ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce JOHN S. HART as the Democratic candidate for County Judge. Your support solicited.

Public Speaking.

Hon. G. R. Keller and Hon. H. Feltner will speak at Blue Lick Springs, Saturday afternoon, Oct. 15th, 1904, at 2 o'clock. The people of this precinct are requested to listen and not interrupt the speaking.

Hayden Kennedy and Jno. I. Williamson will speak at Moorefield on Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

G. R. Keller and John F. Magan will speak at the Ellisville school house to-night, (Thursday) and at the Diamond School house, Tuesday night, Oct. 18th, 1904.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

Hon. W. P. Kimball, of Lexington, will address the Democrats of Nicholas at the Court House in Carlisle, WEDNESDAY NIGHT, OCT. 26, '04, AT 7:30 o'clock. Everybody invited to hear Mr. Kimball, who is one of the most eloquent speakers in Kentucky.

Hons. John B. Clark and Hayden Kennedy spoke at Mt. Olivet Monday.

Mon. C. M. Clay, Jr., was taken quite ill at Sulpyrville last week. He was there to speak in behalf of the Democratic party.

Ten coal miners in Eastern Kentucky, after months of idleness, have returned to work. Prosperity is with every where is that business is supporting.

Hayden Kennedy and G. R. Keller spoke at Four Corners Tuesday night. The good people were kind enough to loader us the use of the Christian Church.

In an interview at Lexington Friday, Senator Joe Blackburn declared that he does not need help and that he will carry the district by a majority of over Denny easy.

Ten Columbians had dollars, which did not prove the bonanza the expectation authorities had figured on, were issued at their face value in exchange for gold. There are over 7,000,000 in the Treasury.

The friends of Mr. Bruce Ingles, of Oakland Mills, are using his name in connection with the office of Representative next year, and will at the proper time press his claims for the place. He is a good man.

The Mason County Democrats are getting a move on and a number of rallies have been formed in every precinct in the county, and the speakers are at work. We look to Mason for a good report on the 25th of November.

Hon. T. H. Paynter, though running without opposition in Madison, is not fast for the party in his end of the district—Dem. Exchange. Of course not. The Republicans made a mistake when they thought Mr. Paynter was afraid of the fight by giving him no opposition.

None of our exchanges continue to speak of the Cleveland-Taft Cabinet Constitution and the Statute now do against the Board of Equalization Commissioners in charge of county affairs as "The Fiscal Court," and we hope everybody will recognize the change.

Clothing notice was a change now. Woods quite as pretty as in the make sleep sweet as they lose on their sleeps. A good deal of pretty leaf lay and will where they please till will be found in the woods. Persimmons and lower of personal freedom ought to be a Democrat.

Talk about dissatisfaction in the Democratic ranks! Why, everybody knows what a row and rumpus the Republicans of Kentucky and the Fayette are having. The Rule County Democrat thinks that there is more talk stirred up party in that county, and that "there is a fuss."

Gov. Beckham says: there is no truth in the report now going on in circulation that he will not be a candidate for election. He does not propose by any action to urge that the Democratic State Convention nominate him for a second candidate. Gov. Beckham has already declared himself in favor of this plan, and if some probable that it will be adopted, unless opposed and defeated by the candidate who knew and yet committed himself.

On our fourth page to-day will be found the speech delivered by Hon. W. J. Bryan, at Frankfort, Saturday, as well as the speech delivered by Hon. W. C. Wilson in London. No man's lips have said and written about this race speech that we are pleased to handle to buy it before our readers. It contains nothing that any Democrat should be ashamed of. It stands for the policy of this country to fail and not quarrel with the tariff question. It stands for the policy of the United States produces more than it can consume, and for enlarged and cheaper markets for the surplus. And both of these speeches.

Fire Turnpike Bonds.

In publishing the proceedings of the Fiscal Court of Fayette County, the Lexington Leader contains the following:

"The question of free turnpikes was then taken up and it was agreed to urge the State Legislature to authorize the sale of the State's interest in the pikes to the respective counties through which they run.

There is not county in the State better fitted for the beginning of the work, and in buying the turnpikes from Fayette and we hope to see her push the good work. It may not come this year or next, or it may not be a reality for a dozen years, but free roads must come as one of the natural results of advancement. We want it here, we know not when, but by some means of some time the roads will be free. No one will be robbed, no one will be outraged, but the people will be benefited. Every one may go pulling on an old load and all the old croakers will stand around and wonder why the way and the money had not been thought of fifty years ago."

"Tell Jackson Hustler says: 'The taxpayers of Kentucky could boost their property values 100 per cent by paying enough interest for county. Not caused afford to work for the county. Democrats are willing to do it, but they can't afford to vote. And so the claims have to be discounted at 15 per cent. Many persons claim that this must be added to bring him out square. Others say that it should be 20 per cent. So many cards pop with which to pay their county expenses that the county treasurer has to be paid in cash before he can hand it to the creditor. According to this system we are just one year behind. The claims we issued this year should be paid out of the taxes of 1905. But we are not borrowing to the people and paying it back to county claimants."

The Democratic party has proved that it has waged war against high taxation, and against the profligate waste of legislation. All that time John H. Blair was the most able and most uncompromising Republican in Nebraska. He was elected to the United States Senate by the Republicans of that State, and from the unanimous National Republican Convention John H. Blair. He never tired of working for the Republican party while it was engaged in the business of demonetizing silver. He never wearied in following against the Democratic party while it was making an effort to reduce the tariff taxes. And the Democrat who now follows him in his present course will be found out in the dark while the Republican candidate for Congress stands in the office.
