COMMENT

The election will soon be over, so no matter what the outcome here are some suggestions to follow if you want to enjoy this beautiful autumn.

Ignore all political statements until after Christmas.

Don't divide the candidates into heroes and villains. Chances are there's a little of both in all of them.

Don't argue politics with your best friend if you can help it. If you can't say at the end of each point: "There may be something in what you say." This doesn't commit you.

Try listening for a change. It's surprising what you pick up.

By this time week after next it will be all over and remember if you didn't vote just keep quiet.
