BOSS CROX COUNTY did not entirely escape the cyclone. The Republican majorities were nicely cut down but Democrats are elected to any office in the county.

THE Court of Appeals, in the last case sent up from Louisville, upholds the validity of the law requiring druggists to take out State license for selling whisky.

MRS. CYRUS DUFF BULLITT says that she is now sorry she withdrew her suit for divorce. So are we. We had hoped that this old "sore toe" item would drop out of the papers.

WHILE James B. McCreary goes back to Congress to draw his $5,000 a year and dollars per year, he will be Governor-Commissioner in selling his late opponent's (Mr. Robertson's) insurance agency.

WILTON TRIG. M. SHARP, of Hardin County, who is a full-fledged candidate for Representative from this and Hardin counties, put in this city recently "feeling the political pulse of his constituency."

THE COURT OF Appeals by its decision has declared that the Meyerville and Lexington, Maysville and Mt. Sterling, "do have a legal right to charge for" — now being collected.

JAMES A. LONG is going to erect a pure white marble monument to the memory of his father, the late Judge Geo. Wallis Long, Ky. Gov. Hall, Gilbert Glenn, Lieutenant-Governor Reed Wiggins, Dennis Kearney, Gen. Tillman, et als., to waste it for; [illegible] Journal.

The latest estimate of the political division of the next House, prepared by the Republican Congressional Committee, makes 183 Republicans, 165 Democrats and one Populist. Twenty States elected solid Republican delegations, while six elected solid Democratic delegations.

THE is a good day to do some good deed. Let's see: Shall it be a subscription to a newspaper, a dollar hedge, or a box of some one's friends? Forget any little spite you may have in your heart. Determine to forgive some one that has wronged you. Thank God with your acts. He understands sign language. He can even hear subscription slips.

GEN. BASIL DUKE, authored the letters on "Morgan and His Men" for a number of years in the Courier-Journal. Gen. Duke will with no means forget the handful of Confederates who died Gen. Gordon, Gen. B. Woodford, R. D. Ingersoll and other prominent athletes. The Opera House of Paris [illegible] Gen. Duke's "Morgan and His Men."

THE Louisville Commercial has been a trifle slow in getting out a trained dog to act as a Democratic organ. And yet those kicking for it are almost blackberries and raisins.

THE Bank of the new Republican Congressman from Kentucky, Hon. W. C. P. Breckinridge, has a capital stock of $150,000, most of them being of a gentleman who makes the interest less than 2 per cent. Still, a quite respectable log of the United States Treasury. Mr. Breckinridge will have no trouble in getting offices to take the entire issue at 117 cents on the dollar, and will be ready to vote for a dozen of other bids. There were 295 bids received. The denominations were from one cent to $1,000. Many of the bidders were better than in these Democratic times with appointments to Federal offices.

THE CHICAGO HERALD knows a good thing when it sees them. It appears to be a little slow in getting to the paper, but that is better than not getting it until to-day. Our friends are perfectly welcome to the information that the Democratic party has been "relegated to the rear" — Hubbard Democratic Journal.

We copied several articles which we gave you credit, but the fact is that we found so many other good things in your paper that we failed to do so. We gladly hand it credit for our co-relegation to the rear. Democratic Journal.

THERE is some disposition to hold Hon. John B. Carnell and the mean Republicans responsible for the cyclone in the result of the late election in Kentucky. Mr. Carnell had no more to do with the result of the late election than Hon. Thomas Jefferson. He was only a private citizen attending to his own business. Now he is being made the scape-goat by the Franklin County Court House ring, which has its office with the county court which gave into office with the Democratic majority of 1,200 votes. Mr. Carnell, I suppose is responsible for the fact that the Democratic majority was reduced to 200 votes. Mr. Carnell is responsible for the fact that Democrats failed to vote, and for the fact that Democrats failed to register
