Fall Millinery!

Ladies, don't think of attending the Fairs and Conventionings in your old Summer hats, when, of course, you should have something new. But go to Miss Lee's and select you a stylish hat from the largest Fall stock ever brought to Carlisle. You can't fail to be suited for she has every color and shape to suit any fancy.

Job work of all kinds done promptly at this office.

Personal.

Ed and Mrs. Johnson are at Harrodsburg, Ky.

Harry Hines and son went to Frankfort Tuesday.

Miss Cornelia Payne of Newport, is visiting Mrs. Dr. Nesbitt.

Mrs. Mary Lowe and wife spent Sunday with relatives at Mint.

Miss Maggie Louder is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hiram Kennedy.

A Landers, wife and children are visiting relatives in Fort Spring, W. Va.

Hansen Kennedy was on Cincinnati last week on professional business.

Jno. W. Fewling, of this office, has preached the first three days of the meeting, in the absence of the pastor, and will preach the last day.

Dr. Hall and wife and infant are visiting sermons preached during the meeting by Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of Mt. Olivet.

Rev. Geo. E. Mayer, of Cincinnati, and Rev. W. G. Miller, of Louisville, are assisting Rev. Hamilton in a meeting. They have splendid reputations as popular orators.

Dr. H. C. Marcum, of Atlanta, Ga., who preached the first three days of the meeting, is one of the most eloquent and forcible preachers that has attended the camp.

Several of the men who are interesting sermons preached during the meeting, have professed religion and will be baptized next Sunday. Some evil-disposed persons have been stealing from the camp.

The instrumental music is better than ever before. The choir is composed of good singers, and is up to the usual standard, however, it is a good deal overworked. Mrs. Dr. Nesbitt presides at the organ on that account. M. V. Holsley, chief musician, Miss Lizzie Hamilton, Miss Ida Rose, Miss Violette, Misses Callie and Lucy Hamilton, Miss Lizzie Hamilton, pianist and Miss Lizzie Hamilton, organist, are adding much to the pleasure of the meeting.

The following is a list of camp guarantors:
