This Ohio Democratic dedicated to the "second money," Cleveland Leader says of it:

"When brought to the top he was immediately clubbed and pounded until it was some time before he regained consciousness. He made a very narrow escape."

We have not heard of a much Democrat being suppressed at Mr. Lyles last Saturday. The fact is that nobody else was told the people.

THE Carlisle Republicans did the handsome thing by their visiting guests in so taking them to the Blue Lick Springs. That's the way to do things.

JOHN T. HINTON has been elected the Democratic nominee for Representative from Bourbon, Harrison and Nicholas. Friends in Bourbon will do their duty in November and elect him.

GEN. P. W. HARDIN, in his Louisville speech, stated that he stood squarely on the Democratic platform of 1892, and called upon all good Democrats to rally to the support of the entire ticket.

Hon. W. O. BRADLEY refuses to attend the Democratic Camp Meeting but it is to be his trouble. The Republicans are boasting that Col. B.'s absence would give General Hardin trouble. It always will, can we?

FULLY 5,000 people attended the Democratic rally at Lyles Park, Louisville, and Louisville may well be proud of the wide Democratic impetus which has started from that city. It will be felt all over the state.

ALL who read Mr. Bradley-Kendall's speech will be stunned by its force and frank stand, and with the people it has its usual effect. It is being read through out the state and commented by the Leader.

THE Republicans of Nicholas and Robertson nominated Mr. W. S. Dickey for Representative. He is a good man and will be elected if there is any justice in the ballot. Mr. Kendrick is a popular Democrat and will receive the support of his party.

THE Louisville Post takes the Democratic platform of 1892 and 1895 to Kentucky. We have heard of no desire to draw from the one to the other. We have not heard of any Democrat withdrawing.

THE Republican speakers at Mr. Lyles Notice that Kentucky is a Democratic state. They have not yet heard of the Republican victory. Democratic power, who would lastly bring home the bacon? Democracy is the issue. It is not a haggard, and of the one the Republicans have to fear. Democrats to rank, let it be.

CONGRESSMAN MCCREARY will be renominated by acclamation. He is entitled to it. His record is clear, his services are rapidly falling into the hands of the people, and his record is one of great turn out and work in the interest of the people. He has been a faithful, honest and faithful servant of the people, and deserves all he will get at the polls.

HON. H. C. HANSBROUGH announced his candidacy for Railroad Commissioner before the Democratic Convention. He is a popular man
