Nursing Home News

By Virginia Smith Donovan

O grant me, Heaven, a middle state, Neither too humble nor too great; More than enough for nature's ends, With something left to treat my friends.--David Mallet

Stanley Massey was visited by his brother, Frazier of Mt. Olivet.

Lawrence Price's folks were down from Lexington and they all went for a drive on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Serelda Sosby isn't very big, but it's hard to keep up with her. Her sister, Rose Franklin, came up from "Shady Nook," and took her home with her. They went to Cynthiana to see their 91 year old father who is in a nursing home, then to do some shopping in Cynthiana. She was gone three days.

A brother may not be a friend, but a friend will always be a brother.--Benjamin Franklin

Rev. John Daniel of Lexington visited Rev. D.T. Brandenburg one day recently.

Spencer Payne (former Nicholas County Judge) came from Henryville, Ind. to see his father, Ira Payne, recently. Mr. Ira is an interesting "old chap." Said he never went to school more than one week at a time in his life; can read a newspaper, and could build a house as good as anyone. Said the school he went to was the Shepherd School, located near Pleasant Valley. He remembers one teacher whose name was Bertha Swartz. Mr. Payne said no one could beat him out of even a dime!

A friend is a present you give yourself.--Robert Louis Stevenson

Uncle Tom's son, Lloyd, came from Fleming County to see him. His sister, Miss Pearl Jackson, came from Mt. Orb, Ohio to visit him recently.

Mrs. Ruben Cleaver's granddaughter, husband and three children came from Dayton, Ohio to see her Sunday.

Terl and Shelle Shearer of Louisville visited friends at the home on Sunday.

Henry Lowe of Danville visited his father, Warner Lowe on Saturday.

Many of you old timers remember the school teacher, John Shy. Elmer Frederick and Tony Dotson went to school to him. Tony said when he was about six he started to school to him in a log school at Bald Hill. This was about 1868; said Tom Jackson wasn't old enough to start then. The children walked barefoot and came for miles; said Sam Hollar went to school to him after he had three or four children. Elmer Frederick said they had him up in court once for whipping a girl and fined him about $125. The school was located near Walnut Grove. Mr. Elmer said he used to draw a line on the floor with chalk and the children had to put their toes right on the line; said one time his big toe was just a litti over the line and Mr. Shy gave it a lick with a stick and part of the stick flew back over his shoulder.

Mrs. Mae Berry was invited out Sunday to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Feeback to help celebrate her brother, Dan Well's 89th birthday.

No man is wise if he is ignorant concerning the Bible.--Upper Room

Orville Howard said he had been up in northern Indiana but has come back to the home to live. His son, B.F. Howard, brought him back and saw that he was well situated.

Prayer is walking and talking with God.--Upper Room

Mark Pelfrey and family of Portsmouth, Ohio came Saturday to see his mother, Mrs. Vada Pelfrey.

Clara Ruth Craig helped celebrate her grandson's first birthday. Craig Osborne Bailey is his name and he lives in Bourbon County. Almost forgot to say his great-grandfather, Charles Osborne was at the celebration too.

Leslie White's daughter, Mrs. Paul Haney of Sharpsburg, and granddaughter of Dayton, Ohio visited him Sunday.

Most believe that a woman's place is in the home. They expect to find her there immediately after she gets off from work.

Mrs. Hubert Bourne of Columbus, Ohio visited Mrs. Ellen Kenney recently.

J.P. Barbee has left the home and gone to Fleming County to live with his son, Avery.

Tony Dotson's mustache really looks nice. Henry Caswell did the barbering; said he was experienced in that line of work, for he wore a mustache while in Vietnam.

Mrs. Essie Dalzelle had quite a bit of company on Wednesday; was just like a reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tune came from Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Catherine Dismay and Jeanne Pearcy came from Indianapolis, Ind.; Mrs. Henry Allen, Bourbon County, and Edith and Kenneth came from Nicholas County. They are all relatives of Mrs. Dalzelle.

Dr. Thomas M. Johnson of the Maxwell Presbyterian Church, Lexington, visited Rev. D.T. Brandenburg.

Dr. Henry Smiley and Mr. and Mrs. William Echlar of Richmond visited Warner Lowe. Dr. Smiley and Mrs. Echlar are teachers at the college.

While driving to work Wednesday, Clara Ruth was stung on the neck by a wasp. She made a swat at him and broke her glasses.

Mrs. Glen Hester and Glenda and Mr. Frazier Massey of Mt. Olivet visited Stanley Massey.

It would be nice if some of the clubs, church groups, and other organizations would remember the home folks during the summer months.

At this writing, no one is in the hospital.

Rev. and Mrs. Paul Neal of California visited Miss "Coochie" Gill one day recently.

To be happy you must forget yourself.--Edward Bulwer-Lytton
