THE Louisville Critic announces Col. Dick Knott, of the Louisville Post, as a probable candidate for commissioner of agriculture.

THE long standing difference in the ranks of the Knights of Labor are likewise a serious break in the order.

NEW YORK has a full Republican outfit of State officials, and the law is called out the militia to keep the striking street car men from destroying the street cars. The claim that the Republicans were making work to create employment is now exploded.

The Guide has taken the pains to publish the names of the correspondents about the different precincts, and the amount of work each one has done. Such information that is true and reliable is a benefit to the people. The Guide's statement is a credit to
