Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

Since chicken continues to be about the best buy in the way of meat, here is another recipe that will serve eight or you may use half quantities.

PARTY CHICKEN

8 chicken breasts (this is generous), remove skin and bone
8 slices of bacon
1 package of chipped beef
1 can diluted mushroom soup
1/2 pint sour cream

Wrap each chicken breast with a piece of bacon. Cover bottom of 8x12x2 inch greased baking dish with chipped beef. Arrange chicken on chipped beef. Mix soup and sour cream and pour over all. Bake at 275 degrees for 3 hours, uncovered.

Shan Kash, Sarasota, FL

VEGETABLE DUET / ZIPPY SAUCE

1 package frozen baby limas
1 package french beans

Combine, season, and cook as directed. Make sauce of 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 2 teaspoons onion flakes, 2 teaspoons Worchestershire Sauce, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 1/4 teaspoon garlic salt, dash of Tabasco Sauce, 2 chopped or sliced hard boiled eggs. Heat all in double boiler. Pour over drained vegetables. Garnish by sprinkling paprika over all.

To finish out this meal I would serve buttered rice or mashed potatoes. A congealed fruit salad, preferrably something using a red jello for color or later in the season when homegrown tomatoes are gone, serve tomato aspic.

Now for the dessert. As you know by now I usually prefer to "make my own," but when you find something good, already mixed, I am not one to be unbending.

LEMON CAKE

In large mixing bowl: 1 box of Duncan Hines Supreme Lemon Cake Mix; 1 package Lemon Jello Pudding Mix (the kind that must be cooked, but here you just add the mix); 4 eggs; 1/3 cup cooking oil; 1 cup water plus 1 tablespoon. Beat 4 minutes. Bake at 350 degrees for 35 minutes in large oblong pan.

When done let stand 10 minutes. Then cut in squares 1/2 way through. (12 pieces).

Cover entire cake with sauce of 2 cups confectioners 10X sugar, juice of 2 lemons mixed together. Spread on cake while still warm. If sauce seems a bit thick, add more lemon juice. Be sure it gets in between the cut squares.

I have had a request for a Chess Pie recipe, so here are two you can try---

CHESS PIE

2 cups sugar
3/4 cup butter, melted
4 egg yolks or 2 whole eggs
4 tablespoons meal
Vanilla
1 cup heavy cream
1 unbaked pie shell

Combine ingredients; pour into pie shell. Top with meringue, if desired bake for 30 minutes at 400 degrees.

Mrs. J.P. Sadler
Nashville, TN

CHESS PIE

1 cup butter
3 cups sugar
6 whole eggs, well beaten
1 tablespoon vanilla
2 tablespoons vinegar
pinch of salt
2 unbaked pie shells

Cream butter and sugar; add eggs, Add vanilla, vinegar and salt. Pour into unbaked pie shells. Place in a 300 degree oven for 10 minutes. Increase temperature to 350 degrees; bake 35 minutes longer. Yield: 12 servings.

Where there is faith, There is Love, Where there is Love, There is Peace, Where there Peace,

There is God, Where there is God, There is no need.

You "Mercury readers" are not prize fighters, but you surely could lick a stamp! Some of you could send some of your friends at the home a card or letter. Just send all mail to Johnson-Mathers Nursing Home, Carlisle, KY 40311, and they will get it, and it will make them so happy. It won't cost much or take much time. It will be good medicine for you too.

Mrs. Jewell Long of Lexington and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Watkins of Eau Gallie, FL visited Albert's mother, Mrs. Stella Watkins on Thursday. They brought her a beautiful basket of fruit and candy. Virgie and Albert live near Cape Kennedy, and from their home they can see the firing of the missils. They say this is a beautiful sight.

Walter Stone's mother always said it was better to just sit and look dumb than to talk and show how dumb you really are.

How many of you remember the story "How Willie Got Out of The Shaft"? This story is in McGuffy's Third reader. Do you remember how Willie's dog, Caper helped him?

Time goes fast and we, looking at the elderly of today are in fact, the elderly of America's tomorrow.

Earn As You Learn

Veterans desiring information on how to secure apprenticeship training for a skilled trade may secure a new pamphlet at U.S. Veterans Assistance Centers or from the Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training.

J.G. Ratliff, director of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Louisville, said the VA is helping the Labor Department's Manpower Administration in the distribution of the pamphlets. The pamphlet points out the VA training allowances for veterans without dependents start at $108 a month, with apprentices receiving at least an additional $2 an hour starting pay in most areas. The pamphlet lists 79 of some 350 jobs with training periods of two to six years.

The pamphlet, a bright red and white publication, is called "Veterans." It states, "Apprenticeship may be for you if you want to earn as you learn and want a good secure job future." Copies of the pamphlet may be secured from the VA Regional Offtice, 600 Federal Place, Louisville 40202.

They are also available from the Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training field office at 400 Nunn Building, 121 Walnut Street, Lexington 40507.

Copies may be secured by writing to Manpower Administration Publications Office, Labor Department, Washington, D.C. 20210.

4-H Calendars Now On Sale

Nicholas County 4-H'ers will be knocking on doors around town during the next three weeks to tell you about the Community Birthday Calendar.

Everyone in Nicholas County may have their names printed on the date on which their birthday or anniversary occurs. Your friends will know when your birthday is but not how "young" you are!

The Calendar will also list the meeting dates of church, school, organizations, and events in the county.

This fund-raising campaign, sponsored by the Nicholas County 4-H Council, provides funds for the support and development of the County 4-H program. The 4-H Club members selling the most birthday calendars in their respective clubs will receive 4-H jackets.

