Chappell & Colliver,

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

CITY STORE.

Last week was decidedly the coldest weather we have had this Winter. On Thursday and Friday the thermometer fell so low that its best friends refused to recognize it. But the past two or three days it has become more respectable. The so-called weather prophets now predict a few days of mild, pleasant weather, to be followed by heavy rains. We will be able to tell you better about this later on.

Since our Auction closed we have put in a good part of the time scrubbing and scouring. Our whole stock has been overhauled from basement to garret. So when you visit the City Store be prepared to see the cleanest, prettiest and most complete stock of Goods for the time of the year you have ever seen on our counters and shelves, and there is not a day that it is not being added to.

If anything new in our line comes out we are right after it.

As Special Agents we have a right to contract with agents. Good men who will hustle for business, and who can furnish good reference, can secure a good floor contract. We have written $275,000 in past 4 months in Nicholas and adjoining counties. Call and examine our plan and get our rate. Office over Ratliff Bro's store, Carlisle, Ky.

Mr. Isaac Evans, of Nicholas county, was in the city Monday and called at our office and renewed his subscription to the Sentinel Democrat for another year. Mr. Evans is one of the most influential Democrats in his county, and is of the dyed-in-the-wool never-scratch-a-nominee stripe. Mr. Evans said he had no patience with the Democratic members of the General Assembly who were withholding their support from the regular nominee of the party for United States Senator; that he and thousands of other true Democrats had these men marked and if they ever asked for State office would oppose them for the nomination to the last.—[Sentinel Democrat.
