C.H.S. News

by Judy Galbraith

Everybody was really thrilled over the Musketeers slaughtering Georgetown Friday night by a huge score of 33 to 7. A big following cheered them on. Congratulations Boys.

Let's all come out Friday night to the Homecoming Game where the Muskies will meet the Cynthiana Bulldogs. There we can cheer the Muskies on to victory.

I think my column will consist of Homecoming news this week, so to continue. The classes and different clubs will decorate some of the store windows for Friday night. Prizes will be awarded.

The student council met Monday, Oct. 14 and discussed plans for decorating the field for Homecoming.

As everyone knows a queen and two attendents will be chosen and presented at half time Friday night.

Individual class pictures were taken Monday. Everyone was dressed up, and really looked nice.

Until next week, be good, and here's hoping I see you at the game.

Purdue engineers say that a 14.5 gauge fence with 78 ounce of zinc coating per square foot was not completely rusty after 20 years of use but that the same gauge uncoated wire was rusty in one year. Small coating percentages were less effective than the 78 ounce figure.

Daylight raid near Buzzard Roost nets officers six gallons of moonshine, beer and one arrest

A daylight raid led by Trooper E. J. Kirk, accompanied by Roger Crouch, State Alcoholic Beverage Control Agent and Nicholas County Sheriffs J. Milton Fryman and Maurice Cameron, resulted in the arrest of Charles Sanford Watkins Monday on charges of possessing illegal whiskey.

The search of Watkins home on Cassidy Creek near Buzzard Roost took place about 11:45 a.m. according to Sheriff Fryman, who stated that he found the moonshine in a tobacco patch about 290 feet from the house. A search of the house netted officers a little over two cases of beer.

The whiskey was concealed by tobacco suckers and two gallons was covered over by a gunny sack. In addition it was revealed Tuesday that some two gallons were supposedly missed in the same patch by searching officers, although they searched a wide area, Fryman said.

Watkins was taken to Lexington Monday where he was turned over to Federal authorities.

Muskies beat Bulldogs 40-7

by Sterling (Butch) Saunders

The Carlisle Muskeeters beat the Cynthiana Bulldogs to make a perfect homecoming Friday. Most of the Carlisle fans were surprised at the way Carlisle ripped through the powerful looking Cynthiana team. It seemed as if the Muskeeters practiced on the Bulldogs at will.

Carlisle took the kick-off and returned it to their own 35 yard line to start the game. On the third play of the game S. Wilson broke loose and rambled to the Bulldog 25 before he was finally stopped. The Henry-Straw passing combination went into action to give the Muskies there second 1st down of the game on the 13. On the next play Hawkins fought his way to the 1 yard line before he was finally hauled down. At this point things slowed down as Cynthiana stiffened to hold the Muskies for two plays. On the 3rd down play, McGuffy slashed his way into the end zone for the T.D. with Hawkins tacking on the extra point. This put the score at 7-0 Carlisle. The Bulldogs returned the kick to their own 34. A 3rd down pass play carried to their own 47 and a 1st down. They ground-out another 1st down on the Muskeeter 33. Then on the 2nd down of this series of plays Barnett caught a pass and fell into the end zone as Wilson tackled him. Ewall kicked a beautiful extra point to put the score at 7-7. Carlisle returned the kick to their 42. Hawkins moved the ball down to the Bulldog 45 for a 1st down. Then McGuffy was wide around end to the 25. Hawkins was not to be out done as he took a pitch out from Henry, got a couple of good blocks, did some nice running, and added another 6 points on the score. The extra point was no good. With the try for the extra point the 1st quarter ended. The score was 13-7 in favor of Carlisle.

The Bulldogs returned the kick to their 17 yard line. Disaster struck them in the form of a fumble which Carlisle recovered on the 20 yard line. On the next play McGuffy found his blocks and went into the end zone for another touchdown. The extra point was no good, however the score now read at 19-7. Cynthiana returned the kick to the 17. They made a 1st down on their own 30, but failed to pick up any more yardage. The Musketeers line charged the Bulldog punter, forcing him to angle a burried kick which went out of bounds on the Cynthiana 33 yard line. On the 1st play in this series Hawkins went into the end zone but it was called back because of a penalty. This didn't discourage Carlisle, though, because they moved the ball to the 21 for a 1st down. A beautiful run by S. Wilson put 7 more points on the score for Carlisle. It now stood at 26-7. Carlisle. The Bulldogs returned the kick to the 24. Then they made a 1st down on their own 36. The Bulldog drive stopped abruptly as Ronnie Wilson intercepted a pass and brought it back to the Cynthiana 36. The Bulldogs regained possession of the ball as they recovered a Carlisle fumble on the next play. A long run gave them a 1st down on the Carlisle 36. Once again the Musketeers proved they were alert as Kelley Kennett snatched a Cynthiana pass and raced 64 yards for a touchdown. After S. Wilson added the extra point Carlisle led by a score of 33-7. The half ended with Cynthiana putting the ball in play on their own 43. The half time score stood at, Carlisle 33-Cynthiana 7.

Cynthiana returned the ball to the 38 to start the second half. They promptly moved to the Carlisle 49 for a 1st down. The Musketeer line tightened and forced the Bulldogs to kick. McGuffy returned the ball to the Cynthiana 48 before he was

Beware Of Salesmen

Once again the County Attorney's Office is suggesting to the good people of this county to beware of salesman going through this county without having the specific endorsement of some local organization because we are getting complaints of people who have been "slickered" by some high pressure suppersing salesman who won't take no for an answer.

It is practically impossible to find many of these people who dislike money from our local people after they have once departed and we urge all of you not to buy magazines, barn painting jobs, chimney fixing jobs, and one thousand and one other deals which these super-salesmen try to sell unless you know who you are dealing with or they have the approval of some local organization or person known to you.

Polio protection is urged here

Nicholas Countians under 20 years of age and expectant mothers are being urged to get protection from polio before November 1, according to B. F. Reynolds, M.D., Health Officer for Nicholas County.

Nicholas County has on hand its final supply of vaccine which was provided free of charge by the Federal Government for distribution to the groups most susceptible to polio—children under 20 and pregnant women.

The Nicholas County Medical Society is asking physicians in this community to obtain the vaccine from the health department for their eligible patients and dispense it before the expiration date, which is November 1.

"Expiration" means that the vaccine manufacturer guarantees the potency of the vaccine only until a certain date.

Three injections are needed for maximum protection. The remaining vaccine may be used for first or second shots or to complete a series begun previously. One shot does give some protection against the disease, according to National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis findings; therefore, persons are advised to begin a series even though it cannot be finished before November 1. It can be finished later with commercially-purchased vaccine.

Persons who have a question about whether or not they are eligible should call their family physician or health dept.