This illustrated, serviceable calendar, showing the Nicholas County Courthouse, belongs in every home and business. If one of our 4-H'ers overlooks making contact with you, and you wish your name, birthday or anniversary printed on our forthcoming Community Birthday Calendar, contact Sara Swango at the County Extension Office, phone 289-2312.

Legion To Hold Pot Luck Supper

The Nicholas Post No. 17, American Legion, and its auxiliary will have a potluck supper, Friday, Sept. 25, at 7:00 p.m. A social hour will follow.

All members are invited to attend, as announced by Wayne Hardwick, Commander.

Miss Phyllis Atkinson Chapel Choir Member

Miss Phyllis Atkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Atkinson, and a freshman at Georgetown College, is a member of the Chapel Choir of the college. She is also a member of the Oratorio Chorus.

The Chapel Choir provides training and experience for choral singing. It participates in Chapel worship and presents a concert at Christmas each year.

The Oratorio Chorus performs the larger choral works including an annual Christmas presentation of the "Messiah."

Jr. Woman's Club To Meet Tonight

Mrs. Gayle Kelly will be hostess Thursday, Sept. 24, at 7:30 p.m. for a meeting of the Carlisle Junior Woman's Club, at her home in Liberty Heights.

The program for the evening will be conducted by the Home Life Department, featuring a discussion on the "Junior Collect."

Spiritual values will be given by Mrs. Charles Judge. Mrs. Bill Donovan and Mrs. Jerry Hughes will serve as co-hostesses.

N. C. H. S. Band To Compete Sat., Sept. 26 At Lexington

The Drum Major raises his baton...a steady drum beat is heard...uniforms and brass gleaming...and then it begins. The moment twenty high school bands have been waiting for...the eighth annual Fayette Lions Invitational Band Contest at Stoll Field in Lexington. The time is 7:00 and the date is Saturday, Sept. 26. These bands are the best. They have been practicing months for this annual event and one band in each of four divisions will be judged the best, and the Nicholas County Band will be there.

The interest in bands has greatly increased with the advent of television and every high school band dreams of being invited to a Bowl Parade or Bowl game. Band boosters work hard to raise funds for uniforms and transportation. Being able to play an instrument well is not enough, team work is important, pride and team spirit are essential.

The ingredients are all here, the bands are ready to perform. The Kentucky Invitational is a great family get together, not only for the families of the contestants, but "band watchers" as well. The program itself is exciting. Radio personality Artie Kay is Master of Ceremonies again this year. And special attractions are promised, announces George Pruitt, chairman.

All proceeds of this contest are directed to a Scholarship Fund, and each participating band will have the opportunity to submit a senior student for consideration by the Scholarship Committee. At the end of 1969, Fayette Lions Club has awarded a total of 72 scholarships.

Schools participating this year are Tates Creek Senior High, Lafayette, Henry Clay, Bryan Station, Scott County, Johnson County, Hopkinsville, Pleasure Ridge Park, Covington Holmes, Grant County, Williamstown High, Woodford County, Jefferson County, Bourbon County, Garrard County, Nicholas County, Madison County, Danville High and Erlanger Lloyd and Conner Senior High.

Marie Chapter O. E. S. To Install New Officers

New officers of Marie Chapter No. 259, Order of the Eastern Star, will be installed at the Masonic Temple Tuesday evening, Sept. 29, at 8:00 p.m. The installing worthy matron will be Mrs. Jean Marshall of Frankfort, She is the Incoming Worthy Grand Matron of the Eastern Star in Kentucky.

Other members of the installation team will be Major Hunt, Lawrenceburg, worthy patron; Mrs. Annabel Courtney, Versailles, marshall; Mrs. Ruth Goodlet, Harrodsburg, organist; Mrs. Mary Frances Cooper, Georgetown, chaplin; Mrs. Wanda Shrout, Carlisle, warder, anden, and Omar Marshall, Frankfort, sentinel.

Officers to be installed are: Fleet Allison, worthy matron; Chester Ockerman worthy patron; Opal Hollar, associate matron; Raymond Bruce, associate patron; Mary Lou Scott, secretary; Virginia Flora, treasurer; Carrie Shumate, conductress; Polly Wells, associate conductress; Betty Faye, chaplin; Billie Ockerman, marshall; June Wagoner, organist; Betty Mathers, Adah; Thelma Bruce, Ruth; Georgia Brady, Esther; Maggie Davis, Martha; Ann Dampier, Electa; Sarah Fryman, warden; and Marion Davis, sentinel.

Mrs. Roy Kingsolver Garden Club Speaker

The Carlisle Garden Club met Monday, Sept. 21, at the First Christian Church, with Mrs. Grimes Caywood as hostess.

Mrs. Virginia Donovan gave the devotional. Mrs. William Layson, president, welcomed members and guests, and read a very timely poem, "September Morn."

She reported briefly on the recent District meeting in Lexington, and announced that the application to start a project of beautification at the entrance of the nursing home had been accepted. Work on the plans will start soon.

Mrs. Caywood presented Mrs. Roy Kingsolver, Lexington, who gave a very interesting program on flower arranging.

Mrs. Kingsolver displayed much talent along this line as she used both dried and fresh flowers in attractive ways.

Mrs. Caywood served a fruit drink and cake to 13 members and four guests, Mrs. W.R. Kingsolver, Mrs. Robert Hamilton, and Mrs. Russell Shrout.

High School PTA To Meet Oct. 3

The Nicholas County High School P.T.A. will meet Thursday, Oct. 1, 7:30 p.m. at the high school library. E.G. Jones, principal, will be the speaker. He will relate some of the goals for the year and introduce his staff who will in turn share some of the plans for the students this year.

Following the program refreshments will be served. Open house will be held for parents to tour student class rooms and facilities in the building.

All parents and teachers are urged to attend.
