THE ELECTION!

Everything passed off quietly.

There were some surprises, but we run across those every day, especially in elections.

If everybody who says they are sorry Morgan got beaten had voted for him his majority would have been 1000.

Some things look funny, but we do not know enough to say they are. Still you can't keep us from thinking.

Only a light vote was polled in Nicholas and Robertson, but a large one in Pendleton and Harrison.

The following is the vote in the other three counties.

ROBERTSON COUNTY.

FOR JUDGE.
W. W. Kimbrough - - 231
J. T. Simon - - 104
J. P. Norvell - - 7

FOR ATTORNEY.
L. P. Fryer - - 192
J. F. Morgan - - 128

PENDLETON COUNTY.

FOR JUDGE.
W. W. Kimbrough - - 564
J. T. Simon - - 404
J. P. Norvell - - 24

FOR ATTORNEY.
L. P. Fryer - - 867
J. F. Morgan - - 55

HARRISON COUNTY.

FOR JUDGE.
W. W. Kimbroug - - 1157
J. T. Simon - - 521
J. P. Norvell - - 24

FOR ATTORNEY.
L. P. Fryer - - 860
J. F. Morgan - - 748

The result of the above figures give the nomination for Judge to the present incumbent Judge W. W. Kimbrough and Attorney L. P. Fryer of Pendleton.

Fryer's majority over Morgan in the district 212.

Kimbrough's plurality 1003.

John W. Langley was nominated Friday for Congress in the Tenth District by the Republicans.

Overcoats Necessary.

A special from Frankfort June 27th, says:

"The Governor of Kentucky and the other state officers, who constitute the Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners and Penitentiary Commissioner, do not always agree, and there are those who say that a recent meeting of these Commissioners was a stormy one. The question of the appointment of guards at the Frankfort Penitentiary was before the board, and one of the Commissioners was bold enough to say that he thought the Commissioners were a trifle extravagant in wanting to appoint 30 guards, when the Democratic Administration got along nicely with only 23, and that he intended to vote to reduce the number.

He then proceeded to spring a surprise on Governor Bradley by indirectly charging that gentleman with a desire to "hog" all the offices in the gift of the board. He favored a fair divide among the friends of the five Commissioners, and this would give each one the appointment of six guards, but that Governor Bradley had already got 11 of his friends positions and wanted more.

When the Governor and Attorney General meet now, it is said, overcoats are not uncomfortable. Three of the Commissioners are against the Governor. There promises to be a split in the board that means war to the knife, and will equal the Norman-Brown split in the Democratic board.

High Bridge Camp Meeting begins on the 17th of this month.

While between ninety and one hundred men were at work in the Ash vein of the Twin shaft at Pittston, Pa., Monday morning strengthening the supports of the roof, it caved in upon them, and all but three, who escaped, probably perished. The supports had shown signs of giving way for several days, and the most experienced miners of the section were in the pit using the most heroic measures to prevent just such a disaster as occured.
