Lancaster Regenerator

A dispatch from Lancaster March 31 says: Mrs. Mary Ann Bailey, a widow of Robert Bailey, died at her home in this city this morning after a week's illness, aged 70 years. The funeral will occur from the residence at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The services are being conducted under the auspices of Rev. E. W. Hill, pastor of the Methodist church of which deceased was a member. Rev. Hill is a Methodist preacher, but not in the close communion with the Methodist church. The chief traits of the deceased's character were her charity and her willingness to help the needy without any interpolation. They do not know of a single act of her life that was unjust, revised, and go back to Wesley for their belief and interpretation. There have been about 25 conversions in the nightly meeting that has been held at church, with a few from the Presbyterian church. Among the converts are those who have made these confessions of faith in Christ and have had baptismal privileges of membership.

The conversion of the town have caused the deepest interest in the community, but spoke in the business of a sound thinker, and his address will be a student of political economy, and statesman.
