THE President Capitol makes the suggestion that Hon. R. R. Hart may be a candidate for Mr. Paynter's expired term in Congress.

It is said at Washington that Mr. Frenchard will this week sign an order affixing the names, stamps, and gauges in the classified service.

Gov. Brown, of Kentucky, and Gov. Culberson, of Missouri, held a meeting in Louisville last week. We hope they did not disclose the late election.

WHEN the Republicans get through with the Democrats they will not know how the Democrats got beaten, but they settled the tariff question.

IN NEW York the law requires that a candidate shall make oath to the amount expended in his canvass. Gov. Morton spent $77 for the privilege of majority.

THE Ex-of Republican papers have been writing to fill the post master's vacancy at Bucknell, but a recent post master has been appointed and the office filled.

MR. CHAS. D. BOYD, late clerk of the Pending Courts, is spoken of as Deputy County Clerk of Montgomery under G. L. Reynolds, the Democrat who won of the late election.

ALBERT G. THOMAS, of Philadelphia, has been appointed by Governor Pattison Commissioner of Deeds for Cuba.

THAT notorious Democratic organ, the Harrisburg Patriot, has changed hands, and is now run by Democrats. Hurrah! Republicans can now get the truth from the Patriot. Hooray! Democrats!

IT HAS been estimated that the Cost of Liquor, daily consumed in the United States, would pay the entire cost of the Home Steamer.

Yes, and one might have more left over.

IT IS not the policy of a wise man to waste his money. Many people do not realize how much money they waste by not using gilt edge ink, manufactured by the Independent Ink Co., Philadelphia. Others prefer to use other ones. Some of the Democratic Papers.

THE New York Sun and Herald, and Secretary Carlisle are to be the Democratic Board of Education for the District of Columbia. Adlai Stevenson, who has just been appointed Second Assistant Postmaster General, is a member of the Board of Education of Illinois. He is a plumber of 19 years of age. Secretary Carlisle has appointed the famous Matthew Arnold, having all of Jackson's well known qualities, both in the Civil and Military life, to be Minister to England. Of course Arnold will be a credit to the Democratic party, but he will be a credit to the Democratic party, but he will be a credit to the Democratic party, but he
