Companies of the 14th Regiment acted in the capacity of scout and operated by battalions. Its duty was to prevent those frequent raids by guerrillas, which annoyed and often proved disastrous to the loyal residents of Kentucky.

For efficiency, bravery and discipline, the 14th Regiment received the highest praise from the Department Commander. It was engaged in many actions in which great losses were sustained.

The service record of Thomas Shannon shows that he was wounded in action and captured at Mt. Sterling, Kentucky, on March 22, 1863, he was later paroled by Colonel R. S. Clark, C.S.A., and reported in at Camp Dennison, Ohio, later rejoining "A" Company at Camp Lee, Maysville, Kentucky.

The compiler of this history of the 14th Regiment recently received, from the Office of the Adjutant General, Department of the Army, the Civil War Service medal of the late John H. Shannon who was a veteran of "A" Company.

Troops of "A" Company were mustered out of the service on September 16, 1863, at Maysville, Kentucky.

It is a matter of regret that the officers of this command neglected to furnish a historical record of the operations, marches, engagements, actions of the regiment.

Answer to Puzzle No. 160

WHY SOME MOTORISTS GO NUTS

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

By Cal Kingsberry

POLITICAL NOTES:

Lawmakers are back in town and the talk is of politics. Every member of the House is up for election and within the next few weeks announcements will be made—to run or retire.

Kentucky Democrats here in the Capital are talking about a candidate to oppose Senator John Sherman Cooper who is up for a third term. He has already indicated that he is going to the post.

ONE DEMOCRAT REFUSES:

Thus far one Kentucky Democratic congressman has turned down an appeal to run—Frank Chelf of the Fourth District. He's going to seek reelection.

Other possibilities as a Cooper opponent include Rep. John Watts of the Blue Grass District. He has not displayed much interest. William Natcher of the Second District is getting some consideration and many believe him to be willing. However, he's not talking for publication.

CHRISTMAS CARDS:

One way of judging a man's political intention is the length of his Christmas card list.

We learned that Senator John Kennedy, the front Democratic presidential runner to date, has sent hundreds of holiday greetings to Kentuckians. And, believe it or not, Senator Estes Kefauver covered the same Kentucky list he has used for many years.

Other holiday greetings have come to several Kentuckians from former Senator George Bender, Ohio Republican, the man who is now working for the Teamsters' Union. We doubt that he is a candidate.

A FORECAST:

In response to a minor flood of mail from Kentuckians we make these predictions on the forthcoming Congress:

No increase in taxes and no decrease either. A possibility for a school construction program if the Democratic leadership and the White House can get together. No labor legislation of importance unless the steel strike continues. A short session to enable lawmakers to start campaigning.

And plenty of political oratory for the benefit of the folks back home.

MISERY LOVES COMPANY:

Well, Kentuckians at the dawn of 1960 were quarreling over slavery. A public meeting was held in Madison County and ministers were requested to leave the county. They were Rev. John Fee, Rev. James Davis, and a Mr. Hanson. Folks didn't like their pro-slavery views.

Rev. Davis, it seems, settled in Lewis County and the citizens, gathered at Orangeburg, urged him to move on. They gave him seven days to give up his lodgings on Cabin Creek.

ACTION IN MASON COUNTY:

A week or so later it was learned that Rev. Fee and Mr. Hanson were planning to set-pork in Harrison and Bourbon counties. And Andrew Wilson of Maysville butchered a hog weighing 1340 pounds.

If you plan to freeze broilers soon after purchase, you do not need to remove the wrapping.
