Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

Here we are still trying to stretch the food dollar, and the best way is to save on breads, cakes and desserts. These recipes are not only easy but are fun, if you like to cook. Use the Biscuit Mix given or use your own basic biscuit recipe. Make your own mix and refrigerate, measure amount needed for recipe, then add required liquid.

NUT BREAD

2 cups biscuit mix
½ cup sugar
¼ cup all purpose flour
1 egg
¾ cup milk
1 cup chopped nuts

Combine all ingredients, beat for about one minute. Pour into greased and floured loaf pan. Let stand about 30 minutes, then bake about one hour in pre-heated 350 degree oven. Cool before slicing.

CINNAMON-NUT COFFEE CAKE

1½ cups biscuit mix
2 tablespoons sugar
1 egg
¾ cup water
¼ cup evaporated milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Combine all ingredients and beat one minute. Spread into greased eight-inch round pan. Sprinkle with topping made of 3 tablespoons of biscuit mix, 3 tablespoons sugar, ¾ teaspoon cinnamon, 2 tablespoons margarine crumbled together. Add ¼ cup chopped pecans.

Bake 25 minutes in 400 degree oven. Serve hot with butter.

ONION-CHEESE MUFFINS

3 cups biscuit mix
1 teaspoon onion salt
¾ cup grated cheddar cheese
1 can crumbled French fried onions
1 egg
1 cup milk

Mix all ingredients until well moistened. Grease muffin tin well and fill two-thirds full. Bake 15 minutes in 400-degree oven. Makes about 16 muffins.

*****

Just in case you have misplaced the Beer Biscuit recipe, here it is again. If you remember it was given to me by Zee Boers of Owensboro.

BEER BISCUITS

2 cups biscuit mix
2 tablespoon sugar
6 ounces beer

Mix all ingredients and beat one minute. Fill 12 hot greased medium muffin cups ⅔ full. Bake 15 minutes in 400-degree oven. These are really more like muffins than biscuits. They do warm up nicely so might as well double the recipe and use all that 12 ounce can of beer.

*****

Back to the old faithful ground beef. Here is a main lunch recipe to please all the family.

PIZZA SANDWICH

1 pound ground beef
2 (8-oz.) cans tomato sauce
1 teaspoon oregano
2 cups biscuit mix
1 egg
⅓ cup milk
1 (3-oz.) can sliced mushrooms, drained
¼ cup Parmesan cheese
8 slices cheese

Cook and stir ground beef until brown; drain. Mix in one can tomato sauce and oregano; simmer uncovered 10 minutes.

Stir biscuit mix, egg and milk to a soft dough. Spread half of the dough in greased pan, eight or nine-inch square. Pour remaining can of tomato sauce over dough, spreading evenly. Layer four slices cheese, the meat mixture, mushrooms, remaining cheese slices and Parmesan cheese. Cover with remaining dough. Bake 25 minutes until golden brown.

This is a meal in itself. Serve with tossed salad.

BISCUIT MIX

2 cups self rising flour
⅓ cup or more of shortening (the amount depends on how rich and crisp you like your biscuits)

Mix together until texture of cornmeal. Store in refrigerator. This makes about one quart of mix. Good too for quick cheese biscuits. Just add ⅓ to ½ cup sharp grated cheese and enough milk to make a light dough. Turn out on floured board and roll to desired thickness and cut. Bake in 425 degree oven until golden.

Mrs. Conn Abnee and Mrs. Mark Mattox are installed officers at Community Woman's Club dinner May 24

The Carlisle Community Woman's Club installation dinner was held Thursday, May 24, at Carnico Country Club. Mrs. Dick Letton, outgoing president, chaired the program, then new officers were installed by Mrs. Fred Whaley.

Mrs. Letton began the program by introducing four past presidents: Mrs. Harold Letton, Mrs. Dan Rich, Mrs. John Soper and Mrs. Fred Whaley. Next a summary of the club's activities of the past two years was given. Projects included Christmas baskets and a Valentine party for nursing home residents, a Halloween party at the Nicholas County Child Development Center, two Christmas parade float entries, voter participation posters and ads, Thanksgiving baskets, two aluminum recycling contests for scout troops, a Saturday Story Hour at the library and Vial of Life distribution. The largest project, construction of the Station Yard, was completed; an arts and crafts show was held in conjunction with its dedication.

Purchases by the club included outdoor furniture for the nursing home, a complete indoor gym for the Child Development Center and savings bonds for Nicholas County High School's valedictorian and salutorian. Donations were made to C.A.R.E., Cerebral Palsey Fund, the courthouse flag repair and van repair for the Retarded Citizens. Most recently $600 was given to Special Olympics.

