Special Announcement

DEAR FRIENDS:

In all our experience of exhibiting pictures in this community, I have never before, personally, recommended a picture to you as a "must-see" picture. Now one has come along that I do urge you to see by all means. That picture is "COUNTRY PARSON."

If you thrilled to "Stars In My Crown," and "I'd Climb The Highest Mountain," then you are sure to appreciate this wonderful film. Therefore, I urge you again, to be sure and see "COUNTRY PARSON."

Sincerely yours,
Earl Urmston

THE SMITHS ARE COMING BACK

. . . Mrs. Gladys Smith

. . . J. B. Smith

They will meet and greet you at the Christian church Monday, Oct. 3. They will be singing every night, Oct. 3-16. Gladys will give many of her famous "Bible Readings." They will be meeting the children every afternoon.

This is the third time they have been in Carlisle. The Christian church extends a cordial invitation to the entire community to help welcome them back to Carlisle. Come the first night.

Dr. Virgil W. Wallace, of Berwick, Pa., will be the Evangelist. Dr. Wallace has held meetings in 45 states. He is famous as a preacher of the word. His sermons are plain expositions of the Scriptures.

He is popular and honored in his home town where he is a member of the Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A., President of the Historical Society, member of the Chamber of Commerce and chairman of its Educational Committee, Chairman of the United Church Fellowship, Chairman of the Forum on International Relations of the Rotary Club, and member of the Community Chest Board.

The Christian Church is bringing this devoted Preacher to Carlisle in the confident hope that he will make a spiritual contribution to the entire community. We invite your attendance, we covet your prayers, we desire your fellowship.
