Meat prices jump in May

Retail food prices in Kentucky jumped 1.6 percent in May, primarily as the result of increases in the cost of meat, according to Kentucky Farm Bureau's marketbasket survey.

A selected group of 40 food items cost $59.58 this month, up from $58.62 in April and 3.7 percent above the $57.44 marketbasket cost in May of 1981.

Fueling the upsurge were hikes in the cost of beef and pork, which closely tracked moderate farm price improvement for live animals. The 13 meat items checked in the survey showed a 4.6 percent increase this month, which more than accounted for the overall food price jump. The 27 non-meat items in the marketbasket actually registered a slight decline since the April survey.

Final Settlements

Pursuant to KRS 395.025, Gary W. Sallee Jr., Administrator of the estate of Karen M. Sallee, deceased, has filed his final settlement of accounts with the Nicholas District Court; exceptions thereto must be filed by June 28, 1982.