Members also participated in the recent Health Fair, Bloodmobile drive, a fashion show for the Paris Woman's Club, aid in district sewing and craft contests.

Following the summary, Mrs. Letton announced the resignation of Mrs. Fred Whaley who has served in the club for almost 20 years. Mrs. Whaley was then asked to install the new president, Mrs. Conn Abnee, and treasurer, Mrs. Mark Mattox.

Summer class registration June 8 at MCC

Registration for summer session classes at Maysville Community College will be held June 8 from 9-11:30 a.m., 1:30-4 p.m. and 6-8 p.m.

This year's summer offerings at MCC include a variety of freshmen-level classes scheduled to give beginning college students an opportunity to get a headstart on their collegiate education.

Courses in biology, data processing, math, economics, freshman English, family management, history, psychology, sociology, public speaking and tennis have been scheduled. Copies of the complete schedule are available upon request.

Classwork begins on June 11 and ends with final examinations Aug. 7 and 8. Tuition fees are $18 per credit hour for Kentucky residents. Those enrolling on a full-time basis (6-9 credit hours) will pay $108.

Included again this year is John Kiee's popular History of Kentucky travel course in which those enrolled will visit more than 20 historical locations throughout the state to see and learn firsthand how Kentucky history has been made. Kiee will be pleased to discuss the course with those interested in participating.

For further information phone 606-759-7141.

June on... KET

The Mikado — Screen and television actor William Conrad stars in the title role of one of Gilbert and Sullivan's most popular works on Wednesday, June 6, at 8 p.m.

In this operetta, a disguised Nanki-Poo, son of the Mikado, falls in love with Yum-Yum, ward of the Lord High Executioner. When the Executioner is informed by the Lord High Everything Else that he must be his office unless an execution takes place within a month, Nanki-Poo agrees to be the victim if he can marry Yum-Yum.

Can Anybody Hear Me? — Expressing a thought or feeling and having it understood seems like a simple task. But when you are deaf, expressing yourself effectively becomes a much greater challenge. This one-hour special, airing Monday, June 25, at 10 p.m. visits with three people who have taken on that challenge.

Buddenbrooks — A nine-part dramatization of the Nobel Prize-winning novel, Buddenbrooks, by Thomas Mann premieres on "Great Performances" Monday, June 18, at 9 p.m. An engrossing family saga set in 19th century Germany, the series follows the lives of the Buddenbrooks through three generations, during the period 1835 to 1874. It is introduced and narrated by Sir John Gielgud.

Mark Russell Comedy Specials — Mark Russell turns the nation's pressing problems into laughter. No politician is protected, no sacred cow is safe when the kind of capital comedy is on the stage. Tune in to KET on Wednesday, June 27, at 9 p.m. for 30 minutes of live laugh-making and fast-paced songs and jokes.

Bywords — A weekly series produced by KET that takes a look at extraordinary Kentuckians, their careers and lifestyles, returns Friday, June 1, at 9:30 p.m. Join hosts as they travel around the Commonwealth talking and listening to some of Kentucky's most interesting personalities.

Carlisle Methodists to celebrate 200th anniversary on courthouse lawn

1984 marks the 200th anniversary of the Methodist churches in America. On Christmas Eve in 1784, the Methodist Episcopal Church, great-grandfather of the present-day United Methodist Church, was born. A handful of Methodist preachers assembled, 70 Baltimore, MD to organize their work. As they arrived on horseback from their various circuits throughout the Eastern portion of the country, they had no idea they would be making history. However, before their conference was ended they had formed a church, organized its leadership, founded a college, established a publishing house and set themselves the goal of evangelizing the nation.

That handful of preachers has multiplied through the years. The church they founded has grown. Today the United Methodist Church in America has more than 35,000 local congregations with over 9,500,000 members. In addition, there are dozens of other denominations which owe their beginnings to that Christmas conference.

The congregation of the Carlisle United Methodist Church is celebrating this 200th anniversary. On Sunday, June 3, at 3:30 p.m. they will be holding an old-fashioned outdoor worship service on the courthouse lawn. The service will include congregational singing, special music and preaching. In keeping with the bicentennial theme, members of the church will be dressing in old-fashioned clothing and Rev. Bob Gipson, minister of the church, will be arriving on horseback dressed as an old-time circuit rider.

The service will be followed by a picnic style dinner on the grounds at 5 p.m. Both the service and the picnic are open to everyone. You are invited to bring a lawn chair or blanket, wear your old-fashioned clothes or dress very casually, bring a picnic supper and help celebrate the 200th anniversary of Methodism in America.
