Senior Trip

At 12 p.m., Monday, May 2 twenty-nine Seniors and Miss Harney boarded a bus and headed for Lexington, where we met Mr. Finnell, Mr. Wesley and incidents of the senior classes from Midway High, Perryville High, and North Middletown. At 4:00 we left Lexington on the C & O Railway, accompanied by Mr. Stewart, Division Passenger Agent.

We arrived in Washington at 8:00 a.m., Tuesday. We immediately began the tour of Washington by a sightseeing bus, with the driver as the guide. First, we went through the National Capital, and from there to the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, where we watched the process of making paper money—the most fascinating thing here was a $100,000 bill. We drove by the Lincoln Memorial and Washington Memorial, but time was scarce and we didn't go inside of either. In the White House, we saw the Red Room, Blue Room, Green Room, and the Dining Room. At 12:00, we watched the changing of guards at Arlington National Cemetery. We had lunch at Hospites Restaurant in Arlington, Virginia. After lunch, we saw the Pan American Building. Here are flags of twenty-one Latin American countries. Past the night before, a party, in honor of John Foster Dulles was held there. The Smithsonian Institute was the next stop. Here we saw everything from a rock to an airplane. We had our picture taken in the Art Gallery.

At 5:00, we ate supper at a restaurant in Union Station and left for New York on the Pennsylvania.

We arrived in New York at 10:00 and went to our rooms in the Taft Hotel.

The next morning, after having breakfast in the Down-Under Restaurant, we went on a thirty-five mile cruise around Manhattan Island. Our guide, Phillip Shirtson, played in the movie, "Showboat". He was a swell guide and pointed out and explained to us many great buildings of New York.

Wednesday afternoon, we went to the top that's 102 stories—the Empire State Building, walked 22 stories to the crown of the statue of Liberty, went to the Bowery and Chinatown. That night was highlighted by going to Radio City Music Hall where we saw the movie, "The Glass Slipper," and a performance by the famous "Rockettes."

Thursday morning, after breakfast, several went to see the Gary Moore television show, while the remainder rode the subways and went shopping at Macy's Department Store, the largest in New York.

After lunch, we took a guided tour of Upper New York, the United Nations Building, and St. John's Cathedral. Many of us gave money to the funds for finishing the Cathedral.

We left New York at 5:30 on the "Pennsylvania." At 10:00 we changed trains and left Washington, heading for Kentucky. At 3:00, we arrived in Lexington, at on the school bus, and started for Carlisle.

We all spent a wonderful time in Washington and New York, but a lot of tired boys and girls, with sleepy eyes and blistered feet, were really glad to see good old Nicholas County.

Band Contest

Forty-five members of the band participated in the state contest held Friday, May 6, at the Memorial Coliseum. The parents of seven students accompanied them. Our band received superior rating. Judges were Mr. Hinshley, University of Illinois, Mr. Bone, Duke University, and Mr. Williams, Drake Conservatory.

A chapel program was held Wednesday, May 4. The band played several numbers, many announcements were made and scholarship awards for the Mid-Year Drive were given to Jimmy Sanders, Janie Mullen, Edgar Gaunce, Ester Redwine, and Tarver Maryland.

To date, the baseball team has won eight games and lost only one. They have defeated Carlisle (2 times), Montgomery (2 times), M.M.I. (2 times), Beaver, and Bourbon, while losing only to Fleming County.

The Seniors have begun practicing on the class night program. A play "Southern Kinsfo" will be given.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Man's true selfhood as a spiritual child of God is possessing all power on earth and in heaven, as Christ Jesus taught and exemplified, is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, May 15.

Among the passages to be read from the Lesson-Sermon will be: "Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God." (Matt. 5:8).

Another passage to be read is: "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: Edit will be the following: Immortal man was and is God's image and likeness. He is not material; he is a spiritual idea, and cannot be depraved, corrupted, or destroyed. Mind, and not matter, is the source and centre of man. Mind, not matter, is the seat of intelligence, and matter has neither sensation nor intelligence, but the man of the spirit is the man of the soul, God's child, perfect.

