Sen. H. Stanley Blake Files For Agriculture Commissioner

State Sen. H. Stanley Blake, of Carlisle, formally declared his candidacy Tuesday for Democratic nomination for state agriculture commissioner in the Aug. 6 primary.

Blake is the first candidate to file an official declaration for the post. His declaration papers were signed by George B. Long, Lyon county, Fayette County circuit clerk, and C. W. Swinford, Lexington, a member of the Fayette County Judge Mac Swinford, Cynthiana.

Agriculture Commissioner Boyd S. Adams, Hopkinsville, has announced his candidacy for Democratic nomination for the lieutenant governor. Lt. Gov. Emerson Beauchamp has said he was giving some thought to running for the Democratic nomination for agriculture commissioner.

He has served continuously since then and has two more years to serve in his present term. He does not have to resign for the significant post.

Blake sponsored the Senate bill passed by the 1954 legislature calling for a vote Nov. 8 on whether to amend the State Constitution to permit 18-year-olds to become voting age from 21 to 18 years.

Blake, who has served during his 18 years in the senate, has sponsored a soil conservation measure and sought increases in cigarette taxes in the 1954 General Assembly.

Conference Contest Won By Musketeers In Waning Seconds Of Over-Time Period

By W. E. Woodall

In a three minute over-time period, seven hits in eight attempts at the foul line eased the Carlisle Musketeers by the Midway Military Institute Cadets here Tuesday night in a Central Kentucky Conference game, 57-56. With four seconds remaining in the over-time period, Owen, M M I guard, fouled Larry Cameron, Carlisle guard, who dropped through the tying and winning points.

Aggressive Play

The contest was sparked during the first half by the agressive playing of Grimes and Fentsock. Minskie guards, who continually stole the ball from the Cadets giving the local team the opportunity to run up a 23-16 first period score and a ten point lead at half time, 34-24.

The third quarter almost proved fatal to the Musketeers. While Coach John Walton's crew were trying to find the pace which they had set during the first half, the Cadets dropped in 15 points to trail 40-39 at the stop, while the Carlisle team could only manage six for the period. The score was tied twice during the canto, 35-35 and 37-37.

Over-Time Period

As the contest moved into waning minutes of the fourth quarter, Sanders, M M I forward, tied the score 44-44, then each team matched points 48-48, and then 49-49. With one minute remaining, Willoughby hit a foul to give the Cadets the advantage, 50-49 but er fouled Vanlandingham who connected with one and sent the game into an over-time period.

Fouls Pay

Stanley hit a crip as the three minutes got underway, to move the Cadets ahead, 52-50. Cameron went to the free throw line; hit one missed one to puff the Musketeers within one point of the Cadets 52-51. Stark made a foul seconds later to increase the Militarymen's score, 53-51. Fentsock gave the game a new start as he tossed in two fouls and Suter moved the M.M.I. crew ahead again with a lead, 54-53. Layton fouled Wells who dropped through two and the Musketeers led 55-54. The lead changed again as Stark sunk a crip with the clock showing thirty seconds remaining. A foul was called against Owen with seconds to play and Cameron went to the foul line, dropping in two to give the Muskies the victory.

High Point Men

Feeback led the local team with 16 points, Cameron 6, Conley 6.

Carlisle: Vanlandingham 9, Wells 6, Gilley 12, Grimes 8, Feeback 16, Cameron 6, Conley 6.

M.M.I.: Suter 10, Willoughby 10, Stanley 8, Stark 21, Owen 5, Layson 4.

Tax Declaration Due By Feb. 15

Kentucky farmers have until February 15 to make a declaration of estimated 1954 state income taxes, if they wish to follow this method.

Department of Revenue officials pointed out that there are three possible methods for the farmer to pay his 1954 income tax. The first and easiest is simply to file his final return and pay his state tax by February 28. By using this method, the farmer is not required to file any declaration.

A second method open to the farmer is to declare his estimated 1954 income by February 15 and pay the estimated tax. He must then file a final return by April 15.

The third method is available if he filed a declaration last November 15. In this case, he has until April 15 to file his final return and pay the remainder of his tax.

Any person who earns at least two-thirds of his income from farming may use these methods of paying state income tax.

Forms for filing declarations and final returns are available at banks, county courthouses, and Department of Revenue offices in Frankfort, Ashland, Covington, Lexington, Louisville and Paducah.
