LYDIA WHEELOCK.

BY MARY E. WILKINS.

We all agree that Lydia Wheelock is very plain looking, but that she is very pretty, and that her disposition is very sweet. She never had any particular beauty, and her figure was always rather awkward, but she has a look in her face Lydia, with her round shoulders and her big hands, that makes me want to stop the right-thinking majority of the world and tell them that they are not half enough to be the mother of them. Lydia's mother died when Lydia was a little baby, which set off their looks and manners, which are all their own, to the best advantage. Lydia's father was a carpenter and builder and lived and worked in Pairfield.

Lydia had a good education, and when she left school she went to work in a shop in Pairfield village, and worked there for several years. Then she went home and helped her father keep house. She was very much devoted to her father, and he was very much devoted to her. He was not rich enough for that, neither had she any expectations from him, but they had a very happy home together. They lived in the plain, neat house, which was all their own, and had just enough to live comfortably on. Lydia's father was a man of very independent principles, and he would not have taken a penny from anybody, even if he had been in need of it. He was a man who had a great deal of pride, and he was very much respected by his fellow-townsmen. He was a member of the Pairfield Baptist church, and so was Lydia, and her father was very much pleased when she united with the church. He was a man who had very strong religious principles, and he was very much pleased when Lydia began to show that she had them also.

Lydia's father had a very large family, and he was very much pleased when Lydia began to show that she had inherited a taste for the study of the Bible. He was a man who had very little education himself, but he had a great deal of natural intelligence, and he was very much interested in the study of the Bible, and he was very much pleased when Lydia began to show that she had inherited a taste for the study of the Bible. He was a man who had very little education himself, but he had a great deal of natural intelligence, and he was very much interested in the study of the Bible, and he was very much pleased when Lydia began to show that she had inherited a taste for the study of the Bible.

What was true of Lydia as a baby was true of her as a child. She was a very plain child, but she was a very pretty child. She was a very pretty child, but she was a very plain child. She was a very pretty child, but she was a very plain child. She was a very pretty child, but she was a very plain child.

What is
CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves Teething troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
EDWIN F. PARDEE, M. D.,
125th St. and 7th Ave., New York City.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interests of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing upon them stimulating poisons, sold under the name of Soothing Syrups and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHELOE,
Conway, Ark. Allen C. Smith, Pres.
Monticello, Ark.

"Castoria has proved to us most excellent in our practice in our families, and we shall always have confidence in recommending it as a reliable and harmless preparation for children."
UNITED HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY,
Boston, Mass.

Mrs. F. D. Stoddard, editor of the Harrodsburg Democrat, was on Friday last married to Mr. Thomas Bryan, of Mercer. The bride is a handsome and highly accomplished lady, while the fine editor of the Democrat has secured a most worthy partner indeed.

Mrs. Stoddard is learning. He wrote single-girl standard articles for twenty years, and now he has a wife to write about. Her experience will be valuable to him, as in order to serve his patrons our editor must get down to first principles.—Interior Journal.

Last Summer one of our grandchildren had a severe attack of bowel complaint. Our doctor's remedies had failed to help her. We had used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy in our family for years, and knew it to be reliable, so we gave it to her. It relieved her at once and she was soon entirely well. We have since used it in our family on several occasions and always with the same result. We have also sold it to our customers for years and it has always given entire satisfaction. We do not hesitate to say that it is the best medicine in use for bowel complaints.—Mrs. Mary Hall, Hall's Store, Ga. For sale by Corcoran & Son, druggists, Carlisle.
