WHERE WE WERE BOYS.

A large number of the members of the General Assembly have returned from their respective counties, and are now in session at the State Capitol. The session is expected to continue until the middle of November. Several important bills are expected to be introduced during the session.

PROGRAMME OF REPUBLICANS.

The Republican party in this State has adopted a platform of reform and progress. They are committed to the principles of justice, equity, and the common good. Their programme includes the promotion of education, the improvement of the public works, and the reform of the judicial system.

SEMINARS IN FURY.

The various seminaries in this State are now in session. The students are preparing for the coming year, and the faculty are endeavoring to provide the best possible education. There are reports of some disturbances in some of the seminaries, but these are being kept under strict supervision.

AGRICULTURAL HINTS.

THE FLOW PIPES.
The flow pipes are an important part of any irrigation system. They should be kept clean and free from obstructions. It is also important to check the flow pipes regularly to see if they are working properly.

THE SECOND FIDDLER.

A man who was known as the second fiddler in a certain band, was recently seen playing his fiddle in a public square. He was surrounded by a large crowd of people who were gathered to hear him play. He played for several hours, and the crowd did not disperse.

THE GREAT QUESTION.

One of the great questions of the day is the question of the future of the Southern States. There are many different opinions as to what should be done, and it is not yet clear what the result will be. The Government is trying to find a way to settle the question, but it is not easy to do.

THE MARKET.

The market for the various commodities is very quiet. There has been a decline in the prices of many of the staples, but there has also been a rise in the prices of some of the other commodities. It is expected that the market will continue to be quiet for some time.

FACTS FOR FARMERS.

Farmers should be careful to choose the best seed for their crops. They should also be careful to use the best fertilizers and to take the best care of their crops. It is also important for farmers to keep their land in good condition.

MOTHER GOOSE.

Mother Goose is a well-known character in the story of the Goose that Laid the Golden Eggs. She is a goose that is very greedy and selfish. She is always looking for a way to get more money, and she is willing to do anything to get it.

NOTICE TO HORSEMEN!

Much Advantage Is Gained By the Use of Clippers.

The season has arrived for clipping Horses, and we are prepared to do the work by means of the best Clippers and an experienced operator, at Reasonable Rates.

Have your horse clipped after being properly shaven. The hair will grow back much faster than if it were not shaved. It is also a good idea to clip the horse's neck and chest. This will keep the horse cool in the summer and warm in the winter.
