Tax ex-Federal and ex-Confederate soldiers of this county and the adjoining counties Decoration Day in Richmond. Arrangements are being made and plans from the committee in charge. Let it be remembered by all, and let it be a non sign that the present and hatreds engendered by the war are fast being forgotten.

For State Treasurer.

The friends of Walter L. Rendell, of Morgan county, have decided to present his name to the Democratic State Convention as a candidate for State Treasurer. Mr. Rendell is a successful business man and one of the most successful business men in Eastern Kentucky. He has for years successfully managed one of the largest stock and retail mercantile establishments in his section, beside carrying on an extensive timber business, and has always been trusted in connection with the important enterprises of his section. He is a man of the clean type. He is well known and will be earnest and active in his canvass if he becomes the candidate.

In declining a re-election to the office by business pressure of his private affairs, Auditor-elect Norman has given us a letter stating in the strongest and clearest terms his position on the questions of sound money, and expressing the hope that there will be a prompt and aggressive effort to demonstrate among the people the value of the "financial ideas" those who support for the financial question will be answered every where clearer, are somewhat as to the

In this utterly unexpected action of Mr. Norman, we look upon it as a most unfortunate thing for the party. Mr. Norman is a young man of the highest character and ability, and may be his ambition to be a public servant, and his services in the interest of the safe character and stable value of the currency will be appreciated by all.

Mr. Norman's wife the mistress of Democratic principles, and his declination is drawn between the lines of sole and money and those of silver monometallism."—See full letter on its page.

To The Republic of Kentucky.

You are requested to meet in your several counties in time connection at the call of your county committee, and select delegates to represent you in the State Convention to be held in the city of Louisville, on Wednesday, April 20, 1892, which will be held at the hour of 10 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices, viz: Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Treasurer, Auditor of Public Accounts, Register of the Land Office, Attorney-General, Secretary of State, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics, and for such other business as may properly come before the convention.

Each county will be entitled to as many delegates at large and one additional delegate for each one hundred votes or fraction thereof cast for Purdy's Free Election in the election of 1891.

In view of the unsettled condition of affairs in both State and nation, it is urged by the friends of the movement that the selection of delegates be made with the utmost care, and that only such persons be selected as are known to be honest and true to the principles of the party, and who will be willing to support the nominees of the convention, whether they be for or against their personal preferences.

By order of the State Executive Committee.
