SENATORIAL.

Just as we go press a telegram from Frankfort says Hunter had 66 votes, Stege (Rep) voted for Wilson, Fiser, (Pop) voted for Hunter.

THE National Democratic Convention will be held at Chicago on the 7th of July 1896. Now for a winner.

HENDERSONVILLE people are indignant at the appointment of Postell, the negro waiter keeper, as Steward of the West. ern Asylum.

J. S. CRAIG, of Stanford, has announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Eighth District.

THE majority should rule. Hon. John C. S. Blackburn was the Democratic nominee for U. S. Senator honestly and fairly, and every Democrat in the Legislature should vote for him when the time arrives.—Maysville Bulletin.

A BILL to reduce the pay of members and officers of the General Assembly has been defeated in the Republican House at Frankfort. That's the first bill to be acted upon, and its fate shows what shams the Republican reformers are.

THE Senate will not confirm the nomination of R. Postell, colored, to be Steward of the Western Insane Asylum at Hopkinsville. It is said that Col. Bradley did not know Postell was a colored man when he made his appointment.

LAST week the gentle dove of peace seemed to be hovering over the Senate world; this week the war department is being sad-mauled. England seems to be greatly stirred up over the resolutions pending in the senate reaffirming the Monroe Doctrine.

SENATOR C. B. MASTIN, of Harrison county, introduced a bill for the benefit of the Soldiers. The bill authorizes the appropriation of a sufficient sum of money to purchase homes or emblems to be presented to them as a token of the high regard in which they are held by the State.

THE resources of the public school fund in Kentucky amounted to $3,397,297 on the 10th The Auditor's estimate for this year places the amount at $3,650,000. Kentucky has no good reason for complaint since the loss of the Democratic party's work in public schools.

THE Frankfort correspondent has been selling out on sentiment and not on the Senatorial race. The last fake is that an effort is being made to with draw Hunter and substitute Yerkes or Bradley. This will not work, because Hunter knows he can win if any fourth man can, and no Republican can be elected without assisting some Democrat.

THE Mayor of Louisville died suddenly of heart disease on Tuesday night. Mayor Weaver was a conservative man, information that the Democratic Sheriff of Jefferson county has failed to put a bond in time and his bondless with twenty thirty deputies came into the hands of a Republican appointed by the Republican Circuit Judge. Surely the Democrats are playing to bad luck.

THE news from Frankfort can be classed as that of "All Quiet." The general rule seems of about the lazy order, and we are unable to give the full our readers that week just what is being done. The lobbyists are on deck all in their power to prevent an election until the Yerkes county road law is repealed, while Dr. Hunter is pressing for a vote at once. The fight is a hot one.

MON. JAS. C. BECKWITH has introduced the following bills in the Legislature: H. B. 49—"An act for the benefit of the Carlisle and Jacksboro and the Carlisle and Rogers Mill Turnpike Company."

H. B. 50 "An act to amend an act entitled "An act to consolidate the Carlisle and Russell Mill and Flat Rock Turnpike Road Company and for the benefit of said Companies."

SENATOR PUGSLEY, upon the only issue involving Democratic official or loyalty, tells and Parliament's only has followed his position by failing to accept local option as he has requested by the law. A Republican Governor appoints a Republican Judge, who appoints a Republican Sheriff. He promises, however, that Democratic Deputies shall be appointed. Democrats of the appointed Sheriff's office have recently greatly smaller of their time recently than they have before in a year.—Mayo ville Bulletin.

Democrats in Louisville would rather have Republican officers than Democrats who are not Democrats enough and not enough to control caucuses. They seem to feel as a Democrat I can't feel that I am not opposed to the free coinage of silver. Democrats voting for him Speaker.

SENATOR WINNINGHAM and Representative Carroll and Yocket will certainly be in favor of the Yerkes road law. Senator Bradley and Representative Hunter are for Representative Hunter and Senator Speight and many other armed enemy of men who the last go into the caucus will be Democrats enough to vote for the Democratic Nominee, and others during the session. Mr. Blackburn, may be elected Senator, but he will be by a very small majority. It would be little consequence, however, if he had the unanimous election of the local newspaper Courier Journal.

These gentlemen are learning that party organization because they claim Democratic principles, and are placing Democrats in the attitude of bolters because they refuse to bolt. They think Jo. Blackburn nominated the last assembly and they are determined to do it again. The gentlemen are
