We are authorized to announce HON. JAMES B. BENNETT, as a candidate for Governor, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

HON. W. T. THOMAS, a Republican, has been nominated for the Legislature in Wyoming county. He is a son of Judge Woodford Cowley, Hon. John and Hon. Rhodes, a son-in-law of John C. Breckinridge, has announced in the interest of Senator Blackburn.

THE Republicans, who in their hearts know there is not real money for them to carry Kentucky this or any other year, are already concerning about how they'll be "counted out" by Democratic election officers. They've piled the ballot act so matter what you result.—[Frankfort Argus.

THE Republicans met Monday and filled some vacancies in the list of committees and elected H. H. Hall, Treasurer, and Neal Thompson, Secretary. They also decided to have a barbecue at Blue Lick Springs on 3rd of August, at which time they will nominate a candidate for Governor.

MAJOR E. D. MCMATH, of Franklin county, is being urged by his friends for the position of Attorney General under Gen. Hardin. Maj. Mc is actively engaged in the Hardin Guards, is an enthusiastic politician and would make a good man for the office. Gen. Hardin could make a more satisfactory choice.

THE State Central Committee was next to-morrow and will meet for the opening of the campaign. The Democratic committee met last week and Monday agreed that the customary question about the Australian ballot law, and should be left to the county committees to decide for themselves. Democratic committees will be selected by the Democratic State Committee, who fixed their way as follows: Chairman, Hon. Jas. B. Kaufman; Secretary, Hon. Thos. H. Hays; Treasurer, Hon. Jno. Bohon and Hon. Jno. Bohon, Jr., of the Bohon and National Banks. The general of the fine and authorized meeting of August 10 to 31.

FORMER WALTER HARDIN was next to-morrow and will meet for the opening of the campaign. The Democratic committee met last week and Monday agreed that the customary question about the Australian ballot law, and should be left to the county committees to decide for themselves. Democratic committees will be selected by the Democratic State Committee, who fixed their way as follows: Chairman, Hon. Jas. B. Kaufman; Secretary, Hon. Thos. H. Hays; Treasurer, Hon. Jno. Bohon and Hon. Jno. Bohon, Jr., of the Bohon and National Banks. The general of the fine and authorized meeting of August 10 to 31.

THE DIFFERENCE.—When the Republican State Convention met in Louisville the Courier Journal was inhospitable in the extreme and said again that it was hated it had gone over to the enemy. When the Democrats met in the same city the Commercial was so cordial that it declared that they were almost good enough to be Republicans.

MR. JAMES GILLESPIE has announced himself a candidate for the democratic nomination for Superintendent from the counties of Bourbon, Nicholas. Mr. Gillespie was born in Bourbon county and has lived there all his life. He is a man of fine education and thus is entitled to notice in the political field. He and his family have been faithful Democrats, and he comes into the fight with strong backing. He announces in his card published elsewhere that he will run for Hon. Jno. S. Chambers to [illegible].

MR. JOHN G. BLAIR, who will represent Nicholas county in the Legislature is their candidate for U. S. Senator, is one of our most prominent, honest, conscientious statesmen. He is thoroughly in earnest in the business he undertakes and will make a strong fight for his party. The Democracy of KENTUCKY will give its undivided support to Mr. Blair and his colleagues.

QUITE a number of people who have no idea of voting for Democratic tickets are writing Democrats that the action of the Democratic State Central Committee in asking Senator Blackburn, Gen. Buckner, Gov. McCreary and other speakers to make a few campaigning until after a plan of campaign is agreed upon by the committee, is a move in favor of Republicanism, and the gentlemen who have been "called down" understand the motive and the intention of the Democratic committee. One line to make such a canvass of Kentucky as was never made before, and in order to carry out this intention it is necessary to lay out a plan of procedure. No army, or any other organization, can make a successful contest without order and system. The Democrats are going out to win and no mistake will do better work than J. C. S. Blackburn. He will be here on Saturday, Aug. 3rd, and will address our people at length. Keep the date in mind.

DISSATISFIED REPUBLICANS.

The Republican papers have been an industrious hunting up dissatisfied Democrats in their neighborhoods and have interviewed a few dissatisfied Republicans in one month.

Hunting a leading Republican who is not in a fight in the councils of his party, we asked him what was the matter.

He replied that he was sick at heart, and that he looked for the Democrats to carry the State by 25,000 majority.

"Why," said he, "do you know that W. O. Bradley was known to be one of the meanest Democrats in his day, and he has really promised to pardon Dick Tate if he is elected Governor?"

When asked what reason Bradley had for pardoning Tate, our disgust, but found well with disgust. "Why," Tate is Bradley's nearest in-law, without Tate there would be no Bradley, and the would-be Governor knows that a pardoned Tate has been to him, and he does not intend to be ungrateful to him."

Then says he "Bradley wants a local brained stomach ball with a leather band, and no man can be anything and look like a rakish Texas ranger. Oh! I am disgusted with the whole thing and I am only one among the thousands."

Meeting another leader who attended the Republican Convention at Louisville last month, he poured forth the troubles of his soul in unparalleled style. Says he: "Do you know the Democrats have actually got a ticket in shape? It pin down I can tell you that the Democratic committee has actually dared to open his mouth without first finding out what Bradley wanted it to say?"

You can't let me tell you that all the Republicans in this city think the same way about electioneering.

No, sir, we are not allowed to think. We simply "Realize!" I am going to vote the straight Republican ticket from top to the bottom."

Still another disgusted Republican—"I am off. I have been a worker in the ranks for years but when my party gets to cheating its leaders the Democrats can have it undisputed possession. I go into the Democratic camp where my views are treated honestly."

We might continue this at length but will not.

Popular Convention.

The State Convention held at Louisville last week was a success. The Democratic party of Harrison county, for fourteen years in the minority, was represented by a full delegation.

Nothing unusual was well represented and harmony and good fellowship was the order of the committees. Jno. O. Hall was elected Chairman and Jno. Bonta, Secretary. The following delegates were elected to the Louisville Convention: Jno. O. Hall, Jno. Bonta, Jno. Bonta, Jr., Jno. Bonta, Sr., Jno. Bonta, Jr., Jno. Bonta, Sr., Jno. Bonta, Jr., Jno. Bonta, Sr.,
