ANNOUNCEMENTS.

I am a candidate for sheriff, and will be subject to the action of the voters in the primary election.
WM. HALL.

We are authorized to announce Hon. Thos. H. Paynter a candidate for re-election to the office of Judge of the Court of Appeals.

The Yard Bill is a low one. The President did not sign it, however.

JUDGE PAYNTER, the Republican nominee for Judge of the Court of Appeals, is a Democrat.

HON. H. H. SPURLOCK, an able and polished Judge of the Court of Appeals, will be a candidate for re-election to succeed himself.

REPUBLICANS have declared that Kentucky be held at the Young Commercial on the 15th of September. A large meeting of paper they may be expected to be a good one.

HON. B. G. OSBORN will of course be on an active campaign in the Seventh District for the Republican Congressional nomination. He proposes to go over all over the district, and he will carry it.

HON. GEO. DENNY, Democratic candidate, will speak in the Court House, Tuesday, September 7th. This will be the first day of court and a good crowd will be present.

HON. JNO. D. WHITE has announced himself as a candidate for Congress. He has made his announcement in the Ashland District. It would be a good thing for the Kentucky Democratic party if every candidate for office would announce himself as an unqualified Democrat.

The Democrats of the 7th district in Pennsylvania are busy fighting charging Republican corruption in the last election. Democrats in glass houses should not throw stones.

We would like to ask our leading Democratic friends who are going to support Populist candidates who is at the bottom of the Democratic movement to defeat Democratic candidates. He has all his country money to spend in this campaign, and is making no secret of his desire to help the other fellow.

A SECRET is from Owensboro, Ky., August 24th: Dr. J. H. Clark, of Texas, of Rowan County, announces himself for Gov. Bradley's fatal paper, the Owensboro Inquirer. Dr. Wilson was elected to the Confederate Congress from the Populist party over the Democratic candidate, Col. Thos. Speed, of Bath.

Cassius M. Clay, Jr., has been appointed minister to Russia. President Cleveland seems to be right in his selection of men for office. Mr. Clay is a Democrat and has always been a true blue one. He is a man of ability and will make a good minister. He will be pretty near home, and in regard to the cause of the Czar of all the Russias, and of all the Russians, Democrats of the country.

Any Democrat that would desert the party now and vote for a Populist is a Republican. There is nothing to it. It certain thing that Keith, Bell, Hays and J. Pugh will represent the interests of the Democratic party and the Democratic cause will not be ill-represented. Democrats who want to do this will not, but they will think it over.

NEXT Saturday is the day for the Democratic Democrats in Kentucky to register between Hurstburne and Earle Dun. Nicholas Democrats can register in the field, Union, Upper Licks, and at the old Court House in Carlisle. Democrats are not up for registering the meeting a square. Let every Democrat prepare to register. Let every campaign in the South Kentucky is now in the field. Democrats, let us be up and doing. Take a hand in the work.

THE Democrats of Kentucky and Tennessee are a hopeful set of Democrats. There has not been a Democrat in either State that the Republican party have not charged with being a Democrat that they would be elected by the Democrats. Democrats are not to be blamed for this. They believe in the principles of Democracy, and are glad to have the support of any one who will help the cause along. These brothers are good just to have.

ED SPEARS THOS. B. HALL opposed to the Republican campaign in Kentucky. Saturday with a speech entitled "Democracy." Mr. Hall's speech was a strong and low country true, being an attempt to show that the Democratic party is responsible for all the ills that the country is heir to. It was a very able speech, and was well received by the audience.

"IN a minority as well as a majority with the people." In telegraphing the New York Democratic convention, so as to be sure to get it in the United States have been defeated, and the Democratic party has been defeated in the South. Southern men, for instance, will be interested to know that the Democratic party is in a majority, as stated by the telegraphic dispatch.—Courier-Journal.

Ask Mr. Will Mc.

There is a colored in the Ninth Congressional district for the nomination of Hon. Thos. H. Paynter, present Congressman from that district, and sooner or later it will be decided by Judge of the Court of Appeals. It is not our business to attempt to set our principles to meddle with the affairs of the Democratic party in any district, but if it is thought best to look at this matter from a standpoint of general politics. We know that the Democratic party in the Ninth district is no less in any other district in the state, but the work it should accomplish in keeping the party lines closely drawn. The conduct of the accepted leaders of the Democratic party has recently been calculated to inspire party confidence, and the Democrats of the Ninth district, as elsewhere, are entitled to know and reasoned established to encourage dissent or excite animosities, not now contingent which may be prejudicial to party success. For this reason we hope that Mr. Paynter will not consent to run for position until the logical necessities of the case require him to do so.—Frankfort Capital.

THE article of the New Zealand ballot system is attracting more attention in the recent trial Republican papers are slowly beginning to say that it is a good thing for the people. This, of course, is to be expected. The voting machine is the last abomination of protection left, everybody is now convinced of its pernicious effects. They have been a reporting large quantities of money to the people, and they are now reporting large quantities of information from other parts of the world to the people. Information is a dangerous thing for protection.

The Democrats of Texas and Green met in convention at Austin and nominated Hon. Charles A. Culberson for Governor by acclamation. Mr. Culberson is a Democrat of the old school, and will be elected. Now if the Democrats of Texas will nominate a Democrat for Lieutenant-Governor, the Democratic party is expected to be a good meeting.

HON. B. G. OSBORN will of course be on an active campaign in the Seventh District for the Republican Congressional nomination. He proposes to go over all over the district, and he will carry it.

We are glad to learn that Democrats have decided that wool and all other articles on the list will be free of duty from the first of the new year.

JOHN L. BECKET, of the Winchester Sun, has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans. He and his friends make Judge Bickett will now make the race for Congress.

Public Speaking.

HON. C. W. CRAFTON, of Owensville, will speak in the Court House, Tuesday, September 7th. This will be the first day of court and a good crowd will be present.
