SUITS FILED IN CIRCUIT COURT
Honorable Jack Arnold, Judge

Connie Cartmill vs Teddy David Cartmill.

State Police arrest two

State Police Trooper Tim Thomas executed a warrant on Timothy Lee Sams, 30, of Carlisle for failure to satisfy judgement.

The arrest occurred at 9:30 a.m. Oct. 20 at Nicholas County Courthouse.

Trooper Jim Curry has charged Gregory Allen Henry, 25, of Maysville with driving under the influence. The arrest occurred at 5:45 p.m. Oct. 26, four miles east of Carlisle on U.S. 68.

Henry was turned over to the Nicholas County transportation officer to be lodged in the Maysville jail.

Car, truck sprayed with black paint

A car owned by Paige Haney was sprayed with black paint Monday night while parked in front of her parents' home on West Chestnut Street.

A pick-up truck pulled onto the parking apron behind the home was also sprayed. The Carlisle Police Department is investigating. No other details were available at presstime.

Two car accident

Trooper Tim Thomas investigated a non-injury accident which occurred at 7:50 p.m. Oct. 24, six miles east of Carlisle on U.S. 68.

The drivers involved were Danny K. Howard, 18, Carlisle, operating a 1977 Dodge, and Sharon L. Holbrook, 27, Lexington, driving a 1984 Buick.

IN MEMORY OF GLENNA WALKER: This is an article that I found in Glenna's Bible this past week as I was looking through it. I feel it was a message for us, her family to be able to rely upon.

FOR OUR GOOD

Sometimes the Lord takes things away from us that we hardly imagine doing without. But we must realize that we can live without them and our loss is God's gain. We come to realize that though our disappointments that God's marvelous providence. He changes our light affliction" into eternal glory.

As God's children, we can be confident that whatever He does or takes away is for our own benefit. If we accept this truth, we can rejoice in the reality of God's powerful, wise, and loving providence. No matter what we are facing today, we have the assurance that in all things God is at work to fulfill His marvelous purpose in our life. Praise God, everything He does is for our good.

I pray that this may help others to understand and trust God in all things. We are so thankful we have a loving God to serve, but most of all he is always ready to bless us. May God bless each and everyone, who will call upon his name. Glenn, Faye and Bernie.

IN MEMORY of Rev. W.O. Claypool and his lovely wife Kathryn Vice Claypool who departed from life in 1983. Gone but not forgotten, who live on in our hearts. Allie and Virginia Vice. 10-30-1tp

CARD OF THANKS: We express our appreciation to our good neighbors who sent flowers, food and cards, the ambulance service, hospital staff, Mathers and Gaunce Funeral Home and especially Dr. Kingsolver, Dr. Hamon and Rev. Robinson for their efficient care and love for us during the loss of our loved one Rev. Roy B. Livingood. And a special thanks for the prayers. The Livingoods. 10-30-1tp

Mobilization of KANG largest ever

Nearly 1,600 members of the Kentucky Army National Guard, including Carlisle's Company D of the 201st Engineer Battalion, will participate this week in the largest single training exercise in the history of the Kentucky Guard.

Designed to test the Guard's ability to mobilize its personnel and equipment to report for active duty, the operation will involve 15 local units in nine communities for all or part of four days, including next weekend.

"Mobilization training is critically important to the National Guard as a member of the Total Force," said Maj. Gen. Billy G. Wellman, Kentucky adjutant general. "This type of exercise is a good test of our readiness and we are most grateful to the families and employers who support our citizen-soldiers in serving their state and nation."

The exercise will be monitored by the Guard's state headquarters in Frankfort and will require the participating units to report to their local armories, load their personal and unit equipment and transport themselves to a pre-arranged location for additional processing.

We hope that federal mobilization never comes but, if it does, our units must be prepared to report for duty as quickly and efficiently as possible," said Col. Edward L. Gill, state director of plans, operations and training.

Joe McDaniel is reelected president of burley coop

Officers and directors of the Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association for 1986-87 were elected recently at the organization's regularly scheduled monthly meeting.

Joe McDaniel, Cynthiana, was reelected as president for the ninth consecutive one-year term. McDaniel, a Harrison County farmer, was elected a director of the association from the 12th district in 1984. He succeeded David D. Williamson in 1978 as president.

Terry E. Bay, Brooksville, was elected for his first term as first vice president of the organization. Bay, a Bracken County burley producer, was first elected a director from the 13th district in 1984.

John D. Blevins, Lexington, was reelected as vice president in charge of processing.

A. R. Beckley was reelected executive secretary-treasurer, and Allen T. Harman was reelected assistant secretary-treasurer. Both officials are from Lexington.

The firm of Berry & Floyd, New Castle, was retained as counsel for the association.

H. Carlisle Bensalem III, Winchester, also was designated to continue in the position of public relations.

Six of nine directors in the 16th through the 23rd districts were elected to represent their areas for the first time. Directors are elected on a rotating basis for three-year terms. Districts 1 through 7 will be open for election in 1987, and directors in districts 8 through 14 will be up for election in 1988.

New directors include: 16th — Billy Grannis, Flemingsburg; 14th — Henry West, Paint Lick; 17th — Jerry Brown, Harrodsburg; 21st — Joe Wright, Harmed; 22nd — Ivan Banks, Petersburg, W.Va.; and 23rd — Rod Kangel, Owensboro.

Three directors retaining their seats on the board include: 18th — C. R. Whitehouse, Lebanon; 19th — Johnny Ray Wiseman, Winchester; and 20th — Allan E. Brown, Bardstown. Brown also will continue to serve on the executive committee.

Ray Bransfettler, Horse Cave, a former director, was elected as director-at-large from Kentucky. William F. Satterfield, West Union, Ohio, was reelected as director-at-large from Ohio, along with Benny Garland, Vevay, Ind., as director-at-large from Indiana.

Daniel A. Morgan, Weston, Mo., also was reelected an associate director-at-large from Missouri.
