Alben W. Barkley For U. S. Senate

A few years ago The Mercury had this to say about Alben W. Barkley and what was said then holds just as true today.

"Now Alben W. Barkley is a statesman. His record shows it; his campaign utterances prove it. The Mercury is not accustomed to indulge in eulogistic flights in the interest of a candidate because of the party label he wears. We have too much respect for our sense of humor. But this man has made good; the position he occupies today he has achieved by hard work and he will represent his Commonwealth ably in the Senate.

"Alben W. Barkley speaks to Kentuckians as one who loves his State and places her interests above all else.

"Whether we be Democrats or Republicans, above all else we are Kentuckians. Which of these men, (Barkley or John Sherman Cooper), think you, confronted with the choice of loyalty to President and Party or loyalty to all the people of Kentucky would choose to serve the latter?

We are confident that the people of Nicholas County will answer this question correctly next Tuesday with a substantial majority for Mr. Barkley and the Democratic ticket.

TV NOTEBOOK

By Gene Clinkenbeard

Are you a "Fast family"? Is the dinner hour becoming an event in your house as high fashion shows? Since the advent of television one legitimate complaint voiced by not a few parents is the fact that dinner time finds the family hading leaps up to the TV set to compare the business of eating with the latest chapter of a TV thriller.

Dinner time has long been something of an institution in the average family's everyday life and how it is preserved is, as we see it, pretty much up to the individual family.

Perhaps one easy solution for the problem family is to take a firm stand and designate a certain hour—say six to seven o'clock—as the dinner hour with no ifs, ands, or buts. Some parents manage to get away with having the set develop a mysterious ailment along about dinner time, although we imagine that it is rather difficult to hoodwink with regularity anything but the very young element.

As much as we love television, we like family life, too, and we don't think that one should be allowed to strangle the other.

And, inasmuch as everybody loves television, we don't think you should struggle along with imperfect reception. For your ailing set GENE'S TELEVISION is just what the Doctor ordered. Call 71-J and we'll come a'running with SERVICE that is TOPS from any angle!

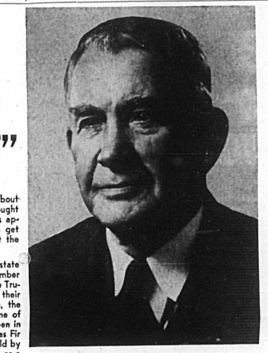
STOP "GIVE-AWAY GOVERNMENT"



During this election, you've heard a lot about "give-away government." Maybe you thought it was just a political label that Democrats applied to the Republican administration to get votes. If you did, you should know about the River Rouge National Forest in Oregon.

Since 1948, business interests outside the state have been trying to get control of the rich timber in this park. They had no success during the Truman administration, but when they renewed their efforts after the last presidential election, the Republicans smiled upon them. After some of the most devious political finagling ever seen in Washington, 454 acres of the finest Douglas Fir in the Northwest—worth $170,000—was sold by the administration for five dollars an acre—or a total price of $2,270!

This one particular "give-away" cost you and your fellow citizens $167,730 . . . and an irreplaceable slice of one of America's few "tall timber" National Parks. But more important even than the actual loss is the principle behind it. THE REPUBLICAN PARTY BELIEVES THAT AMERICA'S RESOURCES SHOULD BE USED FOR THE BENEFIT OF BIG BUSINESS INTERESTS!

Look down the record. Look carefully at the Dixon-Yates contract, awarded to a company outside the TVA area, without the formality of competitive bids! Look at the hatchet job the administration has done on soil conservation, rural electrification, federal aid to education and small business . . . no, there is no room for doubt: the party in power today runs the government for its friends!

You can put a stop to this "give-away government" NOW! Send Alben Barkley back to Washington, to lead the fight for representative government . . . and to pave the way for an honest Democratic administration in 1956!
