason, is the Republican candidate for Representative.

DEAR COUSIN JO: "The people may not know what boy want, but they think they do." One of the greatest jobs you ever undertook in your dear life will be to convince the people of Kentucky that they are solid—Louisville Courier-Journal.

HON. C. B. BENNETT, of Mt. Sterling, has been appointed Assistant District Attorney for Oklahoma Territory. Mr. Bennett was formerly for many years in the Circuit District, of this city. He has many friends who will be pleased to hear of his appointment.

THE Campbell County Democratic convention assembled, unanimously adopted a resolution calling upon the Senators to stand by the President in his attempt to carry out the pledges of the platform on which he was elected. This is the sentiment of the Democratic party of Kentucky.

THE gold reserve in the National Treasury is now the largest in its history, the largest amount to which it has ever been reduced. A year ago it was $127,000,000. It is believed that the financial conditions will enter an increase in the gold reserve from this on. Even though the customs receipts and the postal service fund should fall off, the increase is bound to—Courier-Journal.

A MASS meeting of the Democrats of Jefferson county was held at Louisville Wednesday, for the purpose of formally calling on both Kentucky Senators to use all honorable means to secure the passage of a vote on the Repeal Bill. The meeting was addressed by Governor Brown, Senator—Telegraph.

And Senator Jo. Blackburn says to his wife and son that they can go to Europe and don't know what they want, He'll find out that they don't—Courier-Journal.

THREE members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union visited a saloon of the lonely houses in Chicago to see if what they had heard was true. They were shocked at what they saw. The great question now agitating these women is how to bring about a reform. We can tell them. Treat saloonists more exactly as they do saloon women, and while the evil will not be entirely cured, it will be scaled to a certain extent.

THE PRIMARY SETTLED.

The Democratic Committee met according to adjournment on Thursday and proceeded to declare the result as shown by the certificates returned by the officers of the election, and the same as officially announced stands as published last week; and in accordance therewith we place the ticket at the head of our column this week.

It can not be denied that there were some mistakes made by the officers of the election, but they were all of them character as warranted the disfranchisement of whole communities.

There was no charge of fraud, in fact the election was exceedingly free from fraud.

But there were a few illegal votes cast and we suppose there is no doubt but there was no means of proving he votes were cast. It was expected that there would naturally be some mistakes and errors made by the officers holding the first election under the new law, but the frauens from interested were wrong doing on the part of the election officers was remarkable.

MR. WATTERSON published a double headed editorial in the Courier Journal last Tuesday, in which he says that the Southern Senators for their refusal to vote for the repeal of the silver purchasing clause, in effort to redeem the pledges of the last Democratic platform. He says no doubt that many of them will be criticised will read the article in their own communities. It is a strong, manly and bright article about Mr. Watterson's self-sacrificing course in the present crisis.

THE Washington correspondent says that Senator Beck has signified his intention to vote for the repeal of the silver purchasing clause. Mr. Beck is one of the ablest men in the Senate and his opinion will have the power to influence many others. Mr. Beck is a Democrat and a member of the Finance Committee of the Senate.—Louisville Courier-Journal.
