ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce JOHN T. HUNTSELL as a candidate for Representative, subject to the action of the Republican primary.

We are authorized to announce JOHN S. MORGAN as a candidate for Representative, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

Mr. OLIVER EGGLESTON will announce a Dinning Club, which will rival Mr. Deming's claims as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

The announced candidacies of Mr. Hoag Chinn, of Bourbon, and Mr. Joe Blakemore, of Boyle, will lend a good Chinn to running a beauty of race with Jones. The other notices are the ir to interfere as looked for.

A Covington policeman arrested a man who refused to "move on. He he commended Grimes as the man to move well-known Democrat, and the man moved. The proceedings were unusual in the effect thought there was something wrong. They ought to have been talking politics.

The Bourbon county Democrats held a mass meeting last Thursday, and endorsed the Democratic candidates for the State Senate from the counties of Fleming, Bath, Carter and Rowan. Mr. Sandusky is one of the best posted men in the county, and will make the race to win.

We are authorized to state that Hon. M. Stacy, of Bourbon county, has announced his candidacy for Representative, and requests us to submit his name to those who have so kindly expressed themselves favorably toward his candidacy. He also says he is still for Buckner and Bate tuttle.

Ex-State Senator John T. Norman, of Campbell county, is busy organizing a boom for Governor. Senator Norman is a well-known man, having in a few years built up a large law practice and attained a leading place among the politicians of the State.

The announcement of Col. John P. Morgan, of Bourbon county, for the Democratic nomination for Representative from Bourbon, Harrison and Robertson, will be found in this issue. Col. Morgan needs no introduction to the people of Robertson county, as he is known to most of them, and whatever he is known he is liked. A lawyer of a great deal of ability and a clever, reliable man, he would make an excellent Representative.—Mt. Olivet Democrat.

Mr. JOHN LAMPE, of Hawkins, is spoken of as a candidate for State Commissioner of Agriculture.—Owingsville Post.

Mr. LAMB was well known as Postmaster of the Blue Lick Hotel, and is a Democrat. He is now a large and successful Bourbon county farmer, and would make a good Commissioner. Keep your eye on him.

The attention of our readers is drawn to the announcement of Judge JAMES P. Norvell as a candidate for Representative from this district. Judge Norvell is a lawyer of considerable reputation and ex County Judge of Fayette, and while he was defeated last Fall, he made one of the best races ever made by his race last. It was under the most unfavorable circumstances, and he was overwhelmed with a great political wave, all one of the best and most eloquent Court-houses to be found in the State, and yet this was all done without increasing the vote of the county. We should not that if elected he would make an honest and able Representative.—Mt. Sterling Advance.

Two dog substance has been the idea of a city like Flemingsburg and having her officers to look after. Two written reports on two bogs were filed in the Council on Monday night.—Fleming Gazette.

No State in the Union requires as much reports as does the State of Kentucky, and either less information or more time for the heads of departments and office holders such necessary reports to be prepared. Some of them will get them.

We are authorized to say to our readers Mr. Hoge Peake, of Oldtown Mills, is a candidate for Representative from the counties of Nicholas and Robertson, subject to the action of the Democratic primary which will be held in August next. Mr. Peake will announce before the people in a publication in a few weeks, and in so many ways solicited by his friends to enter the race for the nomination, and in every way qualified for the position he asks and if he is elected one of the two counties we propose to honor him with the office, we feel confident that there would be no doubt as to whether he would be faithful to the interests of his from state or national. He is clean in his character and a gentleman in every particular.

Sandy Critic-Chronicle.

Mr. J. I. Williamson, who announced several weeks ago to make a candidate for Representative from this district, has filed his report, which is published in this issue. Mr. Williamson is a resident of the Tennessee Federal district, and has been a candidate for the office before, and has filed a report which is published in full. The report shows that the amount of money received by him was $1,000.00, and has paid to the Democratic committee of Hamilton county $1,000.00, and has paid out $1,000.00 for other purposes, leaving a balance of $1,000.00. Mr. Williamson is a gentleman of high character and standing, and will be a strong candidate for the office.
