THE MERCURY.

THURSDAY, APR. 19, ... 1894

E. S. KELLER, Editor

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

One year, in advance $1.50
Six months, in advance
Three months, in advance

ENTERED AT THE CARLISLE POSTOFFICE AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.

THURSDAY, APR. 19, ... 1894

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

County Judge—John W. Tilton.
County Clerk—John C. Quisenberry.
County Attorney—R. H. Stivers.
Sheriff—Jas. Hall.
Assessor—Jno. A. Gaunce.

MAGISTRATES:

District No. 1, W. F. Stivers.
" " 2, G. W. Brown.
" " 3, Joseph Wetzel.
" " 4, Jno. Hamilton.

CONSTABLES:

District No. 1, W. F. Stivers.
" " 2, Jno. Hamilton.
" " 3, J. Asher.
" " 4, Jno. Hamilton.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce Hon. E. S. Keller, of Hopkinsville, as a candidate for Congress, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

At the primary election in Robertson last Saturday Wm. T. Kenton was nominated for County Judge and Chas. H. Marshall for County Attorney.

COL. BRECKINRIDGE asked the people of his district to withhold judgment until he was heard in court. He has been heard; what now?

THE jury in the Pollard Breckinridge case awarded Miss Pollard a judgment for $25,000 damages. The friends of Col. Breckinridge blame the Judge of the court for the verdict.

POSTMASTER of the Second Kentucky Congressional district reappointed Hon. Henry F. Turley, of Henderson county, by Mr. Cleveland. The Hon. Thomas S. Pettit declined the honor.

THE Hon. Zebulon Vance, United States Senator from North Carolina, died at 11:20 o'clock Saturday night in Washington. He had been in feeble health for some time, yet his death came off was sudden and unexpected.

THE Democratic party of Nicholas is not responsible for the action of any individual. When any man becomes larger than his party, it is time to show him that the "largeness" exists only "in his mind."

COL. GEO. WASHINGTON, of Nicholas, was appointed Judge of the Court of Appeals, now in Carlisle Tuesday and Wednesday, vice Washington, has many warm friends in this county who would be pleased to help him in his new for the honorable position