Spiritual objectives will shed the following from Psalms 133: 1: "Behold, the man that sanctifieth not the Sabbath, the righteous, not sinners, the holy, not the sinful, the seed of the scornful." For the Lord knoweth the ways of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish."

Punch-line to the year's hottest power story—

Chevrolet "Turbo-Fire V8"!

This is the engine that's writing a whole new chapter in the book of automobile performance records. This is the engine that has stock car timers doing a "double take" at their stopwatches wherever experts gather to compare the abilities of the 1955 cars.

For example, in the recent NASCAR stock car competition at Daytona Beach, Florida, Chevrolet literally ran away from every other car in the class—and a raft of others besides. In the one-mile straightaway run for low-priced cars, the first two places—and six of the first ten—went to Chevrolets. And in acceleration runs from a standing start against all comers, the Motorama Chevrolet beat all other low-priced cars—and every high-priced car except one!

What's behind this blazing performance? A compact honey of a V8 that only the world's leading producer of valve-in-head engines can build. Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8".

It pulls a new kind of fun in your driving life. You're in charge of 162 high-spirited horsepower—or if you're looking for even more excitement, the new "Super Turbo-Fire V8" (optional at extra cost) pulls 180 h.p. under your foot!

Pick the one you'd rather have fun with, then come in and get behind the wheel. You'll see why the Motorama Chevrolet is showing its form to everyone else on the road!

Owen County Farm Selected For Eden Shale Test-Demonstration Work Area

A 660-acre, Owen County farm is been selected as the site of the University of Kentucky test-demonstration work in the Eden Shale area of the state.

The farm will be used by the U. K. Agricultural Experiment Station for conducting research on farming problems peculiar to the area. At the same time it will finish a demonstration of successful farm practices.

The farm is located about four miles north of Owenton, between Owenton and Dry Ridge, on U. S. Highway 22. It was selected from 13 others in the 32-county Eden Shale area, generally known as the "Hills of the Bluegrass." Selection was made by a citizens' committee working with representatives of the U. K. College of Agriculture and Home Economics. The U. K. Board of Trustees today approved purchase of the farm.

The purchase price, $45,000, was raised in a recent fund drive by farmers and others interested in agricultural research in the area. Keppie Roland, Owen County, is the present owner of the farm.

O. D. Hawkins, Owenton, chairman of the citizens' committee for raising funds for the purchase of and selecting the farm, stated that the Owen County farm was chosen from the other farms nominated because its soils and slopes were most representative of the area. It is accessible to farm groups, and it is located near the geographic center of the area.

Dr. Frank J. Welch, director of the University of Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station and dean of the U. K. College of Agriculture and Home Economics, stated that the farm will be used to discover and try out ways of establishing good stands of meadows and pastures on steep land without undue erosion, to test the usefulness and adaptability of different kinds of legumes and grasses, and to find ways of improving and maintaining pastures through fertilization, rotation and management of grazing. Along with these tests Director Welch said that there will be work on utilization of pasture by grazing animals, on tobacco, grains, fruits and vegetables, and with other problems which have retarded the agricultural progress of the region.

Others who served with Hawkins on the citizens' committee to select the farm were Herman McClanahan, Harrison County; Adam Kalb, Bracken; Frank G. Marquette, Pendleton; Paul Carrico, Carroll; John E. Crigler, Boone; Omer C. Burns, Robertson; H. W. Bertram, Campbell, and J. D. Brown, Spencer County.

Representing the University of Kentucky were Dr. W. P. Garrigus, head, Animal Husbandry Section; E. C. Scheidenhelm, field agent in dairying; Kermit C. Mills, field agent in agricultural engineering; P. E. Karraker, professor of soils; Dr. Gilbert T. Webster, head, agronomy department; Dr. E. N. Fergus, agronomist in charge of pastures and forage crop investigations; Dr. George B. Byers, agricultural economist; N. R. Elliott, professor of horticulture, and Harold F. Link, assistant state agent in county agent work.

Funeral services for Frank "Dude" Snelling will be at 2 p.m. Friday at Bethel cemetery.